THE STATUS AT PRESENT.

What Democrats Must Do—A Bloody Riot—The Result in Maine—Cholera.

THE PRESENT STATUS of the Election Situation in New York.

New York, November 14.—A comparison of the returns from the eight districts thus far canvassed with the bulletins sent out on election night by the City Press Association, has resulted in showing a net Republican gain of 351 votes. In regard to this the Post says, this afternoon: At first sight such a statement seems important, but in reality the changes thus far made have no effect upon Cleveland's plurality...

New York, November 14, 3:30 p. m.—The Ninth assembly district of this city, on which the adherents have been engaged to-day, has not yet been completed. The returns made up for the newspapers on election night contained many errors, but, strange to say, subsequent careful examinations of the official returns make scarcely any change in the plurality for Cleveland as given unofficially. An explanation of this is found in the fact that the errors made on one side were balanced with extraordinary evenness by errors on the other.

New York, November 14.—The total vote of New York county, with which comparisons of the Associated Press are now being made as the canvass progresses, is that furnished by the City Press bureau on November 6th. It gave the following figures: Cleveland 133,930, Blaine 89,347, Butler 33,333, St. John 979, Cleveland's plurality 43,583. There are 21 assembly districts in New York county. Their vote as first reported by the city press is as follows:

Table with 5 columns: District, Blaine, Cleveland, Butler, St. John. Totals: 89,347; 133,930; 33,333; 979.

The following has already been reported: The following has already been reported: The following has already been reported: ...

Table with 5 columns: District, Blaine, Cleveland, Butler, St. John. Totals: 89,347; 133,930; 33,333; 979.

All the counties of this State have sent in their official reports, excepting New York, Erie and Monroe. If there is no change in the plurality of these three counties, from what was reported by their county clerks, just before the canvass of their returns, Cleveland's plurality in the State will be 1,287. The fifty-seven counties which have reported show gains for Cleveland of 27, losses for Cleveland of 40; gains for Blaine of 13, and losses for Blaine of 11. The canvass in New York County for the six districts already reported is as follows: Cleveland's gains 12, Cleveland's losses 160; Blaine's gains 79, Blaine's losses 61; net gain for Blaine 138. This does not include the differences already noted in the incompletely canvassed of the First and Seventh assembly districts, nor the changes in New York County included in the statement of the vote, which puts Cleveland's plurality at 1,287. The Fourth precinct of the First election district, this city which was sent back to the inspectors yesterday for correction in its form, was counted election night as having given 41 for Blaine, 193 for Cleveland and 1 for Butler. The sixth, nineteenth and twenty-sixth precincts of the Seventh Assembly District which were similarly returned for correction, gave, according to the first figures reported, Blaine 103, Cleveland 375, Butler 2. If these figures are not changed, the First District will show a gain of 9 for Blaine over the figures of November 6th and a loss for Cleveland of 49. The Seventh District will show a gain for Blaine of 215 and a gain for Cleveland of 94. It is claimed by the Democrats that the first count in these two districts was incorrect and that the final canvass will show little or no gain for either side.

CATSKILL, N. Y., November 14.—The county clerk states that the official canvass of Green County will not be completed until Monday evening next.

New York, November 14.—The missing election district of the Ninth assembly district is the Thirty-first. This was before reported as giving Blaine 112, Cleveland, 113, and Butler three.

The Tribune's table gives Blaine 57,731 plurality in the counties of the State outside of New York and King's. In the latter counties, it says the Democrats claim 158,957 plurality for Cleveland. The losses thus far of the canvass of the above two counties are said to reduce Cleveland's plurality in the State to 57,578, still giving Cleveland a plurality in the State of 851.

