

THS BY STORM.

CLIFFTON SWELLS OVER KANSAS.

People Killed and Property Destroyed—Homes and Churches Sacked and Trees Uprooted.

Kan. April 27.—Five persons were killed outright, three and seventeen more or less injured and great destruction of property caused by a cyclone which passed over the Rock Island night.

Mr. Chandler said that when the naval committee was asked if the naval officers conversant with affairs at the Stange works... The Stange works... were supposed to represent the government.

Mr. Bacon (Dem. Ill.) said the two officers who appeared before the naval committee... He insisted that it was an evil to so circumvent a naval officer...

Mr. Tillman said it was neither decent nor good taste for these officers to serve these interests in robes of the government... He said the committee had no right to do this.

Mr. Gorman asked if the committee had not succeeded in developing anything from the other side... He said the committee had not.

Mr. Chandler responded that this was by no means all that the committee had done... He said the committee had done a great deal.

Secretary Tracy had sought the American manufacturers and had induced them to put in plants capable of turning out armor... He said the committee had done a great deal.

Mr. Gorman went on to show in detail the manner in which the armor contracts had been placed in the United States... He said the committee had done a great deal.

Mr. Chandler said that the committee had done a great deal... He said the committee had done a great deal.

Mr. Gorman said that the committee had done a great deal... He said the committee had done a great deal.

Mr. Chandler said that the committee had done a great deal... He said the committee had done a great deal.

RAMPOLLI'S LETTER.

TRANSLATION READ BEFORE CONGRESS.

Chicago, April 27.—At the Chicago Methodist ministerial meeting today, Rev. John L. Leary, chairman of the committee on religious liberty for Protestants in South America, read the report...

Mr. Gorman asked if the committee had not succeeded in developing anything from the other side... He said the committee had not.

Mr. Chandler responded that this was by no means all that the committee had done... He said the committee had done a great deal.

Mr. Gorman went on to show in detail the manner in which the armor contracts had been placed in the United States... He said the committee had done a great deal.

Mr. Chandler said that the committee had done a great deal... He said the committee had done a great deal.

Mr. Gorman said that the committee had done a great deal... He said the committee had done a great deal.

Mr. Chandler said that the committee had done a great deal... He said the committee had done a great deal.

Mr. Gorman said that the committee had done a great deal... He said the committee had done a great deal.

Mr. Chandler said that the committee had done a great deal... He said the committee had done a great deal.

Mr. Gorman said that the committee had done a great deal... He said the committee had done a great deal.

Mr. Chandler said that the committee had done a great deal... He said the committee had done a great deal.

Mr. Gorman said that the committee had done a great deal... He said the committee had done a great deal.

RAMPOLLI'S LETTER.

TRANSLATION READ BEFORE CONGRESS.

Chicago, April 27.—At the Chicago Methodist ministerial meeting today, Rev. John L. Leary, chairman of the committee on religious liberty for Protestants in South America, read the report...

Mr. Gorman asked if the committee had not succeeded in developing anything from the other side... He said the committee had not.

Mr. Chandler responded that this was by no means all that the committee had done... He said the committee had done a great deal.

Mr. Gorman went on to show in detail the manner in which the armor contracts had been placed in the United States... He said the committee had done a great deal.

Mr. Chandler said that the committee had done a great deal... He said the committee had done a great deal.

Mr. Gorman said that the committee had done a great deal... He said the committee had done a great deal.

Mr. Chandler said that the committee had done a great deal... He said the committee had done a great deal.

Mr. Gorman said that the committee had done a great deal... He said the committee had done a great deal.

Mr. Chandler said that the committee had done a great deal... He said the committee had done a great deal.

Mr. Gorman said that the committee had done a great deal... He said the committee had done a great deal.

Mr. Chandler said that the committee had done a great deal... He said the committee had done a great deal.

Mr. Gorman said that the committee had done a great deal... He said the committee had done a great deal.

IS NO COMPROMISE.

SENATOR BLACKBURN DENIES STATEMENTS MADE.

Washington, April 27.—Senator Blackburn of Kentucky today declared that he had no compromise in mind...

Mr. Gorman asked if the committee had not succeeded in developing anything from the other side... He said the committee had not.

