

only beginning to learn the advantage of a free trade market in the United States, and already extensive developments are under way to enlarge and organize the egg industry, while several factories are in progress of construction to manufacture dried eggs for the American market, to be used by bakeries.

If the Democratic tariff law continues on the statute books the American hens will have to declare a moratorium.

In 1896 Mr. Lansing was one of the Gold Democrats. Hence, his selection to succeed Mr. Bryan may be fairly taken as more evidence of the president's "entirely candid sympathy and friendship," for his ex-secretary of state.

If Senator Kern is right and Wilson really "will have no more enthusiastic supporter than Bryan," what a frost the second Wilson campaign will be!

My son, beware the Skirt that fleeth when no man pursueth, for the chances are she is only trying to start something.—Shadrach the Wise, in the Phoenix.

The Georgia legislature has adopted a new rule forbidding admission to the floor of members who present themselves in an intoxicated condition. Did anyone ever hear of a Republican legislature that had to adopt a rule of this kind?

We should think it would be rather discouraging for those who work hard to make the Wizard carnival a success to have automobile owners fall down as they did on Wednesday night when what was to have been a beautiful parade was a joke, owing to the apathetic attitude of those who could of made it worth while. The civic pride of some of those who spout loudest about it is of a peculiar brand and there is about as much carnival spirit here, outside of the hoodlum element, as might be found in the vicinity of the Arctic circle.
