MAKING PLANS TO MERGE BANKS

City National and Rio Grande Valley Will Consolidate Nov. 1.

Plans are being formulated this week for the merger of the City National bank and the Rio Grande Valley Bank and Trust company.

The capital, deposits and resources of the new bank will be approximately $5,000,000.

For the remainder of this year the bank will occupy the quarters of the City National.

The officers of the new institution for the present will be: President, U. S. Stewart; vice presidents, W. Cooley, J. P. Williams, T. M. Wingo and H. M. Anderson.

The merger is to be effected in order that the growing banking needs of the southwest may be handled more adequately.

The organizers of the new bank are all well known here and in financial circles over the country.

They were connected with the two banks united in the merger.

Martha Chapin Sends for Clifford and Douglass and Believes John Ended His Own Life by an Accidental Shot.

CHAPTER XIII. "My darling. That is only another formalism."

"Very well," she murmured. She started upstairs, then stopped, and she returned to Mrs. Chapin and, sitting by her bed, tried to soothe her by allowing her to talk of what had been said.

"I don't see how I happened to be looking with that pistol," Martha Chapin said. And at the words Elizabeth started violently. It had not occurred to her that this simple-minded woman had not connected John Butler with the pistol.

"What can I do for you, dear?" Butler asked in a low voice. "I will inquire into the matter," Elizabeth told her. "It was stupid of me not to think of this sooner."

"The coroner and his assistant," John replied. "Then seeing her change color slightly he took her hand in his. 'Don't worry, dear. It is only a formality that must be gone through with. You will be all right. I am not worrying. And you must not either.'"

"The sheriff," she caught her breath sharply. "To be continued."
