FIRE SUNDAY MORNING.

Good Water Pressure Saved City Another Ugly Fire.

A fire alarm about 8 o'clock Sunday morning called out the department and for a time it looked like our little city was doomed to suffer another fearful conflagration.

Some wooden sheds in the rear of James' furniture store filled with boxes and excelsior, was in some way ignited and burned almost like a flash of powder.

The fire boys were on hand promptly however, and with a good water pressure, kept it away from the adjoining buildings.

When the alarm was given, the driver of the fire wagon was at breakfast and as soon as this fact was learned, it was communicated to Mayor Maloney at the Exchange Hotel and he proceeded to get busy. Running to the station he hooked up Burt and Bowser in a jiffy, mounted the wagon and drove them like Jehu the son of Nimshi. Chief Hamilton and others were on hand in short order, lines of hose were laid, the pressure was good, and the rest was easy. Mayor Maloney and the firemen are entitled to the warmest praise.

Mr. W. T. James in appreciation of the good work of the firemen in keeping the flames from his property, on yesterday mailed the Company his check for $10.00. The firemen at a meeting last night gave him a unanimous vote of thanks, and requested the Eagle to convey same to him through its columns.

Rhodes—Peacock.

The marriage of Giles W. Rhodes and Miss Mabel Peacock was solemnized Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, 1401 Boulevard, Houston Heights. The ceremony was performed by Rev. John B. Whitford, pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal church. The bridal party marched to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, rendered by Mrs. D. D. Cooley.

The bride wore a becoming empire gown of rose colored imported messaline and carried a bouquet of bride roses.

Miss Maude Maze attended the bride as maid of honor and wore a pale blue messaline gown, carrying bridesmaid roses. Mr. Frank M. Fletcher acted as best man.

One corner of the back parlor was banked with ferns to form an altar and the couple stood beneath double hearts, decorated with hyacinths. Green and white decorations were used throughout. The dining table held the immense wedding cake, surrounded by maidenhair ferns and hyacinth, a buffet luncheon being served, consisting of a salad course, cake, coffee and punch.

The couple received many beautiful and useful gifts.

The bride's going-away gown was of smoked colored cloth, worn with a fur hat.

Mr. and Mrs. Rhodes left for San Antonio and will be at home after February 1st, at 707 Dallas avenue, Houston.—Houston Chronicle.

Mr. Rhodes is a son of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Rhodes of this city and was reared in Bryan. He is a splendid young man and his many friends here extend congratulations, and wish for him and his bride much happiness and prosperity.

Card from Mr. Shelburne. In this issue of the Morning Eagle appears my announcement as a candidate for the office of City Marshal Bryan, subject to the result of the Democratic Primary to be held at the City Hall on Monday, March 1st, next.

In making this announcement I wish to say to the people of Bryan that should I be elected I pledge my utmost efforts to the best of my ability to serve as an efficient, painstaking and impartial officer, giving equal rights to all and special privileges to none. I will try to uphold and enforce the law to the letter, without any favor. Then, should we have any laws, the people will soon find them and, of course, can repeal same. On the other hand, whatever good we have the people will enjoy the benefits of same. It appears to me that every law abiding citizen can favor such enforcement of law in order. It is on this plank and that I submit my name to the consideration of the voters of our city.

May I state that I served the people of Bryan in the capacity of Marshal to fill the unexpired term of J. N. Hall and at the end of said term re-elected and again served two years. I refer to the record I made as Mayor, with some degree of mention, to what the people may think should I be successful in this.

Yours truly
C. C. SHELBERN
