TWO DIVORCE SUITS

Wives Who Alleged Their Husbands Failed to Support Them.

MONK'S TRIAL PROCEEDING

THE STATE RESTS IN THE PROSECUTION FOR PERJURY.

Verdict For the Defendant In Ayers vs. the Consolidated Implement Company—E. A. Bigley Sentenced to Two Years For Forgery—Supreme Court Reverses the District Court In Detroit Heating Company vs. Sidney Stevens—Miscellaneous Cullings.

Eva Spruell has entered suit for divorce from Frank Spruell, alleging that the marriage took place at Fort Bayard, N. M., on July 7, 1895, and that ever since the defendant has failed and willfully neglected to provide his wife with the common necessaries of life, but, on the contrary, has spent his time and money in gambling and in the society of lewd women.

Supreme Court Opinion.

An opinion was yesterday handed down by the state supreme court in the case of the Detroit Heating & Lighting company, appellant, vs. Sidney Stevens, reversing the judgment of the lower court and granting a new trial.

The plaintiff sued to recover $418.52, balance of the purchase price of a certain heater supplied. The defendant alleged the heater was defective, and claimed $2,721.48 damages. The court below found for the defendant in the sum of $1,627.47, the amount with interest which the defendant had paid to the plaintiff on account of the apparatus. The defendant, upon the trial, elected to rely upon a rescission of the contract. The opinion says that after a contract has been recognized and acted upon by the parties to it, the law does not favor a rescission of one of the parties and the forfeiture of the rights of the other, and after a consideration of the judgment of the lower court with respect to the facts, their honors find that the judgment should be reversed and a new trial granted.

The opinion was written by Chief Justice Zane and concurred in by Justices Bartch and Miner.

Monk's Trial Proceeding.

The trial of ex-Mining Recorder James T. Monk on the charge of perjury was resumed yesterday morning before Judge Norrell. Quite a good deal of time was consumed in getting a jury satisfactory to both sides. Finally the following were accepted and sworn to try the case: P. W. Madsen, George M. Spencer, Charles H. Linck, Edward Martin, John R. Oswald, M. P. Wells, C. B. Durst and T. O. Paulton.

The charge against Monk is that he testified under oath that he had delivered the records of the office of mining recorder of the Big Cottonwood mining district to some miners at Argenta, and that, therefore, he could not comply with the order of the court to turn the records over to the county recorder, when in truth and in fact Monk had the records in his own possession.

C. B. Felt, Miss Florence Hartley, John W. Pike, Fred W. Little, W. F. James, A. J. Burt, J. C. Jensen, John H. Dyer and A. G. Dyer were examined for the state, which rested its case, and Monk, the first witness for the defense, was on the stand when court adjourned until today.

Ashworth vs. Ashworth.

Louise Edwards Ashworth is suing for a divorce from John William Edwards Ashworth. According to the allegations of the complaint, the parties intermarried in Chicago on June 16, 1891, and the defendant, who is commonly known in Salt Lake under the name of "Billy Edwards," it is alleged, refuses to engage in any avocation or to do any work, and for more than three years has contributed nothing to the support of his wife.

Mrs. Ashworth prays for a decree of divorce and that she be restored to her maiden name of Louise Esmay.

Insane Hearing.

Mrs. Dora Dow had a hearing yesterday before Deputy Clerk of the Probate Court Blair touching her sanity. The examination was made by County Physician Anderson and Dr. Wright, and it was determined that she was not in her right mind; but her parents, who reside in Vermont, are desirous that she go to them, and on the understanding that she be taken there under the care of Mrs. Perkins, she was discharged. The probate court appointed A. F. Lawson guardian of her estate, which is valued at about $1,700, mostly in cash. The guardian's bond was fixed at $3,500.

Federal Court.

A foreclosure suit was filed in the federal court yesterday by S. H. Shaver of Cedar Rapids, Ia., against Lewis P. Kelsey, James K. and Kate R. Gillespie, Elijah Whitaker and the Salt Lake Realty company. The latter two are made parties to the action by reason of their claiming to be judgment creditors of the defendants. The suit is for the recovery of a debt of $22,000.

In the case of the Crown Point Mining company vs. the Ontario Mining company, the plaintiff yesterday filed a demurrer to part of the answer and a motion to strike out certain allegations of the answer.

Verdict For the Defendant.

The suit of the F. C. Ayers Mercantile company vs. the Consolidated Implement company, the trial of which was begun on Wednesday, reached the jury late yesterday afternoon and a verdict for the defendant was returned. The plaintiff sued to recover $620 damages for alleged breach of contract.

Two Years For Bigley.

E. A. Bigley, who was found guilty of forgery on Monday last, was brought in for sentence and Judge Norrell ordered that he be confined in the state prison for a period of two years.

Short Orders.

Stephen Hunter vs. Charles A. Lawson et al.; dismissed upon stipulation.

Salt Lake Fruit & Produce company vs. David Blackhurst et al.; attachment dissolved and suit dismissed.

George A. Lowe vs. George O. Noble et al.; judgment for plaintiff by default for $1,406.40 and costs.

Jurors Jesse C. Little and T. A. Wickersham were each fined $1.50 for tardiness.

WIRE NAIL COMBINATION.

Old Plan Abandoned and Another In Contemplation.

Chicago, March 10.—The plan of the large wire nail companies in the country to form a trust has been abandoned, and instead of a great combine, several of the concerns which were the leaders in the movement to form a trust, have decided to form a combination of their own and to leave the others on the outside.

The capital stock of the combination will be $24,000,000, of which $12,000,000 will be preferred and $12,000,000 common stock.