Mr. Chandler responded that this was by no means all that the committee had done... He said the committee had done a great deal.

Mr. Gorman went on to show in detail the manner in which the armor contracts had been placed in the United States... He said the committee had done a great deal.

Mr. Chandler said that the committee had done a great deal... He said the committee had done a great deal.

Mr. Gorman said that the committee had done a great deal... He said the committee had done a great deal.

Mr. Chandler said that the committee had done a great deal... He said the committee had done a great deal.

Mr. Gorman said that the committee had done a great deal... He said the committee had done a great deal.

Mr. Chandler said that the committee had done a great deal... He said the committee had done a great deal.

Mr. Gorman said that the committee had done a great deal... He said the committee had done a great deal.

Mr. Chandler said that the committee had done a great deal... He said the committee had done a great deal.

Mr. Gorman said that the committee had done a great deal... He said the committee had done a great deal.

IS NO COMPROMISE.

SENATOR BLACKBURN DENIES STATEMENTS MADE.

Washington, April 27.—Senator Blackburn of Kentucky today declared that he had no compromise in mind...

Mr. Gorman asked if the committee had not succeeded in developing anything from the other side... He said the committee had not.

Mr. Chandler responded that this was by no means all that the committee had done... He said the committee had done a great deal.

Mr. Gorman went on to show in detail the manner in which the armor contracts had been placed in the United States... He said the committee had done a great deal.

Mr. Chandler said that the committee had done a great deal... He said the committee had done a great deal.

Mr. Gorman said that the committee had done a great deal... He said the committee had done a great deal.

Mr. Chandler said that the committee had done a great deal... He said the committee had done a great deal.

Mr. Gorman said that the committee had done a great deal... He said the committee had done a great deal.

Mr. Chandler said that the committee had done a great deal... He said the committee had done a great deal.

Mr. Gorman said that the committee had done a great deal... He said the committee had done a great deal.

Mr. Chandler said that the committee had done a great deal... He said the committee had done a great deal.

Mr. Gorman said that the committee had done a great deal... He said the committee had done a great deal.

WAREHOUSE YARNS.

REMARKS FOUND IN A BIG STORE ESTABLISHMENT.

There are tragedies and comedies and plenty of material to make a book... The warehouse yarns...

Mr. Gorman asked if the committee had not succeeded in developing anything from the other side... He said the committee had not.

Mr. Chandler responded that this was by no means all that the committee had done... He said the committee had done a great deal.

Mr. Gorman went on to show in detail the manner in which the armor contracts had been placed in the United States... He said the committee had done a great deal.

Mr. Chandler said that the committee had done a great deal... He said the committee had done a great deal.

Mr. Gorman said that the committee had done a great deal... He said the committee had done a great deal.

Mr. Chandler said that the committee had done a great deal... He said the committee had done a great deal.

Mr. Gorman said that the committee had done a great deal... He said the committee had done a great deal.

Mr. Chandler said that the committee had done a great deal... He said the committee had done a great deal.

Mr. Gorman said that the committee had done a great deal... He said the committee had done a great deal.

Mr. Chandler said that the committee had done a great deal... He said the committee had done a great deal.

Mr. Gorman said that the committee had done a great deal... He said the committee had done a great deal.

WAREHOUSE YARNS.

REMARKS FOUND IN A BIG STORE ESTABLISHMENT.

There are tragedies and comedies and plenty of material to make a book... The warehouse yarns...

Mr. Gorman asked if the committee had not succeeded in developing anything from the other side... He said the committee had not.

Mr. Chandler responded that this was by no means all that the committee had done... He said the committee had done a great deal.

Mr. Gorman went on to show in detail the manner in which the armor contracts had been placed in the United States... He said the committee had done a great deal.

Mr. Chandler said that the committee had done a great deal... He said the committee had done a great deal.

Mr. Gorman said that the committee had done a great deal... He said the committee had done a great deal.

Mr. Chandler said that the committee had done a great deal... He said the committee had done a great deal.

Mr. Gorman said that the committee had done a great deal... He said the committee had done a great deal.

Mr. Chandler said that the committee had done a great deal... He said the committee had done a great deal.

