Miss Vine—Do you favor women proposing? Mrs. Oaks—Certainly not. When a woman picks out a man she should make him propose.—Houston Chronicle.

"My man, where did you become such an expert swimmer?" "Why, lady," responded our hero, modestly, "I used to be a traffic cop in Venice."—Buffalo Express.

Times were bad—very bad, indeed. No wonder that Alf and 'Erb, who lived by their wits and nimble fingers, were discouraged. Surely this was no place for a man who desired to turn an honest penny. "It's most enough to myke one grow honest," grumbled Alf, the dog-master, as he pored through the "Lost and Found" column of a daily paper. "Aynt there nuffin'?" asked his pal. "Not arf of nuffin'," grunted Alf. "Why, where's your eyes, Alf?" said 'Erb, a minute later. "Listen 'ere, 'Lorst, at 4 o'clock last evenin', a black poodle, between Shottlegate stryt and Grimstone Drive. No questions arst.' Take 'em the bloomin' poodle yer collared this mornink." "They're arskin' for a black poodle, funny," sneered Alf, "and mines a white 'un." "Garn, that doesn't matter," retorted 'Erb. "Jes' tell 'em it 'owled orl night long and turned white wif grief."—Loudon Punch.

NOW'S THE TIME FOR SUMMER COAL

If you could appreciate the extra economy and pleasure of Kenilworth Summer Coal, you would use no other for Spring, Summer and Autumn. Takes less coal to accomplish the same results, because of its intensive heat and quick-burning qualities. Eliminates long-burning, uncomfortable fires. No kindling necessary to start a fire; a few twists of newspaper is all that is necessary. Order by name from your dealer.

NEW BUILDING

For thirty-two years the public has contributed to our growth, until we now employ twenty-eight men in our Loan, Insurance, Abstract and Probate Departments.

We are now building our permanent home at 151 South Main Street, where we will have larger quarters than any other financial institution in the city.

WOULD THIS BE REQUIRED UNLESS OUR METHODS WERE RIGHT?
