

A Pure, Soft, Wheat Flour

When properly milled is the Best

The Hungarian system of milling has long been recognized as the best, leaving all the nutritious properties of the wheat but still hitting it so it makes the nice, light, white biscuit and cakes that are the delight of all good housewives.

AMERICAN BEAUTY FLOUR

is milled by the Hungarian process. A fresh car today. Try a sack.

BRYAN, TEXAS, AUGUST 26, 1909.

May be our sewerage system will be sweeping by next summer.

To secure the trade of the surrounding counties in where a Business League would be a great help.

The schools will open soon and the old town will again be full of students. Perhaps their return will put a little life into things.

"Labor omnia vincit," and without labor nothing is accomplished. What effort is Bryan making to secure the trade from surrounding counties? None in the world.

It is now suggested that Sunday baseball games be opened with prayer. Perhaps to invoke the Divine to swat the empire with the sword of the Lord and Gideon if he should go crooked in his decisions.

A man's political faith is largely influenced by his pocketbook. The Denver platform declared for free raw material. The democrats of Texas did not want free hides, and Culberson abandoned the platform and voted for a duty on hides, and Culberson is the noblest Roman of them all.

Winkablink is the name of the newest drink in Alabama, and it is claimed that one drink of it enables a boll weevil to crack a coconut at one crack, and two drinks makes a lone man think he is the whole American army and navy in a combined engagement.—Palestine Herald.

It evidently touches the spot.

The boll weevil is doing his level best to make the farmer see the wisdom of diversification. The crop is short and the price is high. The solution of the situation is to let the crop be short every year and raise hogs, potatoes and plenty of feed. This course means prosperity. All cotton means poverty.

The farmers of New England do not sell many hides, but the manufacturers of New England make oodles of leather goods. They have put hides on the free list and shoes are not on the free list. The manufacturer of shoes can thus get his hides from South America, and force the American farmer to sell him hides at prices competing with peon labor, and the United States farmer himself will pay the same old protective price for a hide from his cow made into a boot, belt or bridle. This is a nice, large dose for the free raw material advocate to have to swallow.—Collinsville Times.

Northwest Texas possesses a Clay county and a potter county, but the clay will soon be too dry for working purposes.—Wichita Times

Northwest Texas never gets too dry for working purposes—"working" the suckers whom the land boomers bring there from the North and East.—Bonham News.

Montague county sand is neither too dry or too wet for working purposes, and our people offer every one a square deal. Come to Montague and avoid the extremes.—Montague Democrat.

The Oracle would suggest that if you would go to an ideal place, take no chances, be certain you are right and press forward, come to Young county, locate in Olney and prosperity will be your portion.—Olney Oracle.

Is there any jealousy in any of the above paragraphs? If so cut it out. Texas must be one common brotherhood of counties from Texline around to the gulf, Sabine Pass, up through East Texas to Gus Shaw's big farm, thence west through Bonham to Wichita—not forgetting the big county of Greer that the government took away from us and gave to the Indians. Anywhere in Texas is an ideal place to the man who is satisfied with his home.—Fort Worth Star-Telegram.

The Star-Telegram is right. It all depends on the man being satisfied with his home. The Eagle assures the farmers of Eravos county they are living in the "garden spot" of the state and earnestly urges them to be satisfied with their surroundings.

A scientist has announced that he has discovered a bacillus which, after it is injected under the skin of a homely or ugly woman, will make her beautiful in a few hours. If such is the case that fellow fortune is made. Yet he need not come to Archer City with his beautifying bacillus for the women of this city are pretty enough.—Archer Dispatch.

That fellow's discovery would be of little value to him anywhere in Texas. It would be out of harmony with Nature for its native born women to be ugly in this state where the breezes are health tonics and bear with them the odor of millions of sweet flowers that bloom perennially and where innumerable birds fill the home and farm and forest with music sweeter than aeolian strains. Oh, no. Away with that fellow and his beautifying bacillus.—Fort Worth Star-Telegram.

He'll never sell a dime's worth of the stuff. There are no ugly women. Of course some of those Eastern ladies have large feet, but as the panna is not recommended for a reduction in size of pedal extremities, he'll find no sale for it.

Washington county has, in the person of Miles Motley, of Chappel Hill, a colored farmer of unusual prosperity and thrift. He has two thousand acres of land, which he has accumulated by hard work. This year he has about 700 acres in cotton and 300 in corn. His corn crop is about made and the yield will be fifty or more bushels per acre. His cotton is doing well, with very few boll weevils, and he expects to make between 400 and 500 bales. One thousand acres in cotton and corn is a good showing for a colored man.—Comanche Chief

STILL GROWING

The above table shows ten years' growth of the Reserve Fund of The Modern Order of Praetorians. A Texas order whose National headquarters are at Dallas, Texas.

This Order is now organizing a council in Bryan, and a number of Bryan's prominent business men have already enlisted.

