Blondwood Colt for Sale—6 months old, good size, chestnut sorrel. Apply to A. L. Higgs, R. F. D. No. 5. 294

Mrs. G. W. Norrill returned to her home in Houston yesterday, after having visited her sister, Mrs. W. R. Cavitt, of this city.

The cotton market of Saturday was unchanged in the matter of prices from that of Friday. The sales were much heavier, 300 bales against 75 being the record.

Fish and game seems to be plentiful in this section. A large number of dressed squirrels were disposed of by a hunter here yesterday morning, who made the kill in the Navasota bottom.

The Callahan Dramatic company will open a three nights' engagement here on Monday. The company carries its own orchestra, and is said to make good music and give satisfactory presentation of the various plays in its repertoire.

Touching the matter of the change in schedule relating to the I. & G. N., mention of which was made in these columns Saturday morning, it is announced now that the changes which go into effect today relate exclusively to the operation of freight trains.

Four coaches were set out here by the H. & T. C. railway people for the excursion to Houston Monday. A change in leaving time on the return trip has been made at the request of the college people. Instead of leaving Houston at 9 o'clock p. m., as heretofore announced, the train will leave at 12, midnight.

Gentlemen, a few things you will need during the hunting season:

High cut booties.
Low cut booties.
Corduroy caps.
Corduroy pants.
Union suits.
Wool socks.

You can get them at Couiter's.

There will be a football rally in the chapel at College Sunday evening at 7 o'clock. All the students are expected to attend the rally, at which time new football yells will be given out. The two battalions in divisions of platoons will put up a dress parade in the streets of Houston Monday morning. The cadets will carry their guns and all accoutrements.

Mr. P. W. Harold, traveling in advance of the Miller Bros. Ranch show, arrived here yesterday afternoon in his special car, bringing a force of men, and is billing the city and surrounding country for his attraction, which will appear here for two performances on the 21st instant.

COTTON STATEMENT.

For the market week closing Friday, November 6, wagon receipts of cotton at this point were 786 bales against 1,106 for the week preceding, a decrease of 320 bales.

Receipts of square bales for season, 14,986, against 9,209 same date last year.

Round bales ginned this season, 1,379, against 1,000 same date last year. It will be noticed that there is no change in the ginning figures at the round bale press for the same date of last year with that given last Sunday morning. The round bale press shut down at that time on account of the financial panic.

Estimating round bales as half bales, the receipts for the season have been 15,678, against 9,709 same date last year, and increase of 5,969 bales.

"Singin Skule Begiment."

The ladies of the Guild of St. Andrew Episcopal church have arranged with Mr. and Mrs. J. Bassett Willard of Cincinnati for a date with their funny and very popular entertainment entitled the "Singin Skule Begiment" and have fixed on the date of December 7 at the Grand opera house. This entertainment has been a very great success in all parts of the country. It is a delicious compound of pure, clean, wholesome, jolly fun. It is not all singing, but mixed in with a lot of bright, pretty, catchy songs and spirited choruses will be found a number of funny character impersonations and other features in greater number than one would imagine could be crowded into one single performance. All the coaching and drilling will be attended to by Mr. and Mrs. Willard, who will also play the leading comedy part. 287-289

NOTICE, MERCHANTS.

From November 1st after date I will not be responsible for accounts charged to me without my consent.
W. J. ROBERTS.

AMUSEMENTS.

The Dandy Dixie Minstrels played to good business here last night, and judging from the applause which the performers received at times, pleased the audience quite well.

Every act of the olio was a novelty while the minstrels first part in the "Royal Palm Grotto" and the funny farce "Possomville Spiclets" were the features of the performance. In addition to the olio of specialties by the famous Billy Kersands, James Crosby, Campbell & Meaux, Monroe Taber, Montrose Douglas, there was a singing novelty called the "Dixie College Rangers", which the singing forces of the company rendered as an exquisite vocal arrangement of "Varsity Class Songs."

Among the performers are Campbell & Meaux an original rag time comedy musical act, Montrose Douglas, the wizard of the wheel, Benny Jones, The Texas Teaser, H. S. Wooten, a dandy Territory Tenor, and forty other singers, dancers, etc.
