A Correction.—The local advertisement, printed in yesterday's Herald under the heading, "Mexican Investments," is republished today with a correction. In yesterday's issue it was printed "annual profit of $500,000" when it should have been $5,000,000 instead—only a difference of $4,500,000. Mistaken, however, will occur, even in the best regulated printing offices.

Committee Dissolved.—The following has been handed in for publication: "The committee appointed at the Commercial Club meeting last Monday night to arrange for the entertainment of Col. and Mrs. W. J. Bryan at Brownsville, met as per appointment yesterday afternoon at the Commercial Club, and decided that, as the entertainment of our distinguished visitors had been fully provided for outside of the committee, there was no service the committee could perform for the club and the reason for its existence having passed the committee was dissolved."

Driving Turkeys to Market. Cuero, Texas, Nov. 18.—A drove of 1600 turkeys came into Cuero yesterday from Hamon, in Gonzales county. It was a sight that attracted much attention. Local dealers bought the birds, which will be killed and dressed for shipping.

A widower who was married recently for the third time, and whose bride had been married once before herself, wrote across the bottom of the wedding invitations: "Be sure and come; this is no amateur performance."—Argonaut.

KINGVILLE NEWS NOTES.

Returned From Bridal Tour—Arranging to Handle Vegetables.

Special to The Herald:

Kingsville, Texas, Nov. 25.—Mr. and Mrs. R. J. McMillan arrived in the city last night from Mexico City, where they went on a bridal tour. Mr. McMillan, who is assistant general attorney of the St. Louis, Brownsville & Mexico Railroad, was married on the 10th of this month to Miss Susie Shelton of Waco. They will make Kingsville their home and for the present have apartments at King's Inn.

Wm. Doherty, traffic manager of the St. Louis, Brownsville & Mexico Railroad, has gone to Houston on business connected with the road, and which will keep him there two or three days. Mr. Doherty is now making arrangements to handle with the greatest expediency the coming vegetable crop of the Lower Rio Grande Valley, and in order that his work may be facilitated, is gathering estimates of the acreage planted and which will govern him in his contracts for refrigerator and ventilator cars.

E. S. Hyser, division road master of the St. Louis, Brownsville & Mexico Railroad, left this morning for Refugio where, this evening, he will be united in marriage to a young lady of that city. The private car Paisano was placed at his disposal by the railroad and in this he will make his bridal tour to Houston, Galveston and San Antonio.

It is known among his friends here that Tom Waite, one of the popular Gulf Coast Line conductors, is soon to claim as his own one of the fairest daughters of a Central Texas city and already he is receiving congratulations on his good fortune.
