MRS. STEVENS IS IN THE CITY FROM MEXICO

To Meet Her Long Lost Daughter, and the meeting No Doubt Will Be a Most Unusual One.

Mrs. Anna Stevens, whose little daughter May, disappeared from El Paso eight years ago and was not again heard from until quite recently, is here from Mexico to meet the child when she is brought back from Indiana, where she was found.

The little Stevens girl is now said to be a pretty and well developed miss of fifteen. She has been absent from her mother so long that she will probably not recognize her when they meet. The meeting will probably be an unusual one.
