Demonstration On Salads Is Given At Meet

A demonstration on the making of various salads was the feature of the El Jardin Progress club meeting Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Lee Martin and introduced to the members, Miss Edith Cox who is with the Central Power, and Light Co. Beautiful red hibiscus were placed about the rooms.

Miss Cox gave a most instructive demonstration on the one meal, cheese and tomato salads. These were served later. Guests gathered much information and were very interested, especially in the one meal salad, a boon to the busy housewife. The club held election of officers with the following results: president, Mrs. Frank Hill; vice-president, Mrs. P. R. Wilson; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Ira Ford and parliamentarian, Mrs. C. Bonholdt.

Mrs. Martin served a refreshing punch after the business meeting. Guests for the afternoon were Mrs. S. S. Fallin, Miss Edith Cox, and Mrs. H. E. Triplett. Members were Mesdames Sam Howell, C. Bonholdt, McGuire, Ira Ford, P. R. Wilson, M. Seuber and the hostess.

Brazil Is Topic For Programs

WESLACO, Oct. 16.—The three circles of the Presbyterian Missionary society met Monday afternoon at the various homes for a lesson on "Brazil."

Circle one met at the home of Mrs. A. G. Kurz at Progress, with 16 members and one guest, Mrs. L. V. Lewark, present. Those taking part on the program were Mesdames Morgan, J. K. Cook, and Pratz. A short business session was held. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Harry Merchant.

Circle two met with Mrs. C. Lester Skaggs as hostess, Mrs. C. H. Cotton presiding during the business session. Devotional was led by Mrs. J. H. Christner. The program was in charge of Mrs. J. P. Vailier. Mrs. Murray read an article on "The National Church of Brazil." Mrs. J. V. Sidner, "Marie's Questions Answered;" Mrs. Raymond Witt "Bringing Comfort to the Womanhood of Brazil;" and Mrs. Gilbert Ramsey, "Image of Brazil." All joined in the singing of "Work for thy neighbor."

During the business session reports of the various chairmen were given. A plate luncheon was served by the hostess, to 18 members and 2 guests, Mesdames Stout and Walter Andrews.

Mrs. W. L. Shepherd was hostess to circle three with 18 members and one guest, Mrs. Woodson, present. The devotional was led by Mrs. Shull. Mrs. W. F. Powell was leader of the program, and read an interesting story of "A Brazilian Girl." Mrs. George Geer gave a discussion on "Brazil." Mrs. H. L. Stebbins read a news letter from a Missionary in Brazil. The meeting was closed with prayer led by Mrs. E. E. Chalmers.

Starting Wednesday evening, Oct. 14 a review of the home Mission Book will be held at the church for three consecutive evenings.

CLUB HOSTESS THURSDAY

Mrs. W. H. Baxter, Jr., was hostess to the Thursday Bridge club. High score favor was presented to Mrs. Phil Dixon. Club members present were Mesdames Porter Davis, Phil Dixon, Carl Moeller, W. F. Powell, N. V. Stewart. Guests of the club were Mesdames T. L. Smith, and C. W. Schmedes.

FRIENDSHIP CLASS PLANS PLAY, PARTY

The Friendship class of the Methodist Sunday school met Thursday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hughes with Mrs. Hughes and Mrs. Chas. Potts as hostesses.

The early part of the evening was devoted to business of the class, during which time plans were made to give a play with Mrs. Wilkinson, Mrs. Wm. Hughes and Dr. E. B. Baker being appointed on the play committee. Mr. Scott was elected as assistant teacher, and plans were also made for a Halloween party the latter part of the month.

The business meeting was followed by a social hour spent in playing eighty-four. At the close of the evening it was found that Rev. C. Schell held low score and Mrs. Crockett high and the class took this occasion to present them with a pound shower that had been prepared for them.

Thirty six members were present who enjoyed the hospitality of the hostesses.

ILLUSTRATED TALK GIVEN ON SHRUBS

The Lone Star club gathered at the home of Mrs. Charles Pierson Thursday afternoon for their demonstration meeting. Mrs. Gladys Dowling, the new demonstration agent, met with the club for the first time and gave a very interesting illustrated talk on native shrubs. Mrs. W. W. Wilson also gave a fine talk on native screening shrubs and vines. Mrs. Earl Grass made a report of the council meeting which was held at McAllen Saturday.

Mrs. Pierson served sandwiches, jelly, cherry pie and iced tea at the close of the meeting. Twenty four members responded to roll call by giving the name of a plant suitable for screening purposes. Mrs. Odum and Mrs. Gates of Rollo were guests of the club. Next meeting, October 23rd, will be with Mrs. Gentis.

A TENNIS K. O.

LONDON.—Two women were engaged in a tennis game. They were jealous rivals and although they had refused repeatedly to play against one another, drew each other in a singles match. One of the players gradually drew ahead of the other. Then she won the game. Afterward they went into the dressing room. In there the loser of the game picked a fight with the winner and knocked her out.
