WAYS OF CARRYING MONEY
Englishman and American Usually Scorns Pocketbook, Which is Used in France and Germany.

"It is interesting to note," says an observant New Yorker, "the various methods in which men of different nationalities carry their worldly wealth. The Englishman carries gold silver and copper all loose in his trousers pocket, pulls out a handful of the mixture in an opulent way and selects the coin he needs. The American carries his 'wad' or 'roll' in pretty much the same way, the average man here looking with contempt upon the pocketbook as indicative of a 'tight' disposition. The Frenchman makes use of a leather purse with no distinguishing characteristics. The German uses one gayly embroidered in silks by the fair hands of some Lottchen. The half-civilized capitalist from some torrid South American city carries his dollars in a belt with cunningly devised pockets to baffle the gentlemen with light fingers. Some of these belts are quite expensive. The Italian of the poorer classes ties up his little fortune in a gayly-colored handkerchief secured with many knots, which he secretes in some mysterious manner about his clothes. A similar course has charms for the Spaniard, while the lower class Russian exhibits a preference for his boots or the lining of his clothes as a hiding place for his savings."

Saves Two Lives.
"Neither my sister nor myself might be living today, if it had not been for Dr. King's New Discovery" writes A. D. McDonald of Fayetteville, N. C., R. F. D. No. 8, "for we both had frightful coughs that no other remedy could help. We were told my sister had consumption. She was very weak and had night sweats but your wonderful medicine completely cured us both. It's the best I ever used or heard of." For sore lungs, coughs, colds, hemorrhage, lagrippe, asthma, hay fever, croup, whooping cough,—all bronchial troubles,—its supreme. Trial bottle free. 50c and $1.00. Guaranteed by all druggists.

Married People's Ball.
The married people's grand ball given at the hall last Saturday night was well attended and proved to be a grand success. Good music, good floor and a jolly good crowd made the affair the social event of the season.

Two prizes were given during the evening. One to the best waltzing couple over 35 years and one to the oldest couple dancing. Thales H. Edwards and Mrs. Fred Wandless won the 1st prize and the 2nd prize went to Mr. and Mrs. Thales H. Edwards, owing to the fact R. M. Leishman was not accompanied by his wife. The judges were Mesdames Estella Davis and Grace Haws and Mr. C. R. Wing.

TOM MARSHALL'S SPITTOON
Superior Court Clerk's Rebuke of the Famous but Uncleanly Orator of Kentucky.

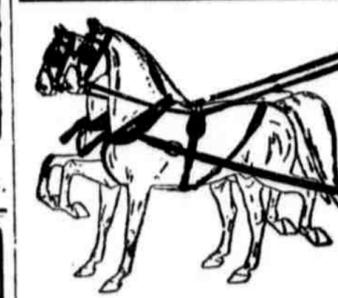

Tom Marshall, the great Kentucky orator, was also a great masticator of tobacco, and one of the most uncleanly of men in the disposition of the salivary "juice," an abundant deposit of which usually decorated his ample shirt-bosom. The contrary of Marshall in this particular was Return J. Meigs, clerk of the national supreme court, whose person and office were always models of neatness and cleanliness. One day Marshall entered the clerk's office, as usual masticating a great quid of "dogleg," and before he had finished his business found it necessary to unload. "Where do you keep your spittoon, Mr. Meigs?" asked the advocate, after a fruitless search the desired utensil. "I do not keep one," said the clerk. "Where do you spit?" "I do not spit." "I mean, where do I spit?—I chew, Mr. Meigs." "Generally, you spit on your shirt bosom, Mr. Marshall." The great advocate left the office, discharged his cargo of tobacco, and returning, resumed his examination of the records with complete serenity.

Old Soldier Tortured.
"For years I suffered unspeakable torture from indigestion, constipation and liver trouble," wrote A. K. Smith, a war veteran at Erie, Pa., "but Dr. King's New Life Pills fixed me all right. They're simply great." Try them for any stomach, liver or kidney trouble. Only 25c at all druggists.

The Mackrave Company, who will be remembered as presenting "Salomy Jane," "The Village Blacksmith," "The Devil," etc. here last October, will return to Garland for a 3-night engagement, commencing Monday, January 9th.

The press agent for this attraction showed the Globe force some newspaper comments from Provo, where the company just finished a weeks engagement, and from these comments we gather the information that the company must be even stronger than when last seen in this city. The plays selected will be from the following: "The Call of His Mate," "The Power of the Order," "Alaska," "The Squawman," "In the Bishop's Carriage," etc., and should be sufficient inducement to secure the patronage of the entire community.
Seats on sale at the Garland Mercantile Co.
