Wisconsin Safely Launched By the Union Iron Works.

DESCRIPTION OF THE VESSEL. A Magnificent Specimen of the Modern Fighting Ship. The battleship Wisconsin, designed in the bureau of construction and repair of the navy department, is a sister ship of the Alahama, building at the Cramp's yard in Philadelphia, and also of the Illinois, building at Newport News.

condition of affairs which must result in a greater interest and development of the crew in their special duties, as now required in a modern battleship, where fighting and all that leads up to thorough efficiency in that line of art, is not handicapped by the constant drudgery so universal in the old-time vessels in our navy.

The height of free board forward of the vessel's hull proper is twenty feet, and at the stern thirteen and one-quarter feet. The floor of the pliot house is forty-five feet high, thus placing the eye of the steersman for ordinary cruising about fifty feet above the water. The sight holes in the conning tower for use in close fighting are thirty-four and one-half feet above the water.

APPROPRIATION BILLS WILL BE PROMPTLY PASSED.

islands would be infinitely worse than military rule. Under military government here is perfect elasticity. Changes can be made to fit new conditions as fast as they arise. A year's delay before attempting permanent legislation would give ample time for the study of all the conditions surrounding the government of the islands, both by the military authorities and by commissions which might be provided by congress. Congress could then, Mr. Cannon says, deal intelligently with the subject.

The grand total of the appropriations for the fiscal year ending July 1, 1899, including all the extraordinary expenses from Jan. 1 to July 1, 1899, is 3892,713.
Gib. There are no figures as yet upon which the appropriations for the coming session of congress can be based, but Mr. Cannon says they will be considerably below the figures for the last congress.

Tariff Laws of the United States to Be Extended to the Islands-Report of the Commission.

Chicago, Nov. 26 .- A special to the Tribune from Washington says: Senator Cullom is preparing the report of the Hawalian commission, and will submit it to the president for transmission to congress, so that it will be ready at the opening of the session.

ready at the opening of the session.

The senator declines to give detalls as to the character of the report, but from other sources it was learned that the report, as finally drafted, will provide for a partial continuance of the present government in the islands, under direct federal supervision. There will be a senate of fifteen members, and a house of double that number, which is an increase on the present der direct federal supervision. There will be graded qualifications of suffrage. Members of the house may be elected by voters who pass an educational test alone, while members of the senate will be chosen by voters possessing both educational and property qualifications. There is now a property qualification for voting in Hawaii, but the proposed form of government will reduce this somewhat, so as to furnish an inducement for small holdings.

will reduce this somewhat, so as to furnish an inducement for small holdings.

There will be educational and property restrictions in regard to the holdings, the qualifications for which will be closely defined.

There will be no "open door" in Hawail. The tariff laws of the United States will be extended to the islands without alteration, because Hawail was formally annexed to the United States by a statute law, and any other course would unquestionably be opposed by the supreme court.

The present supreme court for the islands, whose members hold their place for life, is to be continued, and to be given jurisdiction of local laws, whose force will also be continued, as far as possible, as they have been taken by law from the statute books of different states in the Union, and are, as a whole, quite acceptable.

The immigration, labor and general election laws of the United States will be specifically extended to the islands. These will keep out further inroads of coolies. The islands will be given a delegate in the house of representatives, who will not vote, but will have the same privileges as the representatives of Arizona, New Mexico and Oklahoma. The governor and some of the higher territorial officers will be ap-

THE BATTLESHIP WISCONSIN

Chicago, Nov. 26.—The National Business League today sent to President McKinley a long letter relative to the establishment of a department of commerce and industries. The letter, which is signed by Ferdinand W. Peck, Erskine M. Phelps, A. H. Revell, John W. Fla, E. G. Keith and the other members of the executive committee of the league, urges favorable action on bills for the establishment of the department which are now pending in congress. The letter rays, in part:

"The expansion of our commercial relations, to include many new beobles, living under widely different conditions, seems to deepen the conviction already growing in the minds of our business men that tariff questions are getting to be questions of fact for experts, rather than party politics. We must admit that, whether these questions are in politics or not, a department of commerce and industries might provide facilities through which competent non-partisan experts could make such investigations and reports, before legislation on any contemplated change in a tariff schedule, as would enable congress to take action with comparatively accurate knowledge as to its
