

WOULD PROVE CHARLTON SANE

Prosecution's Alienist Testifies At Italian Trial; Defence Fights Hard.

Come, Italy, Oct. 22.—Today's session of the trial of Porter Charlton, the American who is charged with having murdered his wife, was given over largely to the reports of alienists. The expert for the prosecution read a lengthy report, which reached the conclusion that Charlton was entirely responsible mentally. The expert for the defense argued that the prisoner was irresponsible.

Baron Scialoja, the presiding judge, read a deposition made by Charlton in New Jersey shortly after his arrival there. This deposition was regarded as of importance because although it contained the admission that Charlton killed his wife, it did not mention the epileptic convulsion into which, according to later deposition, he passed after committing the deed.

MOVEMENT STARTED TO INCORPORATE TULAROSA

Tularosa, N. M., Oct. 22.—A movement to incorporate the town of Tularosa is now well under way and is meeting with favorable consideration from a large number of enterprising citizens. The general sentiment is that several public improvements are needed, among them a waterworks system. The present water system of open ditches ought to be improved upon.

NEW "DIAMOND" PACKAGE CALIFORNIA WALNUTS.

This new package puts an end to your buying walnuts of an unknown quality. The CALIFORNIA Walnuts in the DIAMOND BRAND package carry an absolute guarantee of quality—well-gilled shells—rich, nutty white meat. The kind of walnuts you always want to buy—but have never before had any way to identify them.

You can say to your dealer, "Send me a No. One (or No. Two) size 'Diamond Brand Walnut package.' If they come in a DIAMOND BRAND package—you know you are getting what you ordered—fancy California Soft Shell Walnuts. You can expect—and will get—the same high quality every time.

It is the only satisfactory way to buy walnuts, as the first package will quickly convince you.

CHICAGO WOMAN SEEKS MONEY. Thinks Man Who Died Here in Hospital Carried $600 Insurance.

An investigation is being made by W. C. Porterfield, representing Mrs. Elizabeth Hollis, of 1244 Glendale avenue, Chicago, to find out whether the Phillip Steele, who died at the county hospital on April 14 and buried in the county cemetery, was her husband. Mrs. Hollis bases her claim to a $300 insurance policy on the grounds that Steele was her husband and that he left a note addressed to Elizabeth Hollis before his death in the county hospital. Mrs. Hollis states that Steele's real name was Hollis and that he deserted from the U. S. army three years ago and two years after they were divorced. She recently sent a picture to El Paso of Hollis. He was a printer and had been employed by the Commercial Printing company. If Steele can be identified as Hollis, Mrs. Hollis will secure the $300 insurance.

Ent. Drink and Be Sanitary. The 14th Regt. Signal Corps have been made sanitary. Which reminds one of Punch's picture of two Irish tenants waiting on a fence to shoot the landlord as he came home. The landlord was belated and one of the tenants, looking anxiously up the road, said: "I hope nothing happened to the poor fellow."

He'd Better Have Gone to War. What was the use of Curcio's coming back? A truck driver has become a grand opera tenor, and now the president's daughter that her father has a fine tenor voice.

Still It's Something. The president says he wants to pay for Shadowlawn "what he has been accustomed to pay for his summer home," judging by the picture of the Cornish House, and those of Shadowlawn, that would just about be a fair rental for the Shadowlawn garage.

Or About the Value of a Clear Coupon. Mexican money is now worth in New York something between the value of a trading stamp and a British sovereign.

Corporate Profitability. A motorist whose presence of mind and cold nerve saved a three-thousand-dollar car and the lives of 14 passengers was awarded $250 by the New York Railway company. If that is the way the traction concerns are throwing their money about, it is no wonder that the stockholders complain of meagre dividends.

Anyway, They're Moving. If faith will move mountains somebody must have been using a lot of it along the Panama canal.

Self-Control First Element In Character

Many Persons Think They Have It, But Nearly All Are Found Lacking in Some Way When They Are Put To Strict Test—Will Must Be Developed.

SUCH is said of self control by preachers and teachers the world over, but to how many human beings can we point as illustrating the beauty of that virtue? In truth, what is self control? Were your child to ask you what you meant by the word, could you explain? Are you exercising this admirable quality in your daily life, and if so, in what direction? Perhaps you have an inborn taste for strong drink, and you control it and "touch not, taste not, handle not the unclean thing." That is well and good. Yet are you bringing on diseases and early death by including a gross appetite for heavy foods? Possibly you are indolent by inclination and you lounge yourself to work. That, too, is well and good. The human drone who does no labor, mental or physical, for the good of the human hive should be driven from among his kind. Yet he who would be worthy of the appellation of a "self controlled man" must do more than to labor in sobriety.

Self Control In Labor.

If you are possessed with an inordinate love of weary labor may be a disposition and call for the use of self control. Next to the sin of idleness comes the sin of intemperance in work. To work day and night to the injury of your health and to the injury of your health and to the injury of the temple of your soul and the foundation of happiness on earth—the human.

If you are mad for great wealth it will be an easy matter for you to make a necessity of a desire and to commit domestic or hygienic suicide by a lack of self control.

An hour or two a day, an extra evening or two in the week might be given to recreation and home life if you realize how small an object in the general realm of happiness wealth proves when placed beside the things you are sacrificing to obtain it.

Perhaps you are a literary man, or a clergyman, or an artist engaged in creative work. Upon the success of your work depends the comfort of your family and your reputation as a man of talent. Therefore you feel justified in being somewhat "difficult" in your home and social relations.

You are nervous and irritable, and you have no excuse to make. Talent is expected to cover a multitude of such sins. Talent excuses nothing which weakens character, and the first element in character development is self-control.