Mr. Gorman said that the committee had done a great deal... He said the committee had done a great deal.

Mr. Chandler said that the committee had done a great deal... He said the committee had done a great deal.

Mr. Gorman said that the committee had done a great deal... He said the committee had done a great deal.

FUSTON THANKFUL.

HE ADDRESSES A CARD TO THE PRESS.

Very Grateful for the Sympathy that has been Extended During His Misfortune—He Tells His Story Simply.

Ablene, Tex., April 27.—R. J. Fuston stepped in the city a few hours on his way home from Rusk. He received many congratulations from the people here.

Mr. Gorman asked if the committee had not succeeded in developing anything from the other side... He said the committee had not.

Mr. Chandler responded that this was by no means all that the committee had done... He said the committee had done a great deal.

Mr. Gorman went on to show in detail the manner in which the armor contracts had been placed in the United States... He said the committee had done a great deal.

TEN WITNESSES UP.

AND EXAMINED AT THE JACKSON BURDER TRIAL.

The Defense Bill Sticks to Its Plan of Taking Exception to the Holdings of the Court.

Newport, Ky., April 27.—Not only was every available seat in the court room filled to-day, but the occupancy of the stand in the rear passages was permitted. Ten witnesses were examined.

Mr. Gorman asked if the committee had not succeeded in developing anything from the other side... He said the committee had not.

Mr. Chandler responded that this was by no means all that the committee had done... He said the committee had done a great deal.

Mr. Gorman went on to show in detail the manner in which the armor contracts had been placed in the United States... He said the committee had done a great deal.

INCREASED TWO MILLION.

Additions Made to River and Harbor Bill Appropriations.

Washington, D. C., April 27.—The senate committee on commerce finally reported its consideration of the river and harbor bill at 3 o'clock today.

Mr. Gorman asked if the committee had not succeeded in developing anything from the other side... He said the committee had not.

Mr. Chandler responded that this was by no means all that the committee had done... He said the committee had done a great deal.

Mr. Gorman went on to show in detail the manner in which the armor contracts had been placed in the United States... He said the committee had done a great deal.

Mr. Chandler said that the committee had done a great deal... He said the committee had done a great deal.

UNVEILED THE MONUMENT.

Woodmen of the World Have Appropriate Ceremonies at Chico.

Chico, Tex., April 27.—(Special.)—Chico camp No. 23, Woodmen of the World, unveiled yesterday the monument of Governor D. D. Childers.

Mr. Gorman asked if the committee had not succeeded in developing anything from the other side... He said the committee had not.

Mr. Chandler responded that this was by no means all that the committee had done... He said the committee had done a great deal.

Mr. Gorman went on to show in detail the manner in which the armor contracts had been placed in the United States... He said the committee had done a great deal.

Mr. Chandler said that the committee had done a great deal... He said the committee had done a great deal.

REHEARSED THE MONUMENT.

Woodmen of the World Have Appropriate Ceremonies at Chico.

Chico, Tex., April 27.—(Special.)—Chico camp No. 23, Woodmen of the World, unveiled yesterday the monument of Governor D. D. Childers.

Mr. Gorman asked if the committee had not succeeded in developing anything from the other side... He said the committee had not.

Mr. Chandler responded that this was by no means all that the committee had done... He said the committee had done a great deal.

Mr. Gorman went on to show in detail the manner in which the armor contracts had been placed in the United States... He said the committee had done a great deal.

Mr. Chandler said that the committee had done a great deal... He said the committee had done a great deal.

REHEARSED THE MONUMENT.

Woodmen of the World Have Appropriate Ceremonies at Chico.

Chico, Tex., April 27.—(Special.)—Chico camp No. 23, Woodmen of the World, unveiled yesterday the monument of Governor D. D. Childers.

Mr. Gorman asked if the committee had not succeeded in developing anything from the other side... He said the committee had not.

Mr. Chandler responded that this was by no means all that the committee had done... He said the committee had done a great deal.

Mr. Gorman went on to show in detail the manner in which the armor contracts had been placed in the United States... He said the committee had done a great deal.

Mr. Chandler said that the committee had done a great deal... He said the committee had done a great deal.