CORRECT DRESS FOR WOMEN.
216 SOUTH MAIN ST.

The air of individuality and exclusiveness that identifies the creations of the foremost designers of Paris and New York characterizes the hats and gowns we have purchased for this spring and the coming summer.

Women who are correctly clothed look to us for smartness in styles.

VOICE CULTURE AND THE ART OF SINGING

Redolent with the Odors of Spring

Are the beautiful blossoms with which our store is replete.

The Springtime is in every one of them, violets, roses, tulips, hyacinths, daffodils, carnations and more.

There is just one best place of a kind in every city—ours is that here.

SPOTS

will appear on the best of apparel, no matter how careful the wearer may be, but then there is consolation in knowing where to send your finery when soiled.

The REGAL WAY OF FRENCH DRY CLEANING removes a lot of spots that no other process will touch.

Now watch for SPOTS then telephone for our wagon.

mediately, and all the way down Pennsylvania avenue her face wore a broad grin.

The Hart McKees are finally divorced.

No more can Hartie bang his six-shooter out of his wife's bedroom window and refuse to take a bath. On his part he can refuse to change underwear for as long as he wishes and Mrs. Hart can't nag him.

The court declared McKee was lacking in "elementary decency" because he brought into court a few dozen of his wife's love letters and read them with glee before the crowd. Not satisfied with swearing that her husband wouldn't take a bath or change his underwear for months at a time, Mrs. McKee swore he stole her rings and pawned them. The court reprimanded her for this, claiming her first accusations were enough and sufficient. Mamma gets the che-ild.

Mrs. Don E. Ray entertained at the Orpheum today in honor of one of the June brides, Miss Sarah Willwon.

Mrs. J. M. Reinsimar entertains at bridge tea this m.

Miss L. Oswald entertains at bridge Monday afternoon.

Virginia Beatty is to return the latter part of next month after a year at Dana Hall.

Sam Newhouse is doing a lot of globe trotting these days. Back from the east the first of the week and went to the coast next day taking Miss Moore and Miss Jutte, her guest, with him. They returned Thursday.

Mrs. Edward Rosenbaum is planning several parties for her sister, Miss Sadie Friendly, of Portland, who is here visiting her at her Grigham street home.

The usual spring parties and receptions at Rowland Hall are looming up as June draws near. Invitations are out for the reception to be given the seniors at the hall Thursday evening, May 21. The affair promises to be unusually brilliant.

Col. and Mrs. Wall, with Selma, will not be back for a week or ten days yet. They sent word from Washington the other day that they wouldn't even start for Brigham street for a week. Everyone is waiting for a look at the colonel's fine new honk-cart. The car is claimed to have been the finest on exhibition at the last New York auto show.

Welcome, Colonel.

The George T. Odells are back from the coast, their daughters, Mrs. J. F. Richards and Marie Odell, returning with them. Maude Miller, who has spent the past year at Stanford, will come back with the Fred Hornungs.

The Karl Schieds are in their new Brigham street home. It's a beauty from top to bottom and artistically and uniquely furnished. One of the swellest homes on the street.
