APPLETON KNOCKED OUT AND GASSERS WIN 8-5

TURN TABLES ON ORPHANS AND TAKE THIRD OF SERIES; HILL EFFECTIVE IN PINCHES

Sending Appleton to the showers in the fourth, while Elmer Hill pitched effective ball in the pinches, the Gassers turned the tables on Tom Price's Waifs yesterday and took the third of the series by an 8 to 5 score, after having lost two straight.

An error, three walks and a single gave the Orphans two runs in the ninth and it looked like the feat of Sunday might be repeated, but Elmer steadied, retiring the side after the bases had been loaded with none down.

Outside of the first inning, when three hits and Fitzgerald's error gave the visitors three runs, Hill was effective, holding them to four scattered hits in eight innings. The "boys without a home" threatened several times, but Hill's good work and fast infield play ing cut them down.

Four hits off Appleton in the first, gave the Gassers two runs and they tied the score in the second on McElwee's error, a walk and Bill Byers' double to center. With two down in the third, Fitzgerald was hit, stole second and scored on Dinsmore's fumble, and the Gassers came back for three more tallies in the fourth on Badger's double, singles by Byers and Hill and Comstock's sacrifice. Miers went to the relief of Appleton with none down and retired the side without further damage, also holding the locals scoreless and to one hit in the next two frames.

In the meantime Hill was shutting out the visitors, allowing them no runs and one little measley single in the seven innings from the first to the ninth, Baker's hit to left being the only safety. With Baker on and one down in the sixth, D. Moore lined to Chaney for a fast double play.

Aubeier's single and Chaney's double gave the Gassers another in the seventh. Moore and Comstock came up for singles in the eighth, but without runs.

Williams went to second in the ninth on Chaney's bad throw to Aubeier. McElwee walked and Schmidt singled, scoring Williams. Miers walked, filling the bases. Dinsmore fanned but Smith was passed, forcing in McElwee. With the score 5 to 3 and three men on Hill cut down Stewart and Baker, both heavy hitters, Stewart fanning and Baker lifting a high one to Fitzgerald.

Byers was the heavy hitter of the day, getting a double and two singles in four trips. Aubeier, Skinny Moore, Smith and Dinty Moore each connected safely twice in four times at bat.

Badger and Baker both played their positions well, Badger especially making some hard running catches, going back against the fence and pulling down Williams' crashing drive in the seventh.

BURLESON BLANKS NITROS, HOLDING THEM TO 2 HITS

Special to The News

CLOVIS, N. M., Aug. 8.—Burleson of the Buzzers was in fine form today and held the Nitros to two hits and no runs. He also had excellent control, walking none and striking out 11 men. Skipper McIver of the Buzzers poled two home runs, the first coming in the fourth inning with a runner on.

Only three of the Nitros reached first base and none of them reached second. Besides pitching a masterful game, Burleson contributed to his victory with a circuit clout in the fourth inning.

Pillette Sensation of His League

HERMAN PILLETTE

By Billy Evans.

The American League has uncovered some mighty fine young pitchers among the 1922 recruits.

Good pitchers are hard to get. Seldom does one come through in his first year. In every, in this respect the American League has been very fortunate during the present season.

Of all the fresh recruits who have blossomed forth, none stands out more prominently than Herman Pillette of the Detroit Tigers.

In securing Pillette was simply a pitching recruit. He wasn't figured on to play any part in the Tigers' [illegible] to play any part in the Tigers' [illegible] of the Detroit staff.

Pillette came to Detroit from Portland, owner Naylo paid $40,000 for him and Johnson. The latter was the pitcher the Tigers really wanted. Pillette [illegible]

Confined to shop [illegible] in the Pacific Coast League in 1921. With [illegible] Pillette [illegible] 22 and 7 for .759 [illegible] a better [illegible] ball [illegible] of [illegible] ing.

Had Their Doubts.

Last spring I talked with a number of Coast League players about Johnson and Pillette after Owner Navin of Detroit had paid such a fancy figure for them. They all seemed to think that Johnson would make good, but had their doubts about Pillette.

So much for expert testimony! Pillette already has spoiled all the advance dope on the two pitchers.

He stands more than six feet all. He has a rather peculiar delivery, that [illegible] makes it appear as if he should get more on the ball than is actually does. His pitching style is also interesting to the batter and makes it difficult to accurately time his ball.

He has a good assortment of curves and a corking fadeaway on his fast ball. The style of delivery is very much like [illegible] Shore, once a star with the Boston Red Sox and New York Yankees.

Hard to Hit.

Pillette uses all his speed on this ball and keeps it low. When it nears the plate it breaks down and out, much after the manner of a spit-ball. It is hard to hit effectively as the batsmen usually taps it.

The most interesting part about Pillette is that he goes about his work like a veteran despite the fact that he has been in the majors only a month.

Nothing seems to worry him. He has plenty of nerve. His disposition could not be better. It means nothing in his life if an umpire misses a perfect strike. He kindly pitches, and lets the umpire do the umpiring.

Pillette's most recent hit of good pitching was against the New York Yankees when he beat them twice in a four game series. In the final game of the series, with only a two-day rest, he shut out the hard hitting Yankees with six hits, one a home run.

In all probability the original sum paid for the two pitchers wouldn't cause the Detroit owner to part with [illegible]

"DRY CHECK" CAMPAIGN SHOWS GOOD RESULTS

Reports made at the meeting of the retail credit men Tuesday night indicated the "dry check" prevention campaign has already resulted in a lessening of this method of fleecing merchants.

The business men present last night expressed satisfaction at the present status of the campaign and assured Secretary R. O. Walkup they would keep up the fight against the bad check artists. The attendance at the meeting was good.