Salient features of this order are:

1. A Texas Order.
2. A healthy, growing Reserve Fund.
3. Ten-pay, fifteen pay and twenty-pay certificates.
4. Paid-up and extended values.
5. Both Life and Accident protection.
6. Men and Women on equal terms.
7. 43 per cent increase in membership last year.
8. Lead all other orders, doing business in Texas, in growth last year.
9. Rates are level and have never been changed.
10. An absolutely spotless record.
11. Insurance on a scientific basis.

If we want to hold our trade, if we want more business, if we want additional enterprises, if we want to build up our town, we must make an effort and a strenuous one in order to do it. We cannot set around and fight each other, and see our trade territory encroached upon from day to day and expect to hold our own. That is an impossibility.

New Standing Armies Originated.

The earliest European standing army was that of Macedonia, established about 358 B. C. by Philip, father of Alexander the Great. It was the second in the world's history, having preceded only by that of Sesostris Pharaoh of Egypt, who organized a military caste about 1600 B. C. Of modern standing armies, that formed by the Turkish janizaries was first, being fully organized in 1362. It was a century later that the standing army of France, the earliest in western Europe, was established by Charles VII. in the shape of "compagnies d'ordonnance," numbering 9,000 men. Rivalry thereupon compelled the nations to adopt similar means of defense. In England a standing army proper was first established by Cromwell, but was disbanded under Charles II., with the exception of a few regiments called the guards, or household brigade. This was the nucleus of England's present army.

A Girl's Preparedness.

There is something very pitiful about a girl. She wears calico, but talks knowingly about the latest styles in silks. Her home is furnished plainly, but she knows the latest styles in furniture; she knows how the silverware should be arranged at dinners, the latest stitch for the marking of monograms on the finest table damask, the etiquette to be observed at a dinner, a reception or a ball, although she never attended anything more than a neighborhood party in her life. Her father's monthly income is not as large as the pin money a rich girl would spend in a day, but she knows what the rich girl should wear and buy to be in touch with the times. She is, in short, prepared at any time to marry a rich man and become a society leader.—Atchison Globe.

A Famous Poem.

J. C. Francis, the publisher of London Notes and Queries, has brought out a volume of reminiscences. One of his quotations records the editorial rejection of Campbell's "Hohenlinden" by the Greenock Advertiser. It runs thus:

T. C.—The lines commencing "On Linden when the sun was low" are not up to our standard. Poetry is evidently not T. C.'s forte.

A Home Body.

"So your husband always stays in the house nights?" said one woman. "Yes," answered the other. "Once Hiram gets settled down in front of his fireside you can't get him out of doors even to bring in an armful of wood."

A Household Matter.

Housemaid—Please, str., will you come at once? The drovin' room's on fire. Master—Well, go and tell your mistress. You know I never interfere in household matters.—Punch.

CONFIRMED PROOF.

Residents of Bryan Cannot Doubt What Has Been Twice Proved.

In gratitude for complete relief from aches and pains of bad backs—from have publicly recommended Doan's Kidney Pills. Residents of Bryan who so testified years ago now say their cures were permanent. This testimony doubly proves the worth of Doan's Kidney Pills to Bryan kidney sufferers.

Mrs. E. B. Roberts, Moseley, Street, Bryan, Texas, says: "A year ago I gave a testimonial in which I told of the benefits I had derived from Doan's Kidney Pills. I gladly renew that statement now, realizing that so many persons are in need of a reliable kidney remedy. For sixteen years I was a victim of kidney complaint and at times I had slight attacks of rheumatism which caused my limbs to become stiff and painful. My kidneys were also disordered and the passages of the secretion were irregular. When I heard of Doan's Kidney Pills, I obtained a box from Emmel & Maloney's drug store and they entirely relieved me. I have since enjoyed excellent health and have no trouble whatever from my kidneys or back."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50c Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agent for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

TAKE A SUNSHINE TABLET FOR THY STOMACH'S SAKE.

There never was such a marvelous prescription for stomach distress and indigestion as Mi-o-na.

No doctor ever wrote a better one; it's doubtful if any doctor ever will. It's so good that E. J. Jenkins says money back if it doesn't cure.

A woman in Maine calls Mi-o-na the sunshine prescription because she has seen so many sour, miserable, aggravated dyspeptics turned into happy, cheerful, sweet human beings in a few days by taking Mi-o-na.

The stomach is responsible for three fourths of the nervousness and half the misery of the world. A woman can have a first class stomach and yet be miserable if she has a husband who is a nervous dyspeptic.

If you have indigestion, belching of gas, heaviness after eating, drowsy sensation after eating, sour stomach or any miserable stomach disturbance the prescription called Mi-o-na will put you right, and bring sunshine into your life in a week.

A large box of Mi-o-na tablets cost only 50 cents at E. J. Jenkins' and by leading druggists everywhere. They are small and easy to swallow.
