John Doe got a "straight" loan of $1,000 at 6 per cent, (lucky John) for 7 1-2 years, paid $450.00 interest, his loan matured, hadn't saved a cent to meet it and had to have it renewed, paying another commission, (unlucky John).

John Doe's Cake Was Dough.

John Bright got an installment loan from the Standard Savings and Loan Association, paid no commission nor attorney fee for getting it, paid the small sum of $15.83 per month for 90 months, 7 1-2 years, $1,424.70 in all only $424.70 of which was interest and got his release. (Bully for John).

Which John Are You Right Now?

If you are still paying interest upon a "straight" loan which like Tenneyson's "BROOK" runs on forever" you owe it to yourself and to your dependants to GET OUT OF THE RUT see Mr. Askew today, begin NOW to pay off that loan which has been hanging like a mill stone about your neck.
