

placed in a good daily newspaper is a valuable adjunct to any business house.

THE LAST SAD RITES

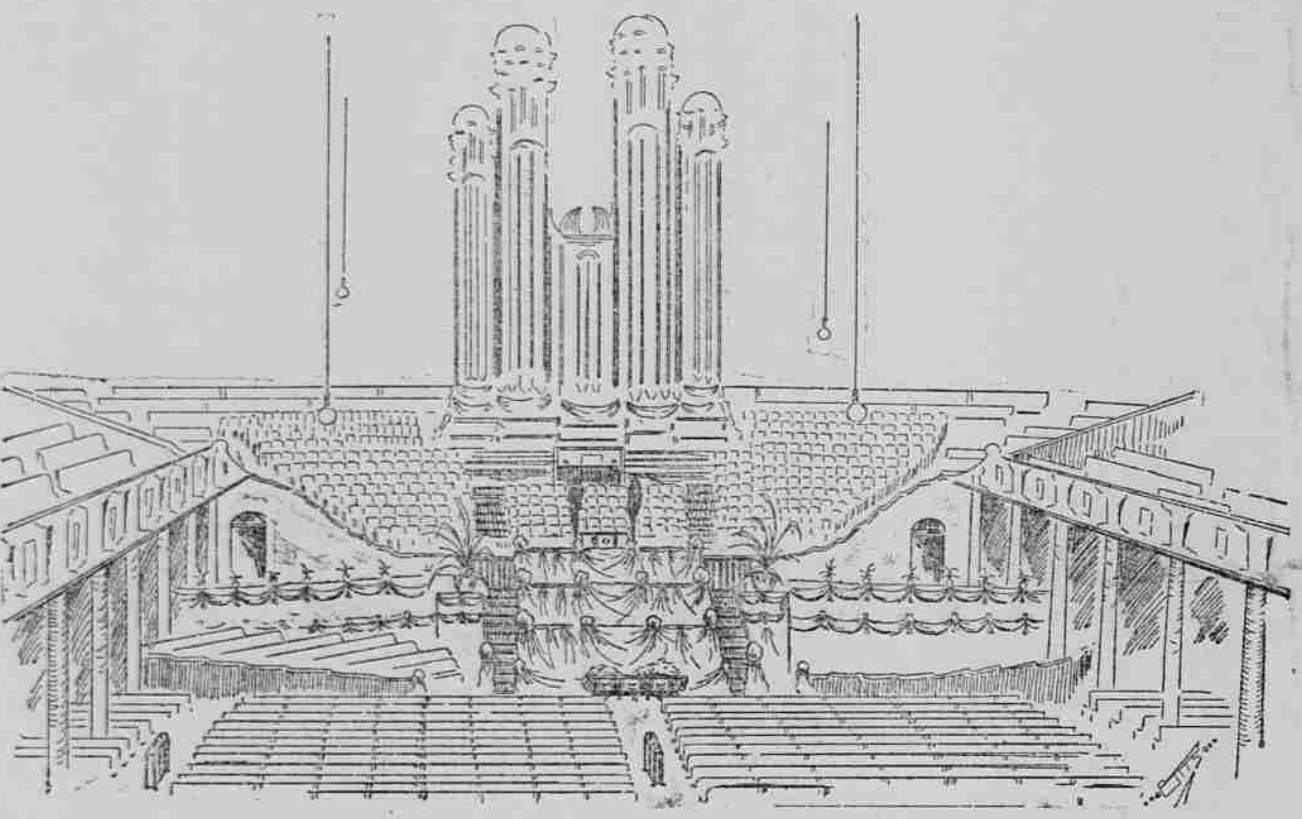

Funeral of the Beloved Apostle Abraham H. Cannon.

THE TABERNACLE CROWDED

Addresses By Presidents Woodruff, Smith and Snow.

The Most Prominent Citizens of the State Present-Largest Gathering Ever Witnessed on Any Similar Occasion...

"Were death denied, even fools would wish to die." The services at the funeral of the late Apostle Abraham H. Cannon...

