WOMEN WORK FOR SANITATION

San Antonio, Texas, Feb. 20.—Spring cleaning on a big scale to reach every nook and cranny of this city has been arranged by the Women's Club for March 10th. All of the citizenship is being enlisted in the homes, from the highest to the lowest, welded in one grand, concerted and united "scouring bee" that cannot fail to produce a cleaner San Antonio. Assisting the good women will be the Mayor and the Board of Aldermen, the Board of Health, the Police Department, the Fire Department, the School Board, and the Business Men's Club and Chamber of Commerce, who will go out and by precept and example make "scrubbing day" a shining success.

The good women engaged in this campaign have collected a fund for publicity, and have sent out thousands of letters to citizens of the better sort, preaching the doctrine of sanitation and cleanliness. The city is being worked ward by ward, and precinct by precinct, as in a ward political fight. The school children have been enlisted in the work, and the whole citizenship is being stirred to civic cleanliness.

ASKS EXTENSION.

Wabash Road Wants More Time on Nine-Hour Act.

Washington, Feb. 20.—A proposition very serious to many thousands of people residing at and in the vicinity of small road stations throughout the country was presented to the interstate commerce commission in an informal petition in which the Wabash Railroad company asks for extension of time for the going into effect of the nine-hour law, which applies to railway employees who have the direction of the movements of trains. It is declared in the petition that unless an order for an extension is made, either by the commission or by congress, the only alternative will be the closing of a large number of stations on the Wabash railroad. This action it is recognized, will impair the efficiency of the service and result in public inconvenience and interfere with the prompt movement of trains, but the Wabash officials assert they see no way out of the difficulty into which they will be plunged by the operation of the law.

It is pointed out in the petition that in order to comply with the provisions of the law, the company will have to employ additional telegraph operators at each of the 245 stations on its lines. Thus far the company says, it has not been able to secure the services of efficient and competent operators in such number as to enable it to comply with the act.

New York, Feb. 20.—Temporary receivers for the Mutual Reserve Life Insurance company was appointed by Justice Plazek in the New York state supreme court on application of Attorney General Jackson. The company is now in the hands of receivers appointed by the United States court on application made by the committee of policyholders.

General Dodge Is Dead.

Washington, Feb. 20.—Brigadier General Francis S. Dodge, retired, who was awarded a medal of honor by congress for distinguished gallantry at the battle of White River in Colorado, in the Indian campaign in the sixties, died at his residence here. General Dodge served with the Twenty-third Massachusetts volunteer regiment during the civil war. He was sixty-six years old.

In Port Arthur's Interest.

CALIFORNIANS ARE COMING

San Antonio, Texas, Feb. 20.—California orange growers are planning an early exodus into the orange lands of Texas according to J. P. Mullon, now a resident of Ardmore, Ok., but formerly a resident and orange grower in San Bernardino, California. Before the Business Mens Club Mr. Mullon said: "A group of California orange growers has already sent an expert into the orange country of this part of Texas, who after a careful survey and thorough investigation of the conditions has made a favorable report. The fact that orange lands in California bring from $1000 to $2000 an acre, while Texas orange lands, according to this expert, equally good, bring from $30 to $60 an acre, offers a possibility for the small grower to get in on the ground floor. The Texas lands too are nearly 2000 miles nearer the market, and transportation by water is possible.

Although a great many Texas farmers are putting a few acres in oranges, the number would be greater if they realized the possibilities. These men are growing vegetables between the young orange trees, and making a fair living, and in a few years will demonstrate a new industry.

"I believe that Texas has a great future in the raising of citrus fruits, I hope to have a part in it myself, and expect to see other orange growers from California come into this section and take advantage of the situation."

HARRIMAN IS VICTORIOUS.

Judge Ball Decides In His Favor In Illinois Central Case.

Chicago, Feb. 20.—E. H. Harriman gained a complete victory in the Illinois Central railway litigation, which has been in the superior court since last fall. Judge Ball rendered a decision dissolving the temporary injunction granted to Stuyvesant Fish by which 286,231 shares of stock were enjoined from being voted at the annual meeting of the Illinois Pacific Railway company and the Railroads Securities Company of New Jersey, can now be voted at the annual meeting, which will be held at this city March 2. The decision of Judge Ball was quite extended, amounting to about 10,000 words. After reciting the history of the case and going at considerable length into the various clauses and assertions made by both sides, the court went on to say: "There are many things stated in the bill as to the intention of defendants, which, if put in force, would call upon the court to intervene, but but a diligent search of this record fails to show such things exists in any concrete form. Complainants say if the Union Pacific and Railroad Securities company of New Jersey, vote at the coming election the hold of Mr. Harriman upon and has domination over the Illinois Central would be strengthened and finally the Illinois Central would be reduced to a servient position and be given the lean end of the carrying trade. But they fail to prove facts supporting these allegations. "While Mr. Fish may rightfully desire to remain a director of the Illinois Central, and to that end may use every lawful means in the power of himself and friends, he has no right to that office unless he is legally elected thereto; hence his defeat, if it comes from lack of valid votes, is no legal injury to the civil or property rights of Fish or those of his fellow complainants. As private citizens complainants are not keepers of the public conscience, nor are they conservators of the rights of the public. "To sustain this bill it is not necessary for them to show that the acts complained of is a public wrong. They must also show that by doing of such act they suffer special injury to their civil or property rights. This election of directors at the coming meeting can work no legal wrong to complainants and no special injury to any of them which calls for the interposition of this court."