The official canvass of the Ninth Assembly District of this county, with the Thirty-first Election District missing, gives Blaine 4,410 votes; Cleveland, 5,117; Butler, 122; St. John, 114. The vote published November 5th was: Blaine, 4,337; Cleveland, 5,205; Butler, 119; St. John, 121. The Tenth District, complete, gives Blaine 4,177; Cleveland, 5,591; Butler, 124; St. John, 11; a change of 5 in favor of Cleveland from the first press report. The Eleventh District, complete, gives Blaine 3,657; Cleveland, 3,345; Butler, 57; St. John, 35; no change. The Twelfth District, complete, gives Blaine 3,018; Cleveland, 5,172; Butler, 71; St. John, 15; a change of 1 in favor of Cleveland. In the Thirteenth, Sixteenth and Twenty-eighth Election Districts were referred to committees on technicalities. The Fourteenth District, complete, gives Blaine 3,300; Cleveland, 4,337; Butler, 74; St. John, 29; a loss for Blaine of 5, and a gain for Cleveland of 10, compared with the early press reports.

The Sun will publish on Saturday a table of pluralities by the counties of New York State for Cleveland, showing the total to be 1,241.

What Democrats Must Do.

New York, November 14.—The Tammany Hall general committee in their wigwam, to-night, celebrated the election of Cleveland and Hendricks. Speeches were made by Samuel J. Randall, John Kelly and Congressman Cox. A great crowd was present. Randall paid a tribute to Tammany for its faithful support of the Democratic ticket, and added: "We must not expect abject admiration-partisanship to come from the next Administration. The Democratic party must redeem all its promises to the conservative people of the United States. They must abolish every unnecessary office. They must bring the government down to economy and they must at once reduce the extraordinarily great revenues of the country. The great amount of public lands that had been given away through the profligate legislation of the Republican party must be taken back to the ownership of the people, to be held for actual settlers, under the homestead laws. The office holders must be taught to perform their duties under the restriction of the laws." Kelly defended himself and Tammany Hall from the charges of disloyalty to Cleveland.

Bloody Riot.

MUSCIE, Ind., November 14.—Selma, six miles east, was the scene of a bloody riot last night. The Democrats, who govern that portion of the county, gathered to celebrate the victory, and the report preceded them that they intended to raise the rebel flag on a Blaine and Logan pole. To this report one was added that the crowd had shouted for Jeff Davis when coming in, which precipitated the row and a bloody riot. William Bell was shot; one Arrogass was seriously injured, and a number unknown, seriously injured, fled in the darkness and their names were not obtainable. The Republicans ran the Democrats out of town at last, and the wildest excitement continued for hours. It was rumored that Wm. Dobson shot Bell, and a mob was formed to hang Dobson, but sober counsel prevailed and the mob was dropped. The end is not yet.

Big Ad in Columbia, S. C.

COLUMBIA, S. C., November 14.—The Democrats had an immense torchlight procession here to-night in honor of Cleveland and Hendricks' election. Speeches were made at the State Capitol by Senators M. C. Butler, Wade Hampton, Governor Thompson and others. Seventy commercial travelers in uniform and Hubbard dresses preceded the procession. A dispatch to the Daily Herald, from Charles A. Dana, editor of the New York Times, was read by Senator Butler. It stated that Cleveland's plurality was 1,250 in New York, and that no party of reasonable men would now question the accuracy of these figures. The dispatch was received with thundering applause.

Irving Hall Demonstrates.

New York, November 14.—Irving Hall celebrated the election of Cleveland and Hendricks to-night. Resolutions congratulating the Democrats and Independent Republicans on the result of the campaign, and predicting an incorruptible and capable Administration, were adopted. Ex-United States Senator Gordon, of Georgia, and P. J. Mayhan, of California, made addresses.

THE NEW YORK RETURNS.

The result of the official canvass of New York State is given below, with the exception noted at the bottom:

Table with 6 columns: County, Blaine, Cleveland, Butler, St. John, Plurality. Lists counties like Albany, Allegany, Broome, etc., with corresponding vote counts.

The votes of the counties marked with stars are not the official returns, but have been made up from reports received at various times since the election. Little or no change will be made in the above figures.

Church Centenaries.

