Canyon Lumber Co.

THE MARCH OF COMPANY A.

"Forward, march!" was the captain's word. And the troop of hundred men was heard, as they formed into line in the morning gray, shoulder to shoulder, west company A. to be.

Out of the shadow into the sun,
A hundred men that moved as one,
Out of the dawning into the day,
A glistering sun, west company A.

Marching along the rendezvous,
To the gray, mosey, mosey, mosey,
By springing cornulots and orchard gap,
Forward, forward went company A.

And the pink and white of the apple trees,
Flowering fast on the the hillsides,
Scattered its dewy, scented spray,
Straight in the face of Company A.

A breath like a sigh ran through the ranks,
A cheery, ripple, ripple, ripple,
For the orchard hillsides far away,
The northern hillsides of Company A.

Forward, march—and the drone was sped
And the clatter, clatter, clatter, clatter,
Cluttered a troop of the Southern gray,
Floc to face company A.

Forth with a flash in the Southern sun,
Braving the heat of the the hillsides,
Sudden drum beat and bugle play
Sound the charge for Company A.

Halt! What is here? A slumbering child,
Blessed by the blast of the gray men,
Between the ranks of the blue and gray,
Right in the path of Company A.

Nothing knowing of North or South,
Her dimpled face brightening her mouth,
Her garments arrayed with blossoms gay,
She stood at the gate of Company A.

Straightway set a stage for a speech
With a golden staff in his hand,
_Sir, the president of this grand
Company, A., here is present.

At front of the steel of the Southern gray
Galloped the captain of Company A.

To his saddle he'd swung the child,
With a kiss on the baby lips that smiled,
While the boys in blue and the boys in gray
Cheered for the captain of Company A.

Forth from the ranks of his halted men,
While the wild banners rang out again,
The Southern leader spurred his way
To meet the captain of Company A.

Out of the arms that held her safe
He took with a smile the little wife,
A grasp of the hand 'twixt blue and gray,
And back rode the captain of Company A.

Up there, in 'ts distant courtyard door,
Ma'am, nursing her child in her arms,
Sheltered at sight of the smoke-cloud gray
Shouting the parts of Company A.

A littlelater and all was done
The battle of the Alamo, whose won,
Nothing left of the cottage fay
The last battle of the Alamo.

Nothing left—save the bloody stain
Drenching the orchard's rosy rain,
Dead the chief of the Southern gray,
Jose de Maria y Navoa.

Fallen together gray and blue,
Gone to the final renditement,
A grave to cover, a prayer to say.

And—Forward, march with Company A.

The Alamo.
A brief notice of this battle, bravely fought by a number of men against a vastly superior force—of the most heroic and most precious of Texas who home expired.

First. Buy all property available in the city and vicinity of the Alamo. Develop the Alamo and beautify it as a park.

Second. Build monument to the memory of 36, directly on the spot of the Alamo. Bodies were burned, proper lot being purchased for that purpose as far as Houston street and south of Alamo north, east and west.

Endowment Alamo, monies now on hand and property, sufficiently for their maintenance.

Fourth. Fourn board of trustees in number, to be appointed by the Governor of Texas, consisting of members in the person of the Governor, who shall hold adeciding vote only in case of disagreement, all action on the part of the board to be unanimous.

Fifth. Raise requisites sum for the purchase of the property, including necessary expenses, including but not limited to, purchase and removal of all imported goods, and for the purchase of all necessary supplies.

Note. Start necessary requisites not later than October first to the county judges, to the effect that any person seeking full money shall return address and finish fifty or forty thousand dollars in the purchase of all necessary supplies. Contact to be paid from the purchase tax on gold, silver, and other precious metals to authorized manufacturers of the State.

Mr. Deane, in a letter dated October 1st, to the Governor of the State of Texas, said in substance, as follows: We believe your report is true, and we are prepared to proceed with the plan you have advised us.

The man came to work on its Monday by his physician for an operation to go back home which he must.

Monday night and day a glorious signal and celebration of the life of Mr. D. H. Hadley.
These two days, every community in the State of Texas will be illuminated by the energy and self-sacrifice of the men who have gone to their homes.

Mr. Peter Roberts's family left their home at Alamo, Texas, to be

Mr. J. H. Hadley.

For fine jewelry in solid gold, rolled gold, and enamel go to Hadley.

The large tomatoes, cabbages, peas, beans, potatoes, melons, squash, green beans, water melons and cantaloupes that are grown are plentiful in the markets from the South.

Mr. W. L. Hadley.

TO HORSE RAISERS.

Those who raise horses, racehorses, in 1868, and have coats, have the privilege of entering each in a contest for a hundred dollars premium. Deadline to be on the court house square at 2 p.m. Saturday, Sept. 29, submit your judgment and what you have.

R. G. MOYNIHAN.

To HORSE RAISERS.

Those who raise horses, racehorses, in 1868, and have coats, have the privilege of entering each in a contest for a hundred dollars premium. Deadline to be on the court house square at 2 p.m. Saturday, Sept. 29, submit your judgment and what you have.

R. G. MOYNIHAN.

TO HORSE RAISERS.

Those who raise horses, racehorses, in 1868, and have coats, have the privilege of entering each in a contest for a hundred dollars premium. Deadline to be on the court house square at 2 p.m. Saturday, Sept. 29, submit your judgment and what you have.

R. G. MOYNIHAN.

TO HORSE RAISERS.

Those who raise horses, racehorses, in 1868, and have coats, have the privilege of entering each in a contest for a hundred dollars premium. Deadline to be on the court house square at 2 p.m. Saturday, Sept. 29, submit your judgment and what you have.

R. G. MOYNIHAN.

TO HORSE RAISERS.

Those who raise horses, racehorses, in 1868, and have coats, have the privilege of entering each in a contest for a hundred dollars premium. Deadline to be on the court house square at 2 p.m. Saturday, Sept. 29, submit your judgment and what you have.

R. G. MOYNIHAN.

TO HORSE RAISERS.

Those who raise horses, racehorses, in 1868, and have coats, have the privilege of entering each in a contest for a hundred dollars premium. Deadline to be on the court house square at 2 p.m. Saturday, Sept. 29, submit your judgment and what you have.

R. G. MOYNIHAN.

TO HORSE RAISERS.

Those who raise horses, racehorses, in 1868, and have coats, have the privilege of entering each in a contest for a hundred dollars premium. Deadline to be on the court house square at 2 p.m. Saturday, Sept. 29, submit your judgment and what you have.

R. G. MOYNIHAN.

TO HORSE RAISERS.

Those who raise horses, racehorses, in 1868, and have coats, have the privilege of entering each in a contest for a hundred dollars premium. Deadline to be on the court house square at 2 p.m. Saturday, Sept. 29, submit your judgment and what you have.

R. G. MOYNIHAN.