Dr. R. V. Pierce of Buffalo, N. Y., has made a life-study of the problem of restoring health and strength to women. His "Favorite Prescription" is the most successful remedy that has ever been known for women's peculiar ailments. Its sale exceeds the combined sales of all other medicines for women. It cures the most obstinate uterine diseases. It restores vitality to the internal organism which is the real seat of all the troubles. It imparts vigor and health where they are most needed; heals ulcers of the stomach, restores the drains; promotes regularity; restores muscular power to the ligaments; thus corrects displacements of special organs in the only natural way.

In the Social Realm

The days of the past week were brightened by innumerable teas, receptions, lake parties and bicycle rides, while the coming week also promises much amusement for followers of the gay world.

For the present all social gaiety is centered in the city, and while preparations are being made for visits at the various fashionable resorts, the annual regatta will not commence before the first of the August days.

One of the unique features of the coming Jubilee will be the appearance of the sun-bonnet of '47 which will be worn by the residents as a badge of citizenship. The followers of society are very enthusiastic over the idea and in many cases the gowns of that period will also be donned.

The Fourth of July tea given by Mr. and Mrs. Moylan C. Fox in honor of Mrs. Canfield of Chicago was the most elaborate affair of the past week. The stars and stripes formed a striking background for the decorations which were in the national colors throughout. The hostess' gown was an effective combination in the same colors while the guests wore small blouses and sashes in red, white and blue.

In the dining room the tables were covered with scarlet poppies, white sweet peas and larkspur and ornamented with parlor flowers in strange devices.

Later in the evening a guessing game was enjoyed by the guests, prizes being won by Mrs. George A. Lowe and Mrs. Albert F. Holden.

Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. George A. Lowe, Mr. and Mrs. Albert F. Holden, Mr. and Mrs. George F. Downey, Mrs. Canfield, Miss Harkness, Miss Ida Harkness, Miss Lowe, Miss Edna Shearman, Miss Helen Shearman, Miss Jessie Fox, Miss Edna Shearman, Mrs. Wantland, Mr. D. C. Adams, Mr. Tengerast and Mr. Lawrence Fox.

Miss Durant is the guest of Miss Shearman.

Miss Nason on Thursday afternoon. The invited guests were Mrs. Albert F. Holden, Mrs. George F. Downey, Mrs. Robert Walker, Mrs. Charles Post, Mrs. Bidwell, Miss Wallace, Miss Shearman, Miss Durant, Miss Lowe, Miss Cone, Miss Young, Mrs. William Reid, Miss Edna Shearman, Miss Harkness, Miss Ida Harkness, Miss Thorn, Miss McCornick, Miss Burke, Miss Williams, Miss Eloise Sherman.

Mr. and Mrs. Brigham Young are expected home from Soda Springs tomorrow.

Miss Rita Hirsch of Philadelphia is the guest of Mrs. Sol Siegel.

Miss Campbell of Kansas City is visiting Mrs. Connell.

Mr. Herbert Tuttle is a guest at "The Porches."

Mrs. Cole of Des Moines spent a few days in the city last week as the guest of Mrs. Hovi Sherman.

Mrs. J. Ford Kent of Fort Donnell entertained at tea Thursday evening.

Mrs. Hoyt Sherman entertained Mrs. Matthews and Miss Matthews of Pittsburgh on Thursday.

within the next two weeks, and will make their home here.

Lieutenant Augustine of Fort Douglas is entertaining his mother and sister.

Mrs. John Sharp is chaperoning a party of young people at Brighton's.

Miss Hope and Miss Burke are visiting Mrs. Peery of Ogden.

Mr. Will Dimond is expected home from New York this week.

Miss Blanche Burko was the hostess of a very pretty affair Friday afternoon. The young ladies were invited for the afternoon, and were joined by a delectable tea served on the lawn. Those present were Miss McMillan, Miss Beesie Glendinning, Miss Anna Mae McMillan, Miss Edna Sherman, Miss Kate Williams, Miss Edith Noble, Miss Grace Anderson, Miss Esther Freed, Miss Edna Remington, Miss Nellie Doolay, Mr. Miss Varian, Mr. Andrew Duncan, Mr. Bert Wallace, Mr. Charles Walker, Mr. George Wallace, Mr. Orr Cash, Mr. McCune, Mr. Willie McCornick, Mr. Tod Goodwin, Mr. Frank Judge and Mr. Hal Hemstead.

Mr. Jules La Barthe returned yesterday from Denver.

Mrs. Thomas Carter is home again.

Mrs. Keyes has returned from Montana.

Mr. Simon Hazleton has invited a party of bicyclists to ride to Murray, Tuesday afternoon, take dinner and return by moonlight.

Mrs. M. Cohen of St. Louis is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. Eisenman, for the summer. She is accompanied by her sister, Miss Little Cohen of New Orleans.

Mr. David Hanauer left during the week for his home in Germany.

Mr. Willis McCornick has returned from Cornell, and will spend the summer with his parents.

Miss Laura Sherman entertained in honor of her 17th birthday on Wednesday afternoon. The guests numbered 22.

Miss Katherine Anderson has issued invitations for a photograph party Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Frank W. Jennings and Miss Lucille Jennings have invitations out for a large dancing party at Devereaux House Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Hoyt Sherman left last evening for San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. Le Grand Young and Miss Jasmine have gone to New York.

The many friends of Lieutenant and Mrs. Brian Wells will be pleased to learn that they will arrive in the city
