The Notable Features of Yesterday's Races.

President Erik Winsch.

The latest event of the season—The rich $10,000 Race held at the Salt Lake City Race Track.

Advertisements in the Salt Lake Herald, yesterday, illustrate the fact that the feature of the day was the $10,000 Race. This is the richest prize for hand-pulling ever offered in this city, and it attracted a large number of entries.

The track was filled with spectators, and the stands were crowded with people. The weather was pleasant, and the sun shone brightly, which added to the enjoyment of the day.

The race was won by a horse named "The Leader," trained by Mr. John R. Brown, of the Ogden race track. "The Leader" won easily, and the crowd gave him a hearty cheer.

The second horse was "The Pioneer," trained by Mr. William Smith, of Salt Lake City. This horse also did well, and came in second.

The third horse was "The Champion," trained by Mr. John Johnson, of Ogden. This horse did not do well, and came in third.

The race was watched with great interest, and the crowd gave a hearty cheer to the victors. The race was over in a short time, and the horses were taken off the track.

The owner of "The Leader," Mr. John R. Brown, was very pleased with the result of the race. He said that he would be happy to accept the prize money, and that he would use it to improve his farm.

The owner of "The Pioneer," Mr. William Smith, was also pleased with the result of the race. He said that he would be happy to accept the prize money, and that he would use it to improve his farm.

The owner of "The Champion," Mr. John Johnson, was not pleased with the result of the race. He said that he would not accept the prize money, and that he would use it to improve his farm.
