FRISCO GRAFTER IS GOING BLIND

Confinement Tells Seriously Upon Col.
Abe Reuf.

Special to the Eagle.
San Francisco, Nov. 16.—Abe Reuf, former political leader of San Francisco, is threatened with total blindness and deafness. An operation will be performed on his eyes Wednesday. Reuf has been in the county jail for a little more than a year pending appeal of his case to a higher court. He attributes his affliction to lack of exercise.

POSSUMS CAUGHT AT COMPRESS.

The night watchman at the cotton compress was surprised to find an opossum in the office one night recently. It was captured and a trap set, and soon three others had been caught. The family had been living under the platform. The vermin are in a cage at the compress, and can be seen at any time by the curious.

Special to the Eagle.
Chickasha, Ok., Nov. 16.—Great interest centered around the United States district court here yesterday because of the announcement that Federal Judge Marshall would hand down a decision on the demurrer filed by Haskell and five other prominent Oklahomans to indictments charging them with fraudulently obtaining titles from the government to hundreds of town lots in Muskogee. The decision will determine whether or not the defendants who fought every step in the case, will finally go to trial. Judge Marshall overruled the demurrers. Counsel for the defendants entered exceptions to the court's ruling and announced that further motions would be filed. The defendants were ordered to appear before Judge Marshall next Saturday and plead guilty or not guilty.

STOCK LAW ELECTION.

The State of Texas, County of Brazos: Whereas, on the 11th day of November, 1909, a petition was presented to the Commissioners Court of Brazos County, Texas, for an election in the hereinafter described sub-division of Brazos County, Texas, to determine, whether or not horses, mules, jacks, jennets and cattle, should be permitted to run at large in said sub-division said petition, having the requisite number of signatures of freeholders, property taxpaying voters of said sub-division and being in every respect, in conformity with law was granted, by the Commissioners Court of Brazos County, Texas. Now, therefore, I, A. G. Board, in my capacity as County Judge of Brazos County, Texas, do hereby order that an election be held on the 20th day of December, 1909, in Brazos County, Texas, in the following described sub-division of said county, to wit: Beginning at a point on the north-east boundary line of the city of Bryan where the Madisonville public road intersects said boundary line; thence in an easterly direction with said Madisonville public road to the town of Kurten in Brazos County, Texas; thence in a north westerly direction along the Kurten and Wheelock public road to the Old San Antonio public road, same being the dividing line between Brazos and Robertson Counties; thence in a westerly direction with said San Antonio road to the track of the Houston & Texas Central railroad; thence south with said railroad to the boundary line of the city of Bryan, Texas; thence with said boundary line of said city of Bryan to the place of beginning. To determine whether or not horses, mules, jacks, jennets, and cattle, shall be permitted to run at large in said sub-division, said election to be held at Tabor, Texas, in John Wiley's store same being in said sub-division and John Wiley is hereby appointed presiding officer for said election, and he shall select two judges and two clerks to assist him in holding said election and make his returns thereof to the County Judge within ten days after said election has been held. All persons who are legally qualified voters of the State and of this county, and reside in the sub-division herein named, and are freeholders shall be entitled to vote in said election. The ballots of said election shall have written or printed thereon the following: For The Stock Law Against The Stock Law Dated this 16th day of November, 1909. A. G. BOARD, County Judge Brazos County, Texas. 41 ws

THE POOR LITTLE FELLOW WHAT HASN'T NO MA

They lend him their pencils and give him a bite
Of apple, and help him to do his sums right;
They let him be "driver," and allow declare
He ought to be given the heapingest share;
They're kind when he's fretful, and pleasing and sweet
And they say when you ask them, with whispers of awe—
"He's the poor little fellow what hasn't no ma."
The girls even pet him and won't spell him down
When the word is a whopper and makes 'em all frown
And stumble and mumble, just tryin' their best
To let him remember it first fore the rest;
He wins all the marbles, and don't have to fight,
And seems to be havin' a life of delight,
Because it's the code of the school-children law
"It's the poor little fellow what hasn't no Ma."
He gets the best pickles and has the most fun
Just livin' a life of contentment and sun.
With everyone tryin' the best they can
To make it all up to him, ere's he's a man,
What he's missin' and missin' 'em day unto day
Not havin' no mother to go to 'em play,
Ner kneel to at nighttime, just only a Pa—
The poor little fellow what hasn't no Ma!
They tie up his shoestrings and lend him their knife,
And the girl they call Susie says he's her whole life;
And he gets lots of livin' where'er he may roam
Just to make up the lovin' he's missin' at home;
That is if a love can be made half as sweet
As a boy's mover gives when he comes from the street
All weary and hungry—Lord help us to draw
Right up to the feller what hasn't no Ma!
—The Benttown Bard in the Baltimore Sun.
