

AUTOS COLLIDE; ONE RUNS AWAY

Ralph Talpis Claims L. Samaniego Failed to Stop When He Hit His Car.

Colliding with his Buick touring car in which his family was riding, Ralph Talpis claims that L. Samaniego, driving a seven-passenger Abbott-Detroit car, failed to stop after the accident, but continued to drive down the county road until over taken by Dan Stedham, who happened to be passing.

Mr. Talpis said Thursday he was driving down the valley Tuesday night. When about nine miles below the city, the collision occurred. There was plenty of room for the cars to pass, Mr. Talpis says, but he insists that the Abbott-Detroit car was kept in the middle of the road by Samaniego.

After the collision Talpis says that Samaniego continued down the road without stopping to see if anyone had been injured. Dan Stedham arrived soon after the accident. The situation was explained to him and he started in pursuit. The Abbott-Detroit car had a flat tire and was finally overtaken by Mr. Stedham, who obtained the number of the car only after lifting a case which partially covered it, he said.
