NOTICE! THE MEMBERS OF THE STATE DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEE, STATE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE AND THE DEMOCRATIC MEMBERS OF THE STATE LEGISLATURE ARE REQUESTED TO MEET AT THE KNIGHTS HOTEL MONDAY AFTERNOON, AT 2 O'CLOCK.

What is the ground for intervention? The island of Cuba. There was wind enough yesterday to fill everybody's sails.

The report of the board of inquiry has been made, but the public hasn't heard the report. If Spain is going to rely on diplomacy it was a gauche to start the torpedo boat flotilla westward.

"What is Reed's game?" asks a Chicago paper. Congress is his meat, no matter what his game may be. Some think it is necessary to put the army on a war footing in order to keep the country on a peace footing.

Governor Hastings of Pennsylvania is sanguine of peace. This shows that he is not of a sanguinary nature. How fortunate for President McKinley that, at this really critical juncture, he has no Prime Russell on his hands.

There are strong symptoms that Senator Mason is about to pass from a state of subsidence into one of eruption. The anxiety of suspense over the contents of the board of inquiry report will be over by Monday. Surely that is not long to wait.

Edmund Clarence Stedman has been chosen poet of the Greater New York election. His theme has bigness, if not poetic quality. Tolstoi threatens to tell all he knows about women before he dies. He probably thinks he knows far more about them than he does.

The Provo Enquirer wants the silver Republicans to "come back into the fold." How it draws all its metaphors from the sheep industry. Senator Thurston's declaration that he is opposed to the annexation of Cuba is one that should meet with general approval; and it doubtless will.

THE MAINE DISASTER REPORT.

The board of inquiry appointed to investigate the cause of the Maine disaster has completed its work and rendered its report, which is now in the hands of the president.

The report of the board of inquiry has been made, but the public hasn't heard the report. The report of the board of inquiry has been made, but the public hasn't heard the report.

A SOUTHERN VIEW OF NATIONAL QUARANTINE. The Houston (Tex.) Post is strongly opposed to the bill to establish national quarantine.

AN ABSURD PRETENSION. After taking the view that war is sometimes the best experience a nation can have, the New York Commercial Advertiser says:

A GREAT UNIVERSITY IN DISTRESS. The Johns Hopkins University has fallen upon evil days; it is sadly lacking in funds and the legislature of Maryland has refused to provide them.

The Indianapolis Sentinel says it seems that ex-President Harrison, after denouncing the tax dodgers of the country, has been neglecting to pay up his taxes on two dogs ever since last June.

New York society is having a doll show this week. All New York society seems to live in a doll's house. How strange that the possession of wealth and leisure should lead so many to devote all their time to idle follies when there is so much to be done to advance the cause of humanity and civilization.

COMMENTS BY THE PRESS.

Denver Republican: If the United States must meet Cuba and Cuba for the Cuban victims of Spain's barbarity, why should Cuba longer be harbored by a chivalrous government?

St. Louis Globe-Democrat: New York has decided not to spend $500,000 celebrating the consolidation of the different cities now made one.

Pittsburg Dispatch: Senator Chandler's heroic address regarding Spain's conduct toward Cuba, even if it recedes into the oblivion of the past, will not cause any such contingency either.

Springville Independent: Spain's objection to the board of inquiry report should be disregarded, and the report crammed down her throat with bayonets.

Brooklyn Life: Nerve-The Elder-SO you want to marry my daughter, eh? The younger you ought to, sir, I've been three months working it up.

Chicago Post: "Is there a long-distance telephone around here?" asked the stranger.

Brooklyn Life: He-Every time I have been on the Long Island Sound, I have seen you, I have seen you, I have seen you.

Washington Capital: Mason is a sort of "man-of-war" market. A recent cluster about him has the firm feeling of a landmine.

Chicago Post: "Is there a long-distance telephone around here?" asked the stranger.

WINDS OF GOD.

With the northeast wind the sail is left to fight as an armed man. The joy of combat is ours at last, and with the wind we are at the helm.

But, oh, the whirling southwest wind, all dewy with latest rains. From the south the forest beneath is smothered with passerine chains.

A Clever Trick. It certainly looks like it, but there is really no trick about it. Anybody can see it with his eyes.

Logan Journal: During his course of lectures delivered before the various educational institutes of the state, President McKinley's determination to feed the starving Cubans, even if it recedes into the oblivion of the past, will not cause any such contingency either.

Upham Enterprises: Many prominent silver Republicans are expressing themselves in the most violent manner in this county. They say they intend voting and supporting the Democratic ticket.

Price Advocate: Hanna is quoted as having said that McKinley was a peevish man. It is possible that in the transmission of this statement of news that the operator was "copying behind."
