After the program, Rev. A. N. Pledger made the children a very earnest talk upon school life, and the effect it should have upon their future lives.

Dryer School No. 2.

"Joy! joy! joy! always joy and never sorrow;
And the brightness of today lends a glory to to-morrow."
Somehow this bit of "joy song" reminds us of April days, sunny and sweet, when a dash of rain only makes the sunshine brighter and the skies more deeply blue. All days are bright if we will have them so.

"Whichever way the wind doth blow,
Some heart is glad to have it so;
So blow it East, or blow it West,
The wind that blows, that wind is best."

Which is but another way of phrasing the little motto, which we have quoted: "All is of God that is, and is to be, and God is good." Dear friends; suppose you try repeating this "bit of comfort" when you are vexed or sorry or out of tune with the Infinite in any way. It is a veritable panacea.

Hello Gazette and its readers, how do you all enjoy this rain? Farmers of this neighborhood appreciated it very much, as the soil has been getting hard to plow.

Mr. D. DuBoise of Hamon passed through here yesterday with a drove of fine grassed cattle enroute to your town, from there he shipped a carload to Dallas.

Mr. Lee Franks and daughter, Emma, of Flatonia have arrived here to visit their kinfolks.

Miss Clim Franks of near Hallettsville is visiting her nephew, L. Franks, this week.

Eva Turk spent last Sunday with her friend, Miss Mary Dryer.

August Riehat, our new butcher, is butchering every Friday regular.

Mrs. L. Turk and sister, Alvina Herzhok, were visiting at the home of R. G. Dryer last Tuesday.

F. Andre's children have been down with measles several days. I am glad to say that they are up again at this writing.

Albert Bargmann of Bello was here last Sunday on business.

Miss Lula Simmons of Maurin came down last Friday after her sister, Miss Eva, who taught the Dryer school here.

Ben Cole is here visiting the home of George Turk.

Correspondents, are you all getting ready for Easter? I only wish you could see what a pretty nest I had ready for Easter eggs, but the rain has ruined it for good.

Oscar Osborn of Dryer was seen among us last Sunday evening.

Mrs. Lee Franks and children and aunt Miss C. Franks, were visiting us yesterday evening.

L. Becka and Ed. Kasper were fishing on the Guadalupe river last week. 'Fan' ask them how many fish they caught.

Well it is bed time so I will ring off. Hope the Editor will have space for this letter. Good night to all.

"May."

All of the United States troops at Fort Sam Houston will participate in the patriotic exercises that will be one of the principal features of the Spring Carnival and Battle of Flowers at San Antonio April 20 to 25.

The commandant at the Post has arranged to have all the soldiers, consisting of infantry, cavalry and artillery, appear in their best dress uniforms, and the sight will be one of the most imposing military pageants that has been seen since the soldiers left San Antonio for the front at the beginning of the Spanish-American war.
