

NEWS OF THE DAY IN PICTURES

Farmers War Against Farmers to Break Strike

Farmers are arrayed against farmers as the newest development in the soil tillers' strike. Opposition against the outbreak has resulted in organization of midwest "law and order leagues," members of which aid deputies in keeping highways clear. Above is shown a group armed with guns and clubs escorting a milk truck through picket lines near Sioux City, Ia.

WHERE MRS. KELLY WILL SPEND REST OF HER LIFE

This photo shows a diagram of the new federal detention prison at Milan, Mich., where Mrs. Kathryn Kelly, inset, wife of George (Machine Gun) Kelly, must spend the rest of her life as a result of her conviction for conspiracy in the kidnaping of Charles F. Urschel, Oklahoma oil millionaire. Mrs. Kelly originally was imprisoned in the county jail at Cincinnati, but was removed from there after Cincinnati residents objected to her being held in the jail.

Joan's in Town

"Mr. Tone? Oh, yes, Mr. Tone was on the train, but he got off at Albany to see some friends." Well, Joan Crawford wasn't saying much about her purported romance with Franchot Tone when she arrived in New York, but a few hours after this picture was taken—(can't you tell by the smile?)—she was strolling with him down Fifth Avenue.

She Is Valuable to Movie World

Jean Muir

This unusual photo shows Jean Muir in a camera study of black and white. Jean, now filming "Betside" in Hollywood, is considered by movie executives as one of the year's outstanding screen discoveries.

Move Soviet Records at Capital

While President Roosevelt and Maxim Litvinov were conferring on Russian recognition at the White House, three army trucks were carrying records from the Russian Embassy to a Government building for examination by American and Soviet officials. They were believed to deal with debts of the Kerensky regime. Here one of the Army trucks waits, under guard, to load up with the "mystery cargo."

'Most Beautiful Blond' to Wed

"The most beautiful blond in the world," if Charlie Chaplin is any judge, is matrimony bound. Virginia Cherrill, above, formerly Chaplin's leading lady, will be the bride of Cary Grant, left, lead in Mae West pictures—if Grant is right in the admission he made to New York reporters when Miss Cherrill tossed him a corsage of orchids as she sailed for Europe.

Where Kidnapers Slew Victim

Thomas Thurman, held in kidnaping and slaying of Brooke Hart, son of San Jose (Cal.) merchant, looks down from San Mateo-Hayward bridge at point where body of young man was thrown. Above, J. M. "Jack" Holmes (left), held with Thurman, and Sheriff William J. Emig, who solved the crime and made the arrests.

CONNIE MACK ACTS AS AIR MAESTRO

Connie Mack, the tall gentleman with the wand at the right, does his stuff as a radio maestro, directing his one-man orchestra who is none other than Mickey Cochrane, Athletic catcher and baseball's star saxophone player, doing his stuff for a welfare campaign broadcast in Philadelphia. An interested onlooker is Tommy Loughran, famed heavyweight boxer.

My, How Lionel Loves Cake!

Never mind what Marie Dressler is telling Norma Shearer at the birthday party given the other day in Hollywood in honor of the famous comedienne. Just see what a cake-eater Lionel Barrymore is. If his director saw him displaying such manners in a movie scene, he'd throw seven fits.

Beauty Reigns Over Snow

Surrounded by the ermine robes of Winter, Miss Emily Ingwerson, of Chicago, makes a pretty picture as she gathers her sport equipment about her to enjoy the first snowfall of the season at Lasell College, Auburndale, Mass. She is "Queen of Winter Sports" at the college.

A Newcomer in Hollywood

One of the latest arrivals in Hollywood is John Joseph Haley, Jr., the blinking little tot you see in the arms of his mother, the former Florence McFadden of the legitimate stage. And, of course, proud papa couldn't stay out of the picture. He's the Broadway actor who's been signed to make his movie debut soon.

No Fan Dancing for Her

Just because she posed like this, Sally Blane, above, is being swamped with letters from protesting moviegoers who don't want her to exhibit the fan dance in the films. It's Sally Rand they mean, of course, and Sally Blane protests she never did do a fan dance and never will. But it's too bad the names are so alike, and the picture was posed.
