Xmas Pageant To Be Given On Saturday

The Methodist Sunday School is presenting a Christmas program Saturday evening at 7:30 o'clock in the church.

E. A. Monsees, superintendent of Sunday School, is giving the invocation. "Little Town of Bethlehem" will be sung by the congregation. Lloyd Parker is to give a reading "The Old Striped Stocking" and his brother, Larry, will give "The Stocking Song." Lloyd will also accompany his brother when he sings "Christmas Stars."

The highlight of the program is the pageant, "The Shepherd's Trail" by Marian Morris presented by a large cast of Sunday school pupils.

Plot of the pageant centers around the quest for the golden key which unlocks life's fairest treasure and which lies at the end of the shepherd's trail. The difficulties six youths encounter searching for the key are unfolded in the presentation.

Committee in charge of the pageant includes Miss Carlotta Villareal, Mrs. E. T. Pierce, Miss Madge Singer, Miss Virginia Meyers and Miss Ruth Cowan.

Offering for the Methodist Orphan's Home in Waco will be taken and benediction will conclude the program. This same program will be presented at the Los Fresnos school Sunday night for the Methodist Sunday school.

Mignon Sewing Club Organized this Week

SEA RAIDER'S BELL TRACED TO STAYS BY SLUICHS
SYDNEY, Australia. (AP)—Detectives here say that they have solved the mystery of the famous German cruiser Emden which disappeared twice within 18 months.

A young German, believed to be a deserter from the French foreign legion, has been arrested in connection with the second theft of the bell last April.

It now is said that the tocsin was smuggled on board the American steamer Marlboro, bound for San Francisco, and there sold to a German-American for $20,000.

The bell was salvaged from the Emden after she had been sunk by the Australian ship Sydney at Cocos Island in 1914. For years it was displayed in the Garden Island naval depot. First stolen last year, it was found buried in Hyde Park, Sydney, and was taken to the war museum for greater safety, but it disappeared again on April 25.

OLD-FASHIONED NOSEGAY PATTERN NO. 486

NOSEGAY IS FAVORITE SCRAP QUILT

The Old-fashioned Nosegay is one of those patterns that needs no explanation. Its quaint charm—its colorfulness—would make it outstanding in any collection of quilts. The very fact that it is made of scraps of material enhances its beauty, for was not the old-time nosegay that inspired it formed of all the varieties of flowers that the old-fashioned garden boasted of? It can be made with the same scraps repeated in each block as illustrated, or with each block made of different scraps like so many different bouquets.

Pattern 486 comes to you with complete, simple instructions for cutting, sewing and finishing, together with yardage chart, diagram of quilt to help arrange the blocks for single and double bed size, and a diagram of block which serves as a guide for placing the patches and suggests contrasting materials.

Send 10c for this pattern to The Brownsville Herald Needlecraft Dept., 82 Eighth Avenue, New York City.

Simms-Hearn Rites Dec. 25

(Special to The Herald)

WESLACO, Dec. 22.—Mr. and Mrs. Lee Simms announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Hazel, to Charles B. Hearn, the ceremony to take place Monday, Dec. 25th 1933.

The wedding will be solemnized at the home of the bride at three o'clock in the afternoon, with the Rev. J. D. Boren of Edinburg officiating.

After a short wedding tour the young couple will be at home in San Antonio.

Charming among the Missionary affairs of the month was the regular meeting of the W. M. S. at the First Baptist church Monday afternoon. Mrs. T. L. Smith and her circle, the Compere circle, were in charge.

The church parlors were adorned in keeping with the Christmas season, and the table covers in oriental designs emphasized that part brought out in the entertainment.

Trophies of the Word in the East, was the topic of the day, with Mesdames E. W. Goss and A. J. Hayes giving the beautiful devotion. "His Name Emmanuel," Francis Hamner gave the reading, "His Name Emmanuel," and this was followed by a duet, "Silent Night," by Mesdames A. S. Pike and J. K. Stone.

Mrs. Smith spoke of, "In the East," and Mrs. S. V. Brandon explained, "Open Doors and Adversaries," "The Word in the East," was described by Mrs. M. K. Hamner with Mrs. Langford giving, "Reductions and Retrenchments" Mrs. Smith explained, "Trophies of the Word."

Mesdames Scott and Culbertson were attired in Chinese and Japanese costumes and told true stories of those countries. Mrs. Chas. Gound gave a Message, "The Word Around the World."

Refreshments were served to 30 members and guests.

A beautiful candle ceremony was an outstanding part of the program given at the Presbyterian church Monday, when members met for the annual Christmas party and program. Mrs. Forest Powell, president, presided. Mrs. Frank Wortham was in charge of the program.