INTERIOR OF THE TABERNACLE, From Photo By the Johnson Company.

were such as to impress on those who heard them that death is not the hideous, awfully-to-be-dreaded monster which it is generally portrayed, and which it is usually conceived to be by the human mind.

Among the audience were the close relatives, those bound to Abraham H. Cannon by the nearest and dearest ties; there were his close associates in church work, socially and in business.

The respect in which Apostle Cannon was held by the people generally, both Mormons and Gentiles, was well attested by the numbers of the most prominent citizens of all creeds and conditions who attended his funeral.

The services were exceedingly beautiful, and yet simple; in their simplicity lay in great measure their beauty. The speakers were all high dignitaries in the church, and their remarks were deservedly eloquent of the departed brother.

The floral tributes heaped upon and around the casket were numerous and passing beautiful. Four large pieces were sent by the family, the gates ajar, an anchor, a pillar and other appropriate devices, one marked "Apostle." By far the largest and most costly piece was from the Bullion-Beck Mining company, of which Mr. Cannon was a director.

non was a director. It was made by the Reading Floral company from a design brought from Denver, and represented a broken tree or column made of a solid mass of white roses and city pink blossoms. It was about five feet high and rested on an ample base of roses and moss.

FRIENDS ONLY VIEW THE REMAINS.

The remains were on view at the residence at Eighth West and Ninth South streets from 11 a. m. to 12 noon for the family and intimate friends only.

The casket was carried in by the pall bearers, Apostles Tenside, John Henry Smith, Brigham Young, W. W. Merrill, Heber J. Grant, F. W. Lyman, F. D. Richards and John W. Taylor, and President Joseph F. Smith, and placed on the sacrament table.

H. Cannon, during the many years that he has been bearing the testimony to the truth—both while on missions to other lands and during his apostleship—maintain appropriately have repeated that immortal prayer of the Psalmist David: "Know me; understand my ways."

David, in those days, it would seem, was right in his mind and heart to ward God, and he was not afraid to be searched by him who knoweth all things. I am told by the father of him who lies before us that there was not a single word or a single deed that he ever uttered or performed that created the least disturbance or occasioned the least unpleasantness with his father.

In the beginning, we are told, God sent a man into the world in order to prove him and see whether he would obey the Lord in all things, whatsoever he saw fit to command him.

Jeremiah of old. He was a good man and a great man. He was a wonderful man, and his power came in consequence of the gifts of God, and the blessings of heaven that were upon him.

So with Apostle Cannon. He always acknowledged that the wisdom we so much admired when we heard his voice in this hall came from God, as did the other great gifts he possessed.

There is no need to mourn. Grief on an occasion like this may after all arise a little from a selfish feeling. I look around and see the vacancy he has left, and I say, where are we going to find an individual who can represent fully Abraham H. Cannon?

I rejoice in Brother Cannon because he was a good man. He was also a great man. Many men are good without being great.

May God's blessing rest upon you, God bless you that you may emulate this glorious example that has been given us by Brother Cannon.

The venerable President Woodruff who, notwithstanding his weight of nearly 90 years, looked hale and vigor-

IRON MILLS WILL RESUME

Ten Thousand Idle Men Will Again Carry Their Dinner Pails.

TODAY THE BEGINNING

Great Success of the Amalgamated Association.

Men Employed in Non-Union Mills Will Also Receive Most Substantial Benefits—A List of the Big Firms Signing the Agreement For Which the Wage-Earners Have Contended.

PITTSBURG, Pa., July 26.—Tomorrow will occur the beginning of the resumption of the iron mills, which will soon put to work at least ten thousand idle men.

The success of the amalgamated association in making the wage settlement it has effected means, too, that the men employed in non-union mills will get an advance in their wages and that their employers will sign agreements to pay them the union prices.

WHAT HE BELIEVES.

It Would Take Much Less Space to Tell What He Actually Knows. KANSAS CITY, July 26.—L. C. Krohoff, who went to Chicago to attend the conference of gold standard Democrats, returned to this city. It is said in connection with his return, that as soon as possible, probably Monday, a conference of gold standard Democrats will be held to call a mass meeting for some night this week.

