Commission Appointed.

Austin, March 6.—The governor has appointed S. S. Asche, Mrs. Rosine Ryan and J. S. Rice, all of Houston, to be the San Jacinto battlefield state park commission, whose duties are to beautify and provide for the care of the battlefield, having at their disposal $25,000 appropriated by the last legislature. These three commissioners are the same ones who were named as the commission to buy additional land on the battlefield. It is understood active operations will be begun to beautify the historic tract.

Balm For Fat Men.

Every picture of the devil in human form represents him as very tall, very slender and elegantly dressed. The fat men need all the comfort they can get and may find some in this.—Achtson Globe.

There is only one cure for public distress, and that is public education, directed to make men thoughtful, merciful and just.—Ruskin.

London Street Noises.

A hundred years or so ago no punishment could have been worse than that of subjecting the victim to the inferno of modern London noises if they had then existed. Dropping water on the forehead, torturing with tweezers, setting food before the starving culprit—out of reach—all of these were exquisite and refined forms of horror, but they all pale before a night and a day in a modern London street.—Town and Country.

His Defense.

Cobble—You certainly have a good cook. By the way, where do you get your servants? Stone—From our neighbors. When we hear of a good one among them we offer her more money to come with us. Cobble—But, my dear fellow, is that honorable? Stone—Why not? Can you develop a sense of honor with a poor digestion?—Life.

Quite a Difference.

First Comedian—What's the difference between a beautiful young girl and a codfish? Second Comedian—Give it up. First Comedian—One has a chance to become a full bride and the other to become a full fried.—Brooklyn Eagle.

LOEB CONFIRMED.

Senator Bailey Protests Against Certain Statements.

Washington, March 6.—The nomination of William Loeb Jr. to be collector of the port of New York and Beekman Winthrop to be assistant secretary of the navy were confirmed by the senate in executive session Saturday.

Before taking this action Senator Bailey made protest against stories which were printed concerning the executive session Friday, when he suggested that Charles Nagel of Missouri might be ineligible for the office of secretary of commerce and labor and that he had been interested as counsel in the suit of the Waters-Pierce Oil company, which litigation is still pending before the federal court.

Paris Is Right Crazy.

Paris is right crazy and is paying American second raters to go abroad. The latest to make the trip are Joe Jennotte, colored heavyweight, who is matched with Sam McVey, another dusky one, and Willie Lewis, a clever middleweight. They are guaranteed expense and should clear up $10,000 in a short time.

His Conundrum.

"What is the difference," asked the man with the erratic eyebrows, "between a tall, stout man whose wife has purchased for him a pale pink smoking jacket with yellow facings and a pocket that is utterly out of convenient reach at a dry goods store late in the afternoon of the day before Christmas, after having put off the purchase for two weeks because she had to attend half a dozen bridge parties, and a large, jovial Russian nobleman who has been convinced of the brotherhood of man and who is devoting himself to the laudable work of converting the people on his estates?"

"How's that?" asked the man with the dilatory mustache.

The man with the erratic eyebrows repeated the query, and the other man, of course, refused to answer, saying that if he replied to hypothetical questions he must demand an expert's fee.

"Oh, well," explained the man with the erratic eyebrows, "it is simple enough. One pays for the present and the other prays for the peasant."—Chicago Post.

A Martyr to the Fox.

A fox can climb almost as well as a cat and will often be found lying in trees and on the top of ivy covered walls. High walls covered with ivy often surround private residences in hunting districts. One of these domains walls caused the tragic death of a hound in the south of Ireland a few years ago. There was a belt of trees with thickish undergrowth close up to the wall, and the hounds were running a tired fox hard through this belt. Suddenly the cry ceased; there were the unmistakable growling and worrying which proclaim a kill. The master jumped off his horse and pushed his way through the undergrowth. On getting to the pack, instead of finding a dead fox he saw to his horror one of the best hounds torn to pieces. It was easy to understand what had happened. The fox had got over the wall by the help of some ivy, and the hound had tried to jump over after him, but, falling back among the others, had been killed before they realized their mistake.—London Standard.

The End of the Chase.

Two ladies, friends of the superintendent, were visiting a hospital for the insane. During the noon meal the superintendent remarked that the door of the violent ward was being repaired and that the guards would have to be unusually watchful until it was finished. After dinner the ladies went for a stroll down the beautiful lane leading up to the main building. Suddenly they heard footsteps as of some one running behind them and were horrified on looking around to see a disheveled, wild eyed man pursuing them. One of the women quietly stepped to the side of the road. The other, screaming at the top of her voice, ran down the road with the maniac close upon her heels. At last, spent with running and gasping with fright, crouching in anticipation of the blow which she was expecting, she waited her fate. The man, panting and grinding, tapped her lightly on the shoulder and said:

"Tag! You're it."—Cleveland Leader.

Mohammedan Serenity.

A Mohammedan people enjoy one great advantage over all others—they never suffer from the anticipation of that which is to come, and, as a natural result, they can always enjoy the present, although only a few hours may separate them from disaster or even from death. Their implicit belief in an ordained future imparts a dignified repose and outward calm to all their actions. Thus, in spite of the trials and troubles which threatened the state during my stay at Fez, a smooth surface of unchangeable serenity veiled the inner thoughts of every individual, from the sultan to the negro at his gates.—Blackwood Magazine.

The True Bohemian.

"A true bohemian is a man who borrows a dollar and then invites you to lunch with it."
"Wrong again. A true bohemian is a man who invites himself to lunch with you and then borrows a dollar."—Kansas City Star.

Almost Personal.

Celestine—And has Mr. Pryor's church such a small congregation? Hilda—Yes, indeed. Every time he says "dearly beloved" you feel as if you had received a proposal.—Bohemian.
