DEATH OF MRS. NANCY BROACH.

Venerable Lady Passed Peacefully Away at the Home of Her Son.

Mrs. Nancy Broach, a venerable lady of Brazos county, passed peacefully away at the home of her son, Mr. J. J. Broach at Tabor at 5:30 Monday afternoon. She had been very low for some days and her death was not unexpected, yet this knowledge did not make less keen the sorrow of those loved ones who watched besides her as the feeble taper of life burned lower and lower and finally went out.

Mrs. Broach was 80 years of age, a native of Georgia, and had lived with her sons in this county for about 22 years. She was one of the blessed old Mothers in Israel, her life was filled with good deeds and the world was made better by her having lived in it. In early girlhood she united with the Missionary Baptist church, and through all the long stretch of years she was soothed and sustained by an unflinching trust in Him who marks the sparrows fall and hears the ravens when they cry. That faith that had been her comfort through life, was her rod and her staff as she entered the dark valley of the shadow of death, and brought her safely into the presence of the King.

The following children are left to mourn the loss of mother: Messrs. J. L. and M. S. Broach of Tabor, Mrs. Mary Elliott of Tabor, Mrs. Mattie Fullerton of Wheeler, Dr. R. M. Broach of Lyons, Dr. D. M. Broach of Coupland, R. A. Broach of Rutledge, Ala., and Mrs. Ella Watson of Montgomery, Ala.

She was laid to rest at Alexander at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon in the presence of a large company of friends who had come to pay her their last sad tribute of respect.

Mrs. O. L. Stearnes returned yesterday from attending Mardi Gras at New Orleans and is again the guest of her sister Mrs. Ed Hall, before departing for her home at Salem, Virginia.

Mesdames J. F. Parks, J. B. Sanders, W. J. Walker and J. C. Williams will give a tea at the residence of Mrs. J. F. Parks Thursday, March 4th, from 3 to 5:30. Everybody cordially invited. 74

Mrs. Annie Patterson and Mrs. Jno. B. Hines will give a tea for the benefit of the Episcopal church at the residence of Mrs. Hines, Thursday afternoon from 3 to 7. All are cordially invited to attend. 74

Bond Issue Carried.

The bond issue election was anything but exciting. Only 213 votes were polled and it came very near being unanimous, the result being as follows: For the bond issue, 195; against, 18; majority for, 177.

Mr. J. L. Edge was the presiding officer of the election, assisted by Messrs. W. S. Higgs, W. F. Gibbs, John Swanwick, Matt Vitopil and C. E. Bullock.

Allen Academy Victorious.

Allen Academy has again demonstrated her prowess in the field of athletics. She is invincible and easily takes rank with the leading colleges in athletics and sports of all kinds, as well as in the thoroughness of its literary and scientific training.

The double header basketball game with the State University team was played yesterday afternoon and last night at the roller rink and it was like taking candy away from children. The Academy won hands down in both games by the following scores: First game, 47 to 21; second game, 39 to 21.
