WOULD AID ALL EUROPE ON WAY TO RECOVERY

Red Cross Executive Says Nations "Are Stricken" and Need Help.

"SEEMS WE HAVE NOW TURNED OUR BACKS"

Dayton Honored at Dinner By Board of Governors of Red Cross.

DAYTON, Ohio, April 17.—The Red Cross executive committee today expressed its regret that the nations of Europe are being left to their own devices in their struggle for recovery. It is the opinion of the committee that the nations of Europe are "stricken" and need help. The committee also expressed its regret that the nations of Europe have now turned their backs on the Red Cross.
