A young man giving his name as Jess Broxton, 22 years old, and who states that his home is three miles east of Longstreet, Montgomery county, reached the city about 4 o'clock yesterday morning and applied to Sheriff R. M. Nall for admission to the jail and the protection of the officers. He appears to be very nervous and said that he had left home Tuesday night to avoid trouble with another man whom he named. He also related sensational stories of trouble he had heard of happening in that locality since he left. The officers, having seen nothing in the newspapers or heard otherwise of anything unusual down that way, are somewhat at a loss to know what to do with the young man or what has caused his present perturbed state of mind.

Coulter has made his second trip to St. Louis this season to buy bargains for his great special sale. This sale has been a winner from the start and seems to have struck the popular chord with the great buying masses. One thing about it is not a single article in the store is reserved, and all "second trip" purchases are included in the sale. All goods are marked in plain figures and every department is full. w2t
