A Well Known Citizen Announces For the Office.

In today's Gazette appears the announcement of Jno. W. Burford as a candidate for the office of tax collector of Tarrant county. To those who have lived here always John Burford needs no introduction, to those who have come here in the last twenty years he is also well known, and all know him to be an honest, upright man as well as a courteous gentleman. There are no faults about him, he meets and treats all alike. He is fully competent to fill the office he seeks, and would make a model official.
