REX

A field of romance that has been almost neglected by dramatists has been utilized in the Mutual master picture, "Overalls," a five-act western drama which will be seen on the Rex bill for the first three days of this week, beginning with the matinee this afternoon. Rhea Mitchell and William Stowell are the leading players. The scenes are laid in a big construction camp in southern California where a gigantic engineering project is now under way. The lives of the engineer and men engaged in this great work are replete with adventure and the story permits of great imaginative possibilities. The theme of the story is the quest for true love on the part of a girl of riches sought by unscrupulous suitors.

For the middle of the week the Rex management has secured "Tangled Hearts," a Bluebird wonderplay with Louise Lovely as the star.

For the last two days of the week the seventeenth chapter of the thrilling series of "Graft" stories will hold the top position on the Rex program. A second drama, "The Crimson Trail" and a comedy, will round out the bill.

LIBERTY

"The Iron Claw," the big Pathe series of stories is on the Liberty programs for Sunday, Monday and Tuesday. Pearl White, the heroine of the tale, seemingly has an endless array of beautiful garments of every sort to delight the eye of her audiences. In the new chapter which begins with today's matinee she is seen in several astonishing outfits. The story carries the mystery of the life of the young woman whose earliest recollections are of a den of thieves, albeit she is of gentle birth.