MORE OR LESS PROMINENT

local Democrat, yesterday mailed copies of the following letter to prominent Democrats of this city: "I do not believe in the unlimited coinage of gold and silver at the ratio of 16 to 1. I do not believe that the unlimited coinage of both metals will double the value of silver and make it worth as much as 32 ounces of silver by simply saying so any more than it can make six inches as long as one foot by saying so."

At the mass meeting to be held next week there will be speeches by prominent Democrats. Fred W. Lehmann, the St. Louis attorney, will probably be one of the speakers. Mr. Lehmann stumped the state for the Democratic party in the campaign four years ago.

TOLD ON A TRAMP.

A Brute in Kansas Who Came Very Nearly Being Lynched. McPHERSON, Kan., July 26.—The sheriff of this county has gone to Canaan, four miles north, on telegraph summons, to prevent the lynching of a tramp, whom 100 enraged citizens threatened to hang up for assaulting Mrs. Frank Oldfield, a farmer's wife.

CALAMITY HOWLE R.S.

Bryan's Nomination By the Populists Causes an Alleged Scare in London. LONDON, July 26.—The action of the bankers in checking gold exports, together with the unceasing issues of new companies and the coming Russian loan combine, have kept money rates fairly steady.

YOUNG, BUT TOUGH.

He Holds the Deputies at Bay With a Shotgun. ST. JOSEPH, Mo., July 26.—John Toms, a youthful desperado of this city, is at large in the vicinity of Dearborn. He has caused the officers of that town some small amount of trouble, a number of deputy sheriffs having put in a solid week hunting for him.

IN FAVOR OF RHODES.

LONDON, July 26.—The correspondent of the Times at Cape Town says that a crowded and enthusiastic meeting has been held in favor of the reinstatement of Cecil Rhodes as managing director of the British Chartered South African company, but that most of the leading and influential people of the colony were absent from the meeting.

investments. Gas and water companies, breweries and hotels all showed an upward movement. Mines were very inactive and drooping. The nomination by the Populist convention of Mr. Bryan caused too late to affect the market, but will probably cause a further fall next week.

"NO COMPROMISE."

The Ultimatum Issued By the Striking Tailors in New York.

NEW YORK, July 26.—An old day meeting was held by the striking tailors of this city in Wallhalla hall. Addresses were made by a number of leaders and the situation was generally discussed.

INDEX OF TODAY'S IMPORTANT NEWS

- PAGE ONE. Funeral of Apostle Cannon. Bryan's Dispute to Jones. Iron Mills Will Resume. PAGE TWO. Watson Will Not Withdraw. Colorado Floods. PAGE THREE. In the Mining World. Populist State Central Committee Resigns. Republican Headquarters. PAGE FOUR. Importance of Congressional Elections. PAGE FIVE. The Live Stock Market. Funeral of Dr. Benedict. Fraternal Societies. PAGE SEVEN. Floods in the South. Cache County Summer School. Ogden News Notes. PAGE EIGHT. The City's Water Supply. Thieves May Be Respired. At the Resorts.

IT IS A BAD ONE.

A PREACHER'S WIFE WITH A TONGUE MOST UNRULY.

Talked So Much That the Old Man Lost His Position, and the Reverend Asks to Be Freed.

KANSAS CITY, July 26.—Rev. Joshua A. Smith has filed a petition in the circuit court at Independence, a suburb, asking a divorce from his wife, Nannie Smith, and her marriage at Stillwater, Mo., in April 1895.

FOREIGN CROPS.

LONDON, July 26.—The weather has been warm, with occasional showers. Harvesting is in progress in all the southern countries. The crop promise to be unusually large and of fine quality.

THE DIAMOND.

Enlivened By a Fight. CINCINNATI, July 26.—Cleveland could not hit Foreman and by some very questionable fielding allowed the Reds to score enough runs to win a dozen such games.

Was Sun-Blinded.

CHICAGO, July 26.—A hit by Daily in the last inning, that should have been an out, was turned into triple because of the burning sun blinding Decker and was hit by Cleveland from a shut out.

