

PHOTOGRAPH OF THE PORTRAIT OF MRS. HERBERT R. MACMILLAN RECENTLY PAINTED BY GIRARD V. HALE. IT IS A STRIKING PICTURE AND TYPICAL OF THE WORK OF THIS TALENTED ARTIST

There will be various attractions at both places as usual, and special attention will be paid to motoring parties who go to these attractive places to dine and dance. The season has scarcely started as yet, but both Idlewild and the Hermitage will attract a large number of people as soon as the warm weather sets in. Mr. Soell is well known as a caterer and club steward through long experience here and elsewhere; and Mr. Dunkerly has successfully conducted the dining room at the Hermitage several seasons.

Colonel and Mrs. Edwin F. Holmes will be here in June, and will make their home at the Hotel Utah, although they will spend a great deal of time at their country home, Oakwood. Colonel and Mrs. Holmes and Mr. and Mrs. Jay T. Harris will spend part of the season there, and will entertain extensively during the summer.

Mrs. Benner X. Smith was the hostess at a tea given at her home on Tuesday at which she was assisted by Mrs. Arthur S. Bird, Mrs. W.

Mont Ferry, Mrs. George Raymond Walker, Mrs. Robert B. Harkness and Mrs. Heber M. Wells.

Mrs. Moses Kirkpatrick and Mrs. John A. Marshall were the guests of honor at a luncheon given by Mrs. Walter Lewis at her home on Tuesday. Covers were laid for twelve.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis W. Scwles are rejoicing over the arrival of a baby boy who was born on Sunday.

The good stork arrived at the Joel Nibley menage on Sunday, leaving a son to gladden the household.

Mrs. Theodore S. Amussen was hostess at a tea given at the Dwyer home on Friday afternoon.

Mrs. A. H. Cowie has returned from New York where she has been visiting her daughter, Miss Grace Cowie.

Mrs. Enos A. Wall entertained at a luncheon at the Country club on Tuesday for Mrs. John A. Callow, who will spend the summer in the east. Following the luncheon the guests played bridge.

Mrs. A. C. Ensign and Mrs. O. H. Stewart entertained informally on Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Stewart in honor of Miss Emma A. Stewart.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Whitley have returned from San Francisco.

COL. THOMAS G. WEBER

Col. Weber's business career really began when he became assistant secretary of Zion's Co-operative Mercantile institution. Since then it has been wonderful. He was assistant secretary until June, 1879, then secretary to 1871, secretary and treasurer to 1875; and from 1888 to date has been secretary and general manager.

When he became general manager the stock of the Z. C. M. I. was selling below par; today the $100 share is quoted at $391.

Col. Weber was a member of the city council in 1884-85; an alderman, 1896 to January 1, 1890.

He has been president of Zion's Benefit Building society since June 26, 1883; he was president of the Salt Lake & Ogden Gas & Electric Light company from 1896 to 1898; he was the first president of the Salt Lake City public library from 1897 to 1904; he has been a directors of Zion's Savings Bank and Trust company since 1873; of the Home Fire Insurance company since 1886; he was director in the Utah Sugar company from 1899 to 1902; a director in the Postal Telegraph company from 1899 to 1915; in the Utah Light & Railway company from 1904 to 1914; has been a director in the Utah Hotel company since 1909; in the Utah State National bank since 1913, and was vice-president of the Utah Light & Power company from 1898 to 1903.

He has for many years been a member of the Alta and Commercial clubs.

The offices he has held and is holding, indicate the business equipment and character of the man.

He had to have the ability to obtain them, the character to retain them.

No business man in Utah stands higher. He has resided in Salt Lake City for more than half a century and not one reproach attaches to his name. Duty has been his watchword. Men in all ranks of life have learned to lean upon him; his perfect integrity is never doubted; his judgment and business sagacity are never questioned.

Outside of business his home life is a model one—he comes very close to being a perfect husband, father, friend, neighbor, and citizen. Were all men like him no laws would be needed, no courts, no peace officers, though he is shrewd and resolute enough to handle one of the very greatest business houses in the western half of the United States and cause its stock to advance four hundred per cent in twenty-eight years.

He exults in the progress of Salt Lake and Utah and hails every advance with joy.

He is one of Utah's most sterling citizens.
