

THE GAZETTE,

PUBLISHED EVERY WEDNESDAY BY J. C. HABERMACHER.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES: One Year, postpaid, $1.00

Entered at the Shiner, Texas, Post-office as second-class matter.

Wednesday, Mar. 15, 1905.

Next Friday, March 17, will be St. Patrick's day.

Dr. Lyman Abbott says that wealth is a danger. We do not feel in any immediate danger.

General Kuroki proved himself to be a mighty live dead man in the fighting around Mukden.

The developments in the Moore-Kirby bribery case shows considerable rottenness on both sides, and the end is not yet.

Judge Calhoun, presiding in the Moore bribery case, has been placed on the stand and testified as a witness.

The expected has happened. The house has killed the Senate anti-pass bill by postponing action till the close of the session.

Brownsville is making preparations to keep cool during the summer. An ice factory has just been put in operation.

When the shout of Nogi's men went up, "We are from Port Arthur," the Russians made a bee line for Tie Pass.

The czar's cause is lost in Manchuria. A great man is risen there and his name is Oyama. The Mikado's star is in the ascendant.

Col. D. T. Holt has presented a note for $250,000 against the Wm. M. Rice estate. The trustees declare the note a forgery and it will be contested in the courts.

President Roosevelt will attend the re-union of the Rough Riders at San Antonio on April 7th. This will be a grand day for San Antonio.

General Kuropatkin is now in the same boat with Representative Hancock. He has lost all of his passes, and is even about to lose his "Tie pass."

It has been decided that Mr. Carnegie will not be required to testify in the Chadwick case. Mrs. Chadwick failed to recognize him when he entered the court room at Cleveland.

Two strong Japanese columns are about to unite north of Mukden, and should they succeed, Kuropatkin's retreat will be cut off most effectually. Both armies are now racing for Tie Pass with the odds in favor of the Japs.

In a recent debate in the house on the anti-free pass bill, Mr. Kennedy offered to surrender his pass to the railroads provided any other members would do so, but no one responded. He said he was scared to death for fear some of them would call his hand and was powerfully tickled to find that he had run no risk. This makes us think that there will be no anti-free pass bill passed this session.

The Fighting at Mukden.

The fighting of the Japanese at the battle of Mukden has been so fast and furious that they did not have time to eat, and went forty-eight hours without food. However, their victory is so complete that they will now be able to take their meals regularly in Mukden and enjoy a much needed rest. Kuropatkin will hardly stay short of Harbin this time.

Exchange Gossip.

It seems now that Houston must endure the agony of torting through the year without an opportunity to get sloppy over Roosevelt. —Houston Post.

Houston still has the Hon. John H. Kirby.

An exchange says that a dog growls over his dinner because he likes it, and a man growls over his dinner because he doesn't like it. —Hallettsville Herald.

For once the man appears to be the most reasonable.

Emperor Nicholas says: "I am willing to shed my blood for the good of my people." Does this mean that he contemplates suicide? —Houston Post.

Nit. It means that he is willing to shed the blood of the people for his own good.

Russia used to have the largest standing army in the world. Now it has the largest running army of all history. —Houston Post.

Russia's running days are about over, and she will now stand and deliver.

The man who marries a small woman with the idea that her dressmaking bills will not be as large as that of her larger sisters, is due for a big surprise shortly after the honeymoon is over. —Galveston Tribune.

We can only say to this that the smallest packages are usually put up in the finest wrappers.

A man will play billards half the night at 25c the game, and drink 15c whisky every ten minutes, without expecting any part in the management of the saloon. But if he pays 2c a day for a newspaper he thinks he ought to have something to say as to its policy. —Victoria Advocate.

Some men do not know how to do it.

A New York man offers one thousand dollars in charity if a perfectly happy married man can be found. He could have included single men and both married and single women and be safe. His quest is about as futile as Diogenes' search for an honest man. —Hallettsville Herald.

These are strange words coming from a young married man like Editor Beaumier. Mr. Beaumier should come to Shiner to live. We have happy people here, both young and old, and the Gazette man is one of them.

Hale County Herald: A sorry man is one who cares nothing about what is going on in his community. A poor man is one who can not raise a dollar for pay for his home paper. A mean man is one who won't take the county paper for his family. A bad man is one who takes the home paper and won't pay for it.

And a good man is one who cares for his neighbor, who loves his family, who subscribes for the home paper and who pays the printer. There are a great many good men in Texas and more coming. —Galveston News.

We can speak for Shiner. There are dead loads of good men here.

Dreyer Notes.
