SALE OF HORSES.

All the Stock of the Late J. M. Brown to Be Sold.

CHICAGO, Sept. 19.—The stable of J. M. Brown, the horseman who was shot and killed at Garfield Park ten days ago, will be sold at public auction in New York within the next two weeks.

John G. Brown, as administrator of the estate, filed an inventory in the Probate court, showing that the estate consisted of checks held by the coroner amounting to $14,000 and $6,320 in cash, and the following race horses, with the subjoined absurd values attached: G. W. Johnson, $2,000; Jake Johnson, $600; C. H. Gillock, $1,500; Red Banner, $1,500; Edith Belmont, $1,000; Parolee, $500; Johnetta, $500; Little Billy, $1,000; Roberta, $500; Jim Swayne, $600; Lady Blackburn, $500; Fort Worth, $1000, and Uncertainty, $1,000.

G. W. Johnson alone is worth as much as the above lot is valued at. Bobby Beach, Sam Farmer, Borcalla and several others are not named in the list and were probably taxed under the Brown colors, though belonging to outsiders.

The administrator claimed that the late troubles at Garfield Park had, practically, destroyed the horse market here, and asked for permission to send the horses to Tattersall's in New York to be sold at public auction.

Judge Kohlsaat entered an order authorizing a sale of the horses for not less than their appraised value in Chicago. The sale of G. W. Johnson and Red Banner will no doubt draw out spirited bidding. The death of Brown does not affect the nominations of his horses in either the east or the west. They were entered in the name of a company.

Want Ten Hours Pay.

CINCINNATI, O., Sept. 19.—The lockout of the furniture workmen began today. The men resolved not to work more than nine hours a day at the present ten hours pay, and the employers have resolved not to pay ten hours' wages for nine hours' work. Fully 1500 workmen are idle.

WILL NOT LEAVE LOUISIANA.

What President Conrad Has to Say About the Big Lottery.

NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 20.—President Paul Conrad, of the Louisiana Lottery Company, was interviewed to-day about the dispatch regarding the company's attempt to purchase a location in the Sandwich Islands. He said: "It is a 'fake' sensation pure and simple, or a malicious concoction, designed, perhaps, to prejudice the company in the minds of the people of the United States by creating the impression that our business is to be removed from the legal restrictions and accountability it is now under by virtue of the laws of Louisiana. Were the Louisiana State Lottery Company to become a Hawaiian instead of a Louisiana concern, of course it would be practically an impossibility to enforce claims against it; whereas, being a duly chartered corporation of this state, it is amenable to the laws. Obligations can be enforced through the courts against it the same as against any lawful and responsible company."

"But what are the company's plans for the future? Might not their negotiations be carried on without your knowledge?"

"Scarcely; such vast sums as are talked of are not carried in one's vest pocket nor expended by one member of a concern without consulting his associates. The owners of the Louisiana lottery are now scattered over the globe seeking peace or pleasure, according to their condition or taste. Mr. Morris, with friends, have been for weeks cruising about on his yacht, and I doubt if any one has communicated with him on business of any description. Certainly he is not giving himself any concern about lottery business, and I repeat there is simply nothing in this alleged San Francisco story except idle gossip, so far as I know, and I think I know all the facts. The Louisiana Lottery company will live out its allotted time as fixed by its vested rights, say a couple of years longer, doing its business here as it always has, and abiding by the popular decision in the recent contest."—New York Times, Aug. 27.

Cotton Burned.

GALVESTON, TEX., Sept. 19.—[Special.]—About 1230 to-day fire broke out among 100 bales of cotton on the barge Kathleen lying at the head of central wharf. The fire spread rapidly but before it had inflicted serious damage was extinguished. The damage to the cotton is estimated at $1,800, fully insured. The fire is supposed to have been caused by some one stepping on and igniting a parlor match. The cotton was in charge of the Houston direct navigation company.

A Traveling Man's Experience with Diarrhœa.

I am a traveling man and have been afflicted with what is called chronic diarrhœa for some ten years. Last fall I was in Western Pennsylvania and accidentally was introduced to Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhœa Remedy. I ventured to make a trial and was wonderfully relieved. I would like now to introduce it among my friends. H. M. Lewis, 24 Freeman street, Cleveland, Ohio. For sale by N. E. Grammer and J. P. Nicks & Co., druggists.

Business in Kentucky.

"There has been a continued tendency to bowel disease here this season," says G. W. Snivell, druggist, Wickliffe, Ky., "and an unusual demand for Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhœa Remedy. I have sold four bottles of it this morning. Some remarkable cures have been effected by it, and in all cases it has proved successful." For sale by N. E. Grammer and J. P. Nicks & Co., druggists.

MacLean and Prescott in "The Merchant of Venice."

The MacLean-Prescott company will appear at Greenwall's opera house for matinee to-day in "The Merchant of Venice" and to-night in "The Duke's Wife." The Memphis Commercial says of this company: "Mr. MacLean is an actor of great merit. He has a commanding presence, a fine voice and stage movement. He is very like Salvini in his acting, and last night achieved a great success, being applauded at each appearance. He took the part of Julian St. Pierre. Miss Prescott made a good Marianna. She is an actress of more than average ability."
