Preparing to Remove.

We notice that the firm of Haas & Oppenheimer are now closing out their entire stock of dry goods and clothing at "actual cost." It is an unusual thing for this enterprising concern to offer this advantage to the people, would advise all to call and see, as they never advertise anything but what they mean.

Gift the "Energetic."

Alex Wynn, in the Beaumont Enterprise, in speaking of Mr. Gifford and his mines in Mexico says: "Let us here say, that with 'Gift' as Secretary and Manager of the silver mines, and Secretary of the coal mines at Carbon city, we will not be surprised if he makes them both a mine of gold."

An Awkward Fall.

Early this morning a young woman named Gains, accidentally fell from the first floor window of her residence near the San Pedro creek. She was in her night dress at the time, and fell upon a nest of ants. Fortunately her head being severely shaken, she was uninjured, but the ants were very troublesome.

Justice Adam's Court.

The following cases were heard in Justice Adam's court: Leonardo Gans, vs. Pearson and Goffe, suit for rent of stable on Main Plaza, $75; Judgment given for plaintiff for the amount of $15. S. M. Hamilton vs. Joseph Schmidt, suit on account of $12. Judgment for plaintiff.

Mr. W. B. Stevens left last night for Luling, where he is to be united this morning to Miss Maggie Nixon.

Keep Your Eye on the Park.

Pedestrians through Travis park on Saturday night, reported that there was no policeman on duty in the vicinity and immorality was prevalent. If the police really intend to prevent that which has been complained of it cannot be done by fits and starts, but by a permanent watching, and the arrest and exposure of the offenders.

The Texas Investment Company.

The Texas investment company, of Fort Worth, and branch office in San Antonio, has just received advices from Santa Rosalia, Mexico, that it had become the only controlling interest in 220,000 acres of land in the State of Chihuahua, aggregating 1,300,000 acres, and that they also closed a contract for cattle, aggregating $207,000 on last Saturday.

Which is Right?

Mr. Caleb Mauls is of an opinion that the correspondent who gave the information as to his meeting his daughter, Mrs. Dan P. Smith, in St. Louis is either mistaken or is not telling the truth. All the light has to say is this: The report came from a gentleman well known in San Antonio, and it has no reason to doubt the accuracy of the statement.

News From the Sunset Extension.

Mr. Carrington, an engineer on Captain Foke's staff, returned from Mexico via Eagle Pass yesterday. He reports about 60 miles of railroad track laid, and more is being rapidly pushed on. Excellent work is being done by all and everything is very satisfactory except the food, which he says is decidedly bad. He thinks the country very rich, and gains abundance in every aim.

A New and Enterprising Firm.

Messrs. Yeo & Wittich have commenced business as cement, concrete and general builders, and their advertisement now appears in the Light. Mr. Yeo is a concrete artist of many years experience, and in useful or ornamental concrete work his services can be well and profitably employed. Mr. Wittich had considerable experience in the cement trade. They are both worthy of public support.