Unable to Bunch.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., July 26.—The Senators were unable to bunch their hits on Hill today and a little stupid base running in the first inning lost them the game.

Orioles Touched Him.

ST. LOUIS, July 26.—Quinn and Jennings carried off the honors in today's game, according every chance "Brett" had in the air in the fifth and the Orioles touched him up for five runs.

Unable to Bunch.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., July 26.—The Senators were unable to bunch their hits on Hill today and a little stupid base running in the first inning lost them the game.

IN FAVOR OF RHODES.

LONDON, July 26.—The correspondent of the Times at Cape Town says that a crowded and enthusiastic meeting has been held in favor of the reinstatement of Cecil Rhodes as managing director of the British Chartered South African company, but that most of the leading and influential people of the colony were absent from the meeting.

is frequently asked by your neighbor or friend. Subscribe for The Herald and find out what's in a newspaper.

SUBSTANCE OF BRYAN'S DISPATCH

It is Given Out By One Who Alleges He Read the Document.

WILL STAND ON THE CHICAGO PLATFORM

Free Silver Overshadows Every Other Issue Now Presented.

There is No Better Friend of Bimetallism Than Arthur Sewall, and He Has Defended the Great Cause in a Section Where Such Action Required Far More Courage and Ability Than in the West and the South—A Manly Declaration.

CHICAGO, July 26.—Among those who returned from St. Louis today, was a gentleman who saw and read the suppressed dispatch from Mr. Bryan to Senator Jones, chairman of the national committee. He possesses a fair memory, and gives the following as the substance of the document about which there was so much talk and excitement during the last day of the Populist convention.

INDEX OF TODAY'S IMPORTANT NEWS

- PAGE ONE. Funeral of Apostle Cannon. Bryan's Dispute to Jones. Iron Mills Will Resume. PAGE TWO. Watson Will Not Withdraw. Colorado Floods. PAGE THREE. In the Mining World. Populist State Central Committee Resigns. Republican Headquarters. PAGE FOUR. Importance of Congressional Elections. PAGE FIVE. The Live Stock Market. Funeral of Dr. Benedict. Fraternal Societies. PAGE SEVEN. Floods in the South. Cache County Summer School. Ogden News Notes. PAGE EIGHT. The City's Water Supply. Thieves May Be Respired. At the Resorts.

IT IS A BAD ONE.

A PREACHER'S WIFE WITH A TONGUE MOST UNRULY.

Talked So Much That the Old Man Lost His Position, and the Reverend Asks to Be Freed.

KANSAS CITY, July 26.—Rev. Joshua A. Smith has filed a petition in the circuit court at Independence, a suburb, asking a divorce from his wife, Nannie Smith, and her marriage at Stillwater, Mo., in April 1895.

FOREIGN CROPS.

LONDON, July 26.—The weather has been warm, with occasional showers. Harvesting is in progress in all the southern countries. The crop promise to be unusually large and of fine quality.

THE DIAMOND.

Enlivened By a Fight. CINCINNATI, July 26.—Cleveland could not hit Foreman and by some very questionable fielding allowed the Reds to score enough runs to win a dozen such games.

Was Sun-Blinded.

CHICAGO, July 26.—A hit by Daily in the last inning, that should have been an out, was turned into triple because of the burning sun blinding Decker and was hit by Cleveland from a shut out.

Unable to Bunch.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., July 26.—The Senators were unable to bunch their hits on Hill today and a little stupid base running in the first inning lost them the game.

Orioles Touched Him.

ST. LOUIS, July 26.—Quinn and Jennings carried off the honors in today's game, according every chance "Brett" had in the air in the fifth and the Orioles touched him up for five runs.

Unable to Bunch.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., July 26.—The Senators were unable to bunch their hits on Hill today and a little stupid base running in the first inning lost them the game.

IN FAVOR OF RHODES.

LONDON, July 26.—The correspondent of the Times at Cape Town says that a crowded and enthusiastic meeting has been held in favor of the reinstatement of Cecil Rhodes as managing director of the British Chartered South African company, but that most of the leading and influential people of the colony were absent from the meeting.