An Overland Route.

To the Shiner Gazette:—After leaving Comfort we had some very fine roads and at 12 m. we reached Poerne, which is a very fine little city. We rested awhile and then drove on slowly and at 6:30 p. m. in reached Leaf Springs, at which place we camped for the night. These springs are a fine camping place, fine water, and two stores nearby, a postoffice called Louis and a section house. Early the next morning we broke camp and were soon on our way to San Antonio, the great Alamo City, for which we were all longing. We reached San Antonio by 11 a. m. and put up our teams at Mr. Wohlparth's wagon yard, one block from San Pedro Park. We engaged a room for the ladies and were soon on our way to see the sights of the Alamo City. We visited the Zoo Garden, San Pedro Springs, the park, Alamo Military Plaza, Government Hill, the breweries and main business portion of the city. We also visited the hot sulphur wells where we met our Shiner friend, Ed. J. Wangemann. We also called at 633 Goliad street to see our old friend, Mr. Ed. Schultze, who was glad to see us and extended to us a most hearty welcome. We wish to thank Mr. and Mrs. Schultze for their many kindnesses to us. Early Saturday morning we pulled out from San Antonio and started on the homeward journey. We were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Wohlparth for about six miles out of the city and who put us on the way to Floresville. We drove along and soon reached the town of Elmendorf; the next place of any importance is Suspanke where there is a large pottery and a brick yard. The next town on our route was Calaveras. We passed rapidly on and reached Floresville about 4 o'clock in the evening. Here we learned that our old friend, Henry Ellinghausen, lived about 5 miles distant from town, so we drove on and soon reached his fine new home, just completed. Henry was glad to see us and extended to us a hearty welcome. Henry has a fine large pasture and we at once put our horses to grass at his invitation and partook of his hospitality in various ways. He and his good wife could not do too much for us and we hereby extend to them both our most heartfelt thanks. Good luck to you, brother Henry.

The next morning we started out for Riddleville, not knowing the way to the place and being Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Ellinghausen drove with us about five miles, piloting us through the large pastures and soon placed us on the direct road to Riddleville. We came shortly to the beautiful stream, the Cibola, where we rested awhile and eat dinner. We drove all the balance of the evening and reached Riddleville about 7 o'clock where we camped for the night. The next morning at 7 o'clock we took a fresh start and passed several fine little villages, amongst them Davy and Saserville. We soon came to the large ranch known as the Houston Ranch, where at the residence of Mr. M. T. Davis, we replenished our water supply with a keg of fine, fresh cistern water. At sunset we reached the little village of Cheapside, where we again camped for the night, on a little creek just below the town. Early Tuesday morning we started out on the home stretch, which was to be our last days' drive. We soon crossed the Gaudalup river and at 1:30 p. m. reached Hochheim. Shortly after leaving Hochheim we heard one of our party cry, "Hurrah for Shiner!" and lo, in the dim distance before us was Shiner, "Home, Sweet Home." All had a lovely time and reached home well and happy.

AUGUST KOEPKE,
"Grand Scribe."

During last May an infant child of our neighbor was suffering from cholera infantum. The doctors had given up all hopes of recovery. I took a bottle of Chamberlain's colic, cholera and diarrhoea remedy to the house, telling them I felt sure it would do good if used according to directions. In two days time the child had fully recovered. The child is now vigorous and happy. I have recommended this remedy frequently and have never known it to fail.—Mrs. Curtis Baker, Bookwalter, Ohio. DILWORTH DOINGS

JUNE 29th, 1901

Yesterday was court day in Dilworth. Messrs C. K. Walter and Robert Nixon of Gonzales attended.

June 30: Quite a number of persons from Dilworth and vicinity visited Shiner yesterday, among whom were Messrs. Will Wiseman, John Stulting, Dr. Minton, Claude DeBerry, Buck Jones and N. P. Roberts.

We noticed, while on our way to your city, Saturday, that crops were in excellent condition; good rains had fallen and cotton seemed little damaged by the weevil.

While visiting Shiner we had the pleasure of meeting Rev. Sallee and Mr. Owen, of Waelder and Rev. Henderson, of Waco, who were attending the Baptist Conference at that place.

Messrs. Abner and Will May, of Nickel, were in the city yesterday. Several of our young Bohemian citizens attended the dance at Sunset school house last night and enjoyed themselves very much.

Church was held at Maurin today.

Frank Bartsch and family returned from Schulenburg recently. Misses Tena Holst and Cora Williamson visited Gonzales Saturday.

JULY 1: June, the month of roses, has faded away, giving place to the month held sacred by so many millions who enjoy the freedom and independence obtained for them so long ago. The celebrations throughout the country on the glorious fourth serve to remind us of the time when our forefathers wore powdered wigs (not dyed ones like some folks do nowadays) and hid charters in oak trees, wanted liberty, declared independence and got it. Wonder how many who celebrate ever think of it?

Mrs. H. K. Jones is visiting in Gonzales.

Mrs. Gunn, of San Antonio, is visiting her niece, Mrs. B. H. Jones.

To certain people we want to say Dilworth is still "nickering."

John Roberts and family, of Oak Forest, visited relatives here last week.

The little son of Mr. Gilerist is reported quite ill.
