PLUNKETT IN TOWN.

HONEST DICK PLUNKETT, THE OKLAHOMA SPORT.

Stopped off in Fort Worth on his way home from the Big Fight.

Three noted sporting men arrived in town Tuesday. They were Dan Stuart, Joe Vendig and Dick Plunkett, all on their way from the Fitzsimmons-Maher fight in Mexico. Stuart went on to Dallas, Vendig to New York, while the latter stopped with some friends here for a day or two. Plunkett has had an interesting career. He is known throughout the Oklahoma Territory as Honest Dick, and whatever he says goes. To a Gazette reporter he said:

POLITICAL NOTES.

DRAKE HAS NOT DECIDED WHEN TO CALL COUNTY CONVENTION.

The Populists Pleased With the Presiding Officers Appointed by the Commissioners—Notes.

The sensation of the day in Inner Republican circles yesterday was the announcement that Captain Joseph N. Diehl had united his fortunes with the Black and Tans.

It will be remembered that a short time ago Mr. Diehl received from the local Populist committee a warrant appointing him in the place of Mr. Drexler, whom Goodell attempted to remove.

Mr. Diehl after some days' consideration, the matter, refused to accept the appointment, and was named in the decision in the Gazette.

It was also rumored among the leaders that Mr. Goodell has attempted to remove the secretary of the county executive committee. The report, however, could not be traced to an authoritative source.

DRAKE UNDECIDED WHEN HE WILL CALL THE COUNTY CONVENTION.

C. C. Drake, chairman of the Tarrant county Republican executive committee, said yesterday he had not yet decided upon a date for calling the county convention.