OGDEN BUREAU.

Business and Editorial Office 524 Utah Loan and Trust Building. Telephone 298.

Ogden, March 11.

Conferred With Dickinson.

An informal conference was held yesterday morning between General Manager Edward Dickinson of the Union Pacific and representatives of the city government and of the Weber club of Ogden. Mr. Dickinson received the delegation, consisting of Mayor Boyle, T. E. Browning and L. W. Shurtliff, in his private car and discussed railroad matters for some time. In regard to the matter of removing the Cheyenne shops to Ogden, Mr. Dickinson said the matter of the Cheyenne shops had not yet been taken up officially, but that as soon as the subject is reached, the committee will be notified and the railroad people will be ready and anxious to listen to a proposition from Ogden on the subject.

District Court.

Judge Bolapp made orders yesterday as follows:

Ogden State bank vs. R. J. Hill et al.; the names of F. A. Shields and J. P. Frodsham having been inadvertently entered as attorneys for defendants, their appearance was stricken out.

David H. Peery vs. James M. Thomas et al.; plaintiff granted judgment of foreclosure as prayed.

David H. Peery vs. L. B. Adams et al.; judgment of forechosure granted as prayed.

At the Theatre.

The Bittner company put on "Rip Van Winkle" last night at the Grand, to the great delight of about the largest audience since the crush of Monday night. Bittner's plays, players, and, above all, Bittner's telegraph pictures, appeal to all sections of the house. The plays for the rest of the week are: Tonight, "My Mother;" Saturday afternoon, "The Country Girl;" Saturday night, "Charley's Aunt."

The Saunders Case.

The suit of P. V. Saunders for $25,000 damages against the Southern Pacific, was not completed yesterday. The arguments will be finished this morning.

Ogden Briefs.

J. Q. Barlow was up from Salt Lake yesterday.

J. C. Armstrong went west yesterday morning on business.

Mrs. W. A. Hodgman of Hailey, Ida., is visiting Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Bruce and Mrs. E. A. McDaniel in Ogden.

The social given last night for the benefit of the Free Kindergarten association at the home of Hon. William Driver was attended by a very large crowd and was successful in every way.

Yesterday a child about three years old named George Smith, wandered from its home at 2451 Jefferson avenue, and after roaming for several hours, turned up at the corner of Thirtieth and Grant.

At the site of the sugar factory the rock foundations are being laid. Yesterday a fine flow of water was struck in the artesian well which the company has been boring. The flow averages about 40 gallons a minute and was struck at a depth of 265 feet.

Clem Martin had a cart demolished yesterday afternoon about 4 o'clock. He, with three men, were occupying the vehicle, and in turning the corner of Twenty-fifth and Grant a wheel gave way, spilling the occupants. The horse was soon stopped, and no one injured.

The passenger engine drawing the Union Pacific out of Ogden a little after 8 this morning broke a driving rod a little this side of the Riverdale crossing. The broken rod whipped around pretty lively for a little while but no one was hurt. A new engine was promptly attached to the train.

The remains of the late Philip A. Maguire were brought home from San Francisco yesterday and were laid to rest, the services being held at the family residence on Adams avenue. A large number of his old friends were in attendance. His wife came down from Boulder, Mont., to attend the services.

CLIPPERTON ISLAND.

Dispute Between Mexico and a California Company.

San Francisco, March 10.—The Call says: The Mexican government will attempt to compel the Oceanic Phosphate company to pay an indemnity of $1,500,000 for unlawfully shipping guano from Clipperton island, in the Pacific ocean. Although the Mexican government claims the ownership of this island and presumes to the right to demand this indemnity for the foreign encroachment upon its territory, the phosphate company is equally convinced that it has as much right to the island as the Mexicans.

GAMBLING CRAZE IN BUSINESS.

Remarkable Scenes Over the Floatation of a London Scheme.

London, March 10.—The floatation of the joint stock company which is to take over the business here of Sir Thomas Johnstone Tipton, provision, tea and coffee merchant, fruit preserver, etc., closed at 4 p. m. today. Tenders were made to the amount of over £25,000,000 for the £2,500,000 asked, of which sum Tipton, for himself, the directors and his friends, retained £1,-250,000.

The floatation is pronounced to be the most sensational ever launched. There was an extraordinary rush of people who knew nothing about the affairs of the company. The "tip" had been generally circulated, however, that it was a "good gamble," and the craze extended to the West End, where ladies of title, officers and public men were among the people who besieged Sir Thomas Tipton, imploring him to take their money. Extraordinary scenes were witnessed at the Bank of Scotland, where the lists were opened.

The police had to regulate the crowds.

AT ALL HALLOWS.

Distinguished Prelate Preaches the Annual Retreat to Students.

Rev. Dr. Ring, formerly superior of the Oblate Fathers at Inchicore, Ireland, is visiting Salt Lake, and the students at All Hallows are getting much benefit from his presence.

Dr. Ring is a noted theologian and stands high as a pulpit orater and a writer. He has been engaged in missionary work for 30 years and is a prominent figure in his church.

Dr. Ring has consented to preach the annual retreat discourses to the students of All Hallows, and the first was delivered yesterday morning. He was listened to with intense interest by the entire student body, and will speak again today and Saturday, closing Sunday morning.

EXCURSION TO BINGHAM.

Via Rio Grande Western Railway.

Special train to Bingham Saturday, March 12, the occasion being the glove contest between Morris Jacobs, the Midget Sandow, and Jack Smith, of Bingham. Tickets on sale at Rio Grand Western ticket office, $2 round trip including admission to contest. Special train will leave Salt Lake at 7 p. m., returning after contest.
