

THREE FIAT AUTOS ARE HERE

Machines Belonging To Villa's Former Executioner at Border.

When he was arrested on a charge of bringing stolen property into the state, Guadalupe Hernandez stated to the police that he and two companions had brought to El Paso three of Gen. Huerta's Fiat autos, a Fiat, a Packard and an Excelsior touring car.

HECTOR RAMOS GIVES BOND AND TAKES GEN. ORNELAS'S AUTO

Hector Ramos, formerly of the Villa secret service department, has given a claimant's note to a local bank, and has taken charge of the seven-passenger National automobile brought from Juarez by Gen. Ornelas.

Dear Sir: On June 23, 1915, we insured against burglary in the Maryland Casualty Co. On the night of September 26th, our safe was blown open and robbed of $415.30.

On October 20th we received from you, Maryland Casualty Co. draft for full amount of claim, also $100.00 for expenses and better safe shipped October 31, from the factory and assigned to us.

This is not only a satisfactory, but an exceedingly prompt settlement, and we request that you convey our thanks to the Maryland Casualty Company.

The writer wishes to thank you personally for your assistance in inducing him to insure, and frankly admits that at the time he had no idea that within three months he would receive a striking demonstration of the truth of your argument.

Yours very sincerely, Rlo Grand View and Funt Co. By Joseph A. Wright.
