GAINESVILLE.

The Bridge Question—Electric Light Proposal—A Prisoner Implicates Another Man—Contract Let.

Gainesville, Tex., March 7.—(Special.)—The council had a meeting today but the little of importance. The bridge question was taken up, but the council became so tangled up in the matter it stopped in disgust.

Alderman Griffin offered a resolution providing for the issuance of $15,000 in bonds to be used in building an electric light plant. The resolution failed. However, a committee was appointed to confer with the Light and Fuel company with a view of purchasing its plant.

UNITED STATES PRISONERS.

Deputy United States Marshal Mat Cooke passed through town this morning en route to Paris with Emory S. Dunbar, a youth who is accused of burglarizing a store in Purcell a few days ago. While here Dunbar was taken to jail, where he implicated Robert Davis as his partner in the job. Davis is awaiting trial for the safe breaking at Marysville a few weeks ago.

CONTRACT LET.

The commissioners' court this afternoon let the contract for building the county clerk's office to William Gaedtson of Dallas for $12,000.

Pond's Extract, used forty years by physicians and the people for pain and inflammations. This success stamps every bottle of the genuine.

ANOTHER ONE

Of Those Brutal Killings That Blacken the Name of the Indian Territory.

Eufaula, I. T., March 7.—(Special.)—Another cowardly cold-blooded murder has been added to the name of the Indian Territory. Last Saturday morning Frank Ross, an inoffensive young Indian, raised near Eufaula, left home to hunt for some hogs. After being out all day and night his family became alarmed about him. A searching party was organized to look for him. The search was continued until Monday evening, when he was found on the mountain, about half a mile south of the town dead. He had been shot three times, twice in the back and once through the head. There is no clue whatever to the perpetrators of the crime, and so far no effort has been made to ferret it out.

Where there are children, there Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup should be always handy.

Twenty-two boy pupils at a school at Milton, Ore., were recently expelled for smoking cigarettes.

THE GAZETTE MACHINE.

What Those Who Have Used It Say of the Cheapest Machine in the Market.

First-Class in Every Particular.

Greenville, August 28, 1892.

To the Democrat Publishing Co.

I received my sewing machine, and will say to you that we are more than pleased with it. I find it in good order, chine in every particular. My wife and also find it to be a first-class machine says to tell you that she don't think hard of you about the delay; she is too well satisfied with it, and would not give it up for any $60 machine. We wish you long life and great success. Hurah for the Democrats and three cheers for the Democrat publishing company, of Fort Worth, Texas. May your paper ever spread and carry the glad tidings of that noble machine to a thousand more homes. You may put all I have said in your paper if you like.

Yours truly,
S. J. JOHNSON.

All That Is Claimed for It.

Walnut, Tex., May 25, 1892.

Fort Worth Gazette,

I am in receipt of The Gazette sewing machine and find it to be all you claim for it. We are delighted with the finish and the work it does. Think it very cheap for such a machine and equal to a $40 or $50 machine.

Yours with thanks for it,
T. J. MORRISON.

As Good as Any $60 Machine.

Fort Worth, Tex., Sept., 28, 1892.

Editor of Gazette,

Allow me to say in behalf of The Gazette machine, that I have had one in constant use for the past eighteen months, and during that time it has done the best of work, and proven itself as good as any $60 machine. Wishing you much success, as you can safely recommend it. Very respectfully,
M. FARRELL.

Highly Pleased.

Crawford, Tex., Sept., 17, 1892.

To The Fort Worth Gazette.

Gentlemen: Your premium Gazette sewing machine received yesterday; accompanying it was a five-year guarantee. We are highly pleased with the appearance of the machine, and will write you later as to its true merit.

Yours truly,
C. A. STANDIFER.

ALL IT IS REPRESENTED.

Paul's Valley, I. T., Jan. 28, 1893.

To The Fort Worth Gazette.

I received premium sewing machine. I have tested it and find it all that you represent—a splendid machine. Runs light and does the work well. Respectfully,
SUSAN D. BURKS.

A FIRST CLASS MACHINE.

Guthrie, King county, Tex., Feb. 15, 1893.

To The Gazette.

Dear sirs: I received The Gazette machine, all "right side up with care," and am pleased to say my wife thinks it one of the best machines she has ever used. I would advise all wanting a first-class sewing machines to send for The Gazette's. Yours truly, E. W. SLOAN.

MORE TESTIMONY.

A Fine $60 Sewing Machine for Only $34. Try One.

Silverton, Tex., Dec., 5, 1892.

To The Fort Worth Gazette.

Gentlemen: The high arm sewing machine is all you claim for it. It is first-class in every respect. My wife is delighted with it, it is neat and well finished, light running, and gives entire satisfaction. Respectfully,
D. H. SWEENEY.

ALL THAT IS CLAIMED FOR IT.

January 19, 1893.

To The Fort Worth Gazette:—

Gentlemen—I got my machine home Christmas eve. It is all that you claimed for it. Every lady who has seen it says it's a fine machine for the money it cost me, and I know I have the finest and best machine in this neighborhood. I am well pleased with it. I think that $23 was the best spent of any $25 I ever spent for anything. I gave $50 to an agent for an improved American, and it was not the machine nor did it have the improvements The Gazette machine has, though it was a very good machine. You can add all the praise you wish. Your machine is worthy of it.
