THE SURRENDER OF SANTIAGO.

Toral Agrees to Turn Over the City to the Troops Under General Shafter.

TERMS ARE BEING NOW NEGOTIATED.

A Commission of Two Spaniards, One Englishman and Three Americans Making Agreement.

SPANIARDS TO BE SENT BACK TO SPAIN.

This Will Include All Spanish Troops In and Around Santiago—Expedition to Porto Rico to Sail as Early as Possible.

Washington, July 15.—Santiago has fallen. The stars and stripes float over the city in place of the Spanish flag. Next will follow the transportation of the Spanish troops back to their native land and then will come the capture of the island of Porto Rico unless peace soon intervenes.

The siege of Santiago had lasted two weeks, and was remarkable in many respects, and in none more than the heavy percentage of loss through death, wounds or sickness of the soldiers and sailors engaged on both sides. A great ironclad squadron has been destroyed, nearly 1000 Spanish sailors have been drowned or killed by shell and flame and an untold number of Spanish soldiers have died in the trenches of Santiago. About 250 American soldiers have been killed, and in round numbers 2000 more have been sent to the hospitals from wounds, fevers and other ailments. Our fleet has been singularly free from disaster.

The Porto Rican expedition will be commanded by General Miles in person, though General Brooke, now in command at Camp Thomas, is expected to be his main dependence. It is believed 25,000 men will be sufficient for the expedition. At San Juan the navy will be of greater size than at Santiago, owing to the possibility of approaching the town more closely without risking contact with mines. General Brooke is now on his way to Washington by direction of Secretary Alger so that he will be in a position to make his views known to the department. The experience gained in dispatching Shafter's expedition, it is expected, will aid the officials in their determination to make short work of the Porto Rican affair.

There will be plenty of transports available for the expedition, as the government has devised other means of removing the Spaniards captured at Santiago to Spain than by carrying them on those transports. It is estimated by General Shafter that from 12,000 to 15,000 Spanish soldiers will surrender by the terms made with General Toral.

The line begins at Aceradores, about 15 miles west of Santiago harbor and then runs due north about 25 miles to Palma Sorina. Had the line continued due north it would have passed west to Holguin, thus taking the Spanish garrison at that point. Evidently General Toral wished to avoid the inclusion of Holguin so the line turns abruptly to the northeast of Palma and runs to the coast towns of Bocas del Sagua on the coast. The extreme width, about 50 miles, tapering to a less width, making in all about 5000 square miles. It is a rugged, mountainous country with very few towns of any size. Santiago with its fine harbor, is the main port, while Guantanamo is second in importance.

The fortifications of Morro castle, Socapa, Cayo Smith and others are included in the surrendered zone. The possession of these fine fortresses, particularly Morro castle, will afford valuable garrison places for a large number of men. The terms under which these strongholds are surrendered is not yet known, but it is regarded as likely that their big guns pass with the surrender. While the fleet will soon be free to move to Santiago city, some doubt is expressed in naval circles whether anything could be accomplished by such a move, as it might subject some of our sailors to the contagion existing within the city.

The exact terms of surrender had not reached Washington at 3 o'clock this morning, and will not until the commission, which is composed of two Spaniards, one Englishman and three Americans, makes its final report to General Shafter.

The commission was composed of Robert Mason, the British consul to Santiago, General Toleson and Toral's chief-of-staff for the Spanish and Generals Wheeler and Lawton and Captain Wiley for the Americans.

Great attention can now be given to the care of our sick and fever-stricken soldiers on the island. In the opinion of the army surgeons, the sick can be treated by removal to the high ground back of the southern coast, where the heat is less severe, and where recovery could proceed without the fear of communicating the disease to the rest of the army.

"Santiago surrendered at 3" was the the significent announcement that reached the president at 3:06 oclock yesterday afternoon. It came in a dispatch from a signal service official at Playa del Este and told the result of the meeting of the capitulation commissioners in the most brief and concise form of any of the numerous dispatches laid before the president during the day. Santiago time is 55 minutes ahead of Washington, which accounts for the quick receipt of the result. The commissioners not meeting until 2:30

Transportation For the Spaniards.

Washington, July 15.—Colonel Hecker, in charge of the transportation of the war department, is trying to arrange for the conveyance to Spain of the Spanish soldiers surrendered at Santiago. There is a disposition to appeal directly to the great steamship lines to make bids to carry these people. The adoption of such a course would relieve the government of a great responsibility, and would put the Spaniards under a neutral flag which would insure their reception without difficulty at home, and also would relieve our government of sending with the prisoners a heavy guard that would be required if conveyed in United States transports.

Four More Brigadier Generals.

Washington, July 15.—The president made the following appointments: To be brigadier generals of the volunteers, William S. Worth, Edward P. Pearsen, Emmerson H. Liscum and Ezra P. Ewers.

London, July 15.—Lord Rosebery's 4-year-old bay colt Velasquez, won the Eclipse stakes of 10,000 soverigns at the Sandown Park summer meeting.

How to Keep Young!

Age first shows in a woman's face. Around the eyes little wrinkles make their appearance, which steadily grow larger and deeper. These wrinkles can be kept away until late in life if proper care be taken of the skin. The daily use of will make the skin soft, smooth and delicately pink. It will keep women looking young as the years go by. They will often appear ten years younger than they really are.

Viola Cream is a finely perfumed preparation which cures roughness, redness, all blotches, pimples, blackheads, tan and sunburn. It is so different from, and so much better than, any other remedy of the kind that there is nothing with which to compare it. If you want to remain young in looks and have a velvety skin, begin by using Viola Cream. Price, 50 cents a jar. If your druggist does not keep it, send to