LONDON, November 14.—St. Paul's Cathedral, to-day, was the scene of a stately service in commemoration of the hundredth anniversary of the consecration of Bishop Seabury, the first American Bishop of the Protestant Episcopal Church. The service was conducted by the Archbishop of Canterbury, assisted by the Bishops of London, Winchester, Durham and Albany.

The Result in Maine.

ACQUITA, Me., November 14.—The Kennebec Journal will publish, to-morrow morning, the vote of the State at the late presidential election, excepting ten small towns and plantations not yet returned to the office of the secretary of state, showing the following result: Blaine, 71,713; Cleveland, 61,630; Butler, 3,904; St. John, 2,135; Blaine's plurality, 20,089; majority, 13,823.

The Storey Estate.

CATCAO, November 14.—In the Storey will case, to-day, the Court refused to admit the will to probate drawn by Mr. Storey in 1881, and which is known as his last will on the ground that he was then of unsound mind. This will drawn in 1881, containing nearly three hundred provisions of the one of 1881 is not yet offered for probate. The Court also appointed A. L. Patterson, who has been acting as executor, as administrator of the estate, on a bond of $10,000.

Earthquake in England.

LONDON, November 14.—A severe shock of earthquake, accompanied with a terrific explosive report, occurred to-night at Clitheroe, Lancashire, and about twenty-five miles from Manchester. The shock threw down chimneys in the streets and caused great consternation and excitement among the inhabitants.

OGDEN FLASHES.

THE LADIES of the Catholic church are attending the rolling fair at the Union Opera House in the near future.

SIR JAMES KING was in Ogden to-day searching for the parties who committed the robbery at Farmington Friday night.

J. C. BUTLER arrived in this city last evening from Chattanooga, Kentucky. Mr. Butler will probably become a permanent resident of Ogden.

FOUR VAGRANTS were convicted of petty larceny in the Police Court this morning and sentenced to nineteen days' imprisonment in the city jail.

PHILIP SCHUMAN and Geo. Roberts were arrested this afternoon for trying to annihilate each other. They will appear before Justice Farr to-morrow morning.

A GOVERNMENT officer became dispossessed of $35 while loafing around the depot Thursday night. He appeared to be in a state of somnambulism, and was unable to give a correct account of the manner in which the money was taken.

WAS THIS remarkable stretch of the imagination the result of a too intimate acquaintance with the foaming beer or the sparkling champagne? Is it attributable to the duds and dandified proclivities and inclinations of the editor? Was it his usual manner of working off election excitement? Is it possible that it owes its origin to his late sojourn in the classic confines of Heber City? Was it caused by an unintentional inhalation of the bracing ozone which wafted down on fairy wings from the pine clad Wasatch? Did this sylph-like phantasy emanate from a heated and overworked brain? Was it merely the fantastical wanderings of a diseased physical organization? Or what was it that caused that weirdly poetical article to appear in Thursday's issue of the Ogden Herald. If the editor is unreasonably permitted to so recklessly rhapsodize over a given image, God pity the unprotected citizens of Ogden. If his next effusion should perchance be a romantic description of one of the lovely and fair daughters of our land, we shudder with horror at the thought of such a calamitous disaster befalling a happy and a prosperous people.

A TEAM belonging to John Hedlund came tearing down Fourth Street to-day at a furious gait, and were halted in their frenzied flight by a Mr. McDonald, of Butte, who courageously risked both life and limb in endeavoring to stop the frightened animals. It was reported that the same man's team ran off several years ago and in attempting to stop them Mr. Nels McCarty had his leg broken. The practice of leaving horses unfastened, and endangering the security of the community is becoming frightfully prevalent in Ogden, and all parties should be made to conform with the city ordinance which states that any person who neglects to secure his team to some substantial place of fastening is liable to a fine of $15 for each offense.

No More Slugging.

New York, November 14.—The police commissioners received a communication from the mayor, asking that the police prevent glove fights, such as take place in Madison Square garden, on the ground that they were demoralizing and differed in no degree from prize fights. The Superintendent of Police was accordingly instructed to prohibit such exhibitions in future, and an order to that effect was sent to all the police captains.