The church was decorated in Christmas colors and flowers. The program was opened by a devotionally portrayed by Mrs. E. S. Brewer followed by a solo by Mrs. A. G. Kurz. Mrs. L. C. Williamson gave a reading followed by a duet by Mesdames Kurz and G. W. Greenway. Mrs. Gus Kaufman told the Christmas story. At the foot of a Christmas tree stood a conchabla bearing lighted candles. Each circle chairman brought a filled stocking as a gift from her circle to the Missionary Relief Fund. Forty-six members enjoyed a social hour in the church annex.

Mrs. Frank Koester entertained during the past week with a bridge affair, in honor of the 5th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Ballard and the eighth anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Koester.

A Christmas tree, with other seasonal decorations, made the rooms lovely for the occasion.

Guests were Messrs and Mesdames Jimmie Noble, E. B. Ballard, Gordon Potts, J. B. Lane, Crayton Gunn, Warren Clifford, Carra Galloway, Mrs. Ballard and Mr. Potts were score winners. A salad course was served by the hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Reeves have returned from Austin, where they went to visit their daughter.

Mrs. George Cox of Del Rio, secretary and treasurer of the fifth federation of Women's clubs, visited her cousin, Mrs. W. H. Baxter, Sr., for a short time last week.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Sherrill expect his mother, Mrs. Sherrill of San Antonio and daughter, Miss Eugenia, to arrive this weekend to spend the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. George Hall of Maryville, Mo., have arrived to be connected with the Gulf Fruit and Vegetable Co. They are at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Koester.

The Rebekahs held the weekly meeting Monday evening, with good attendance. Plans were made to install officers New Year's night.

Mrs. Walter Andrews left Thursday for Oklahoma, where she will spend the holidays with relatives.

Mrs. Culbertson, who has spent the past few months as a guest of her sister, Mrs. F. T. Hudson was to leave Friday for her home in Oklahoma.

Mrs. E. S. Brewer was to leave this week for San Antonio, where she will spend a few weeks with her sisters.

The Woman's Missionary Society of the Methodist Church met in regular business session in the church basement Monday at 3:00 p. m. The session was opened with group singing of Christmas Carols. Mrs. W. J. Bach had charge of the business.

A number of toys were brought to be distributed to underprivileged children. Mrs. J. O. Jorgensen was unanimously elected president for the coming year. Mrs. C. E. Bludworth was elected superintendent of children's work. Names of the other officers will be given later.

A rising vote of thanks was given Mrs. Bach for her good work during the past year, and she in turn thanked all for their kindness and co-operation.

In the recent attendance contest circle two won with 413 points. The other circles entertained with a short program and refreshments. Mrs. Cassel gave the devotion. Her theme, "What Have We Women to do to Make This a Christian Christmas?" was well given.

Mrs. Fred Robertson gave a very good talk on Japan. Mrs. Bobby Albritton favored with a vocal solo. There were 32 present.

Circle three of the Presbyterian Auxiliary held their Christmas party at the home of Mrs. George Barnard with Mrs. George Lucas in charge of a lesson study. She was assisted by Mrs. Parks Goody and Mrs. N. S. Allen. Mrs. Johnson gave a devotion with Mrs. Raymond Witt following with the Bible study. Fourteen members exchanged Polly Anna Gifts.

Circle four enjoyed a Polly Anna Christmas party at the home of Mrs. A. G. Kurz in Progresso. A program of music and readings was enjoyed. Mrs. R. A. Rowland gave a devotion in keeping with the season. Seventeen members were served luncheon, buffet style from a beautifully laid table.

Mrs. A. C. Smith, left Thursday for Powhatan, Kansas where she will visit for several weeks. Keith Tuggle of Brownsville, her brother will accompany her on the trip continuing on to Stella, Nebraska.

Leanne McCall who is now connected with the Carey Salt Company is in the Valley on business for that firm. He is recovering from a tonsil operation which was performed Saturday at the Valley Baptist Hospital in Hartington. He will be in the Valley until December 26.

Mrs. A. J. Garey honored her little daughter, Helen on the occasion of her second birthday anniversary with a party at her home in Valencia Park Saturday. The home presented a festive scene, decorated with a color scheme of red and green, the center of attraction being a prettily bedecked Christmas tree which held a gift for each child. Individual favors were tiny red stockings filled with candies and nuts.

The little honoree was crowned "Queen" of the birthday party, little friends placing a silver crown on her head. In the dining room birthday cake was served from the center of a table with other goodies in keeping. The table was covered with a red striped cloth with four little individual cakes placed on either side. Places for the guests were marked with favors. Contests were played, prizes were presented to Frances Pierce and Robert Tusing.
