Bridges, one of our merchants, died last night about five miles from town. SHERMAN, Oct. 24.—An old gentleman died at the poor farm this morning by the name of Cooney. Sheild is the name of an ex-Confederate soldier seventy-two years of age, very low, and not expected to live. DENTON, Oct. 24.—Little Nora Schwehr, two years old, and only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Schwehr of this city, died here last night of pneumonia, and was buried at the Old Fellows' cemetery at 3 o'clock this afternoon. One of the banks and several of the business houses in the city have been closed to-day in honor of the beloved young one who has passed over the river. COLLINSVILLE, Oct. 25.—Mrs. Ann McGinnity, wife of "Uncle Billy McGinnity," one of the oldest settlers of this community, was found dead in her bed this morning. Although her health had not been good for some time, and she has had a physician occasionally, her death was a surprise to her friends and relatives. She had gone to bed feeling as usual, and at sometime in the night she quietly passed away without anyone in the house knowing of it. She was seventy-two years old. Miss Duller Hales, fourteen-year-old daughter of G. W. Hales, died near here last night. PARIS, Oct. 26.—Mr. Crapo, the aged father of Mr. James T. Craiglo, a well-known citizen of this city, died at 2 o'clock this morning. SCHEDULE FOR THE GAZETTE. 1412 Main Street.
