AN ILLINOISAN WHO SAYS HIS STATE IS DECIDEDLY FOR FREE SILVER. A FIRST MEETING WITH GENERAL STEVENSON—A CITY NATIONAL BANK JOKE

Hon. Robert J. Millburn of Galena, Ill., one of the most prominent politicians in that part of his state, an ex-member of the Illinois legislature and a close friend and adviser of General Stevenson, spent yesterday in the city on route home from a short legal trip to south Texas.

Jameson Gannon and McDonald are great jokers. Colonel Smith Jones in the fun, too, and during a few minutes yesterday they were heard to utter some of the funniest remarks that have ever been heard in the city.

A short time ago the disappearance of Mrs. Knight from the city of Fort Worth was mentioned in the Gazette, and still nothing has been heard of her.

Mr. Knight was well known here and was engaged in the real estate business. Mrs. Knight has not been heard of since she left here last December.

When Mrs. Knight left this city it was with the expressed intention of leaving her home in Chicago, and it is supposed she will be gone only for a few weeks.

Mrs. Knight's husband is a well known business man in Chicago, and it is supposed she will be gone only for a few weeks.
