WHAT ARE YOU GOING TO DO ABOUT IT?

We see, according to a recent sermon of Elder O. H. Bates, that we are all going to hell, or if it is too crowded there, Satan and his host of evil angels will soon be detained upon the earth for a thousand years to make it pleasant for those who haven't behaved themselves. Great stuff that. We have never been quite sure of what is going to happen at the finish, but after Mr. Bates' sermon on "The Millennium and the False Hope of a Second Chance," there no longer remains any doubt regarding what we are to expect. The Elder said in part:

"When Jesus returns to this earth in the clouds of heaven there will be a great earthquake, which will destroy every city in the world, neither will there be vegetation, bird or human inhabitant." In support of this statement the speaker read Jeremiah iv:23: "I beheld the earth, and lo! it was without form and void, and the heavens, and they had no light. I beheld the mountains and lo! they trembled, and all the hills moved lightly. I beheld and lo! there was no man, and all the birds of the heavens were fled."

Continuing, he said "The doctrine of a second chance for salvation is without foundation in the Bible. Revelations xx. tells of a millennium, or 1,000 years, bounded by two resurrections, the one at the beginning, the other at the close, that of the wicked.

"Between the two resurrections, during the 1,000 years, the righteous are in heaven and the wicked are dead. The bottomless pit mentioned in Revelations xx. is the earth in a chaotic condition, the place where Satan, cast out by the decree of God and the chain of circumstances, abides for these 1,000 years. The righteous are all in heaven, where, with Jesus at their head, they will judge the wicked dead and the wicked angels. Before that tribunal everyone will be given justice. The wicked have not yet been resurrected, those living at the coming of Christ have been consumed, and Satan, bound by circumstances over which he has no control, views for 1,000 years the destruction he has wrought by sin.

"At the close of the millennium reign Christ and his people will return to this earth, as is taught in Revelations xxi. The heavenly Jerusalem, with its mansions, gates of pearl and golden streets, will descend upon the spot where Jerusalem now stands. The wicked will be called from their graves and, with the devil at their head, will lay siege against the city of God. They will not take it, for fire will descend from God out of heaven and consume them. This same fire will purify the earth, destroy every trace of sin. Then the scripture will be fulfilled, which says: 'Nevertheless, we, according to his promise, look for new heavens and a new earth, where-in dwelleth righteousness.'

"The false hope of a second probation lulls men to sleep in carnal security at the very time when eternal issues are at stake in their own experiences. The scripture says: 'Now is the accepted time; now is the day of salvation.' Let us make that preparation of heart and life that will fit us for salvation."

We haven't got the heart to comment on the above, but will leave it as it lays for the judgments of our readers. But think of anyone in this day and age getting away with an harangue like that.

SMALL TOWN STUFF

The merchants and professional men in the office buildings on the business streets are again wondering if they are to be annoyed throughout the summer with the braying of the man on horseback announcing that a baseball game will take place in the afternoon. In a city of Salt Lake's pretensions, it is time that such nuisances be prohibited and the annoyance stopped as well as the sneers of those who characterize it for what it is, small town stuff.

NEW INSURANCE AGENCY

The Mountain States Insurance Agency has recently been incorporated and is now doing business in the Newhouse building, writing all kinds of insurance, including fire, liability, elevator, health, burglary, life, accident, industrial, boiler, automobile, rent and plate glass. The company also handles fidelity and surety bonds.

The Mountain States Agency was organized by Dominick A. Homan, who is the president and treasurer of the company, the other officers being W. H. Bintz, Jr., vice president, and Harold R. Smoot secretary. Those mainly interested are a number of young men prominent in the business life of the city representative of such interests as will insure splendid success for the new enterprise.

Mr. Homan, who has been in the insurance business here for three years, first with the Salt Lake Security & Trust company and later with the Warnock Insurance Agency, is thoroughly conversant with the business and the field, and his personal popularity combined with a splendid ability to hustle, mean considerable to the furthering of the plans of the concern.

EFFICIENCY EXPERT LOCATES HERE

Prof. Earl Jay Glade, who has been connected with the Brigham Young university at Provo in the capacity of head of the department of business education and professor of commerce, has opened offices here in the city and will operate as an efficiency engineer. During Mr. Glade's professional career he has been honored with several positions of prominence in the educational fraternity, one of which was the presidency of the business department of the N. E. A. which held its session at St. Paul. He is now a member of the national committee on the standardization of commercial subjects. In these respective capacities Mr. Glade is known throughout the west. During the holidays, he was called to Denver to address the State Teachers' Association of Colorado on "Advanced Education in Business."

His new firm is known as the Glade Efficiency service and is located in the Newhouse building. Its object is to increase efficiency in business, through the elimination of wastes—wastes of materials, energy, friction, and wastes due to crude organization, management, policies, etc.

Associated with this service, is Miss Leona D. Billings, who for five years has had charge of the stenographic and typewriting department of the Brigham Young university.
