State Committeemen Will Meet Him at Ogden.

OBJECT OF HIS TRIP HERE
HE IS SEEKING INFORMATION AS TO THE CONDITIONS.

Forecast of the Campaign This Fall—Candidates for the Various Offices—Justice Zane's Successor—Whitcomb May Take the Field if Rejected by McKinley—Comment of the State Press Upon the Conditions in This City.

Senator White will arrive in this city on Sunday morning early. He will be met at Ogden by members of the state committee, and on his arrival here will be escorted to the Knutsford, where he will make his headquarters.

The senator visits this state in his capacity as chairman of the Democratic congressional committee, and he will be here for the purpose of finding out what the prospects of the Democracy are in this state with reference to the coming congressional elections.

The issue of the Standard of last Saturday says that no one can ever find an entrance in either that paper or the Tribune against a plank in the platform of the Republican party in Utah.

The Non-Partisan Failure
Tintie Miner: Non-partisanship is undoubtedly not a success in Salt Lake City.

POLITICAL MIX-UP
In connection with matters relating to politics this fall, the Tribune seems to have arranged matters so that the Democrats will have nothing to do but go to the polls and vote.

GIVEN BY MRS. CHRISTENSEN AND MISS BELLE DEWEY.

The Marriage of Miss Mary E. Harker and Mr. Seymour B. Curtis—L. D. S. College Ball—At Unity Hall—In Honor of Gaudeilo Brown—Local Notes.

A PRECIOUS PAIR
Tribune and Standard Make a Great Combination.

Tintie Miner: The Salt Lake Tribune and the Ogden Standard are at last finding themselves together and are celebrating themselves in their mutual stand for what they are pleased to call "true Republicanism, bimetalism, protection and reciprocity."

The issue of the Standard of last Saturday says that no one can ever find an entrance in either that paper or the Tribune against a plank in the platform of the Republican party in Utah.

The Non-Partisan Failure
Tintie Miner: Non-partisanship is undoubtedly not a success in Salt Lake City. During the late campaign much talk was indulged in by the organs of the non-partisan scheme about "booblers" to reward, no party favoring to recognize.

AMUSEMENTS
For the first time since real darkeys began giving exhibitions on the theatre stage, and they began at a time so far back that the memory of man runneth not to the contrary.

The marriage of Miss Mary E. Harker and Mr. Seymour B. Curtis occurred on Thursday at Taylorville. The ceremony was performed by Rev. H. E. Bennett, pastor of the Zion Lutheran church.

THE MANY ATTEMPTS TO DENY SAME
An attempt is made by a morning paper here to show there is no deal on for the leasing of gardled beach by the Salt Lake people.
