LOVE.

The mighty ill—Spenser.

By John Kendrick Bangs.

If love be ill,
If passion's thrill
Is of disease quintessence,
May it be mine,
O maid divine,
To know no convalescence.

And, by the bye,
May you be nigh
At all times, dear; for, curse me,
With you not here to nurse me!
It were no bliss
To suffer this

KNEW THE SIZE.

"I want some collars for my husband," said a lady in a department store, "but I am afraid I have forgotten the size."

"Thirteen and a half, ma'am?" suggested the clerk.

"That's it. How on earth did you know?"

"Gentlemen who let their wives buy their collars for 'em are almost always about that size, ma'am," exclaimed the observant clerk.—Everybody's Magazine.

"Do you think the morals of the country are getting better?" "Of course they are. When a congressman wants to make money now he resigns.—Philadelphia Public-Ledger.

Miss Cutting—I see by the paper that all the swell set was at the Assembly ball last night.

Miss McBluff—Yes; I expected to be there, but was prevented— Miss Cutting—The idea! I hope the doorkeeper wasn't rough with you, dear.—Catholic Standard and Times.

The old time dirth of good cafes about town is almost a thing of the past now. Salt Lake cafe men are popularizing their places with half a dozen new franchises and the public gets the benefit. One of the handsomest cafes about town is the Heron on East Second South—tastily fitted up and decorated. It is attractive and is really a smart place to eat. The kitchen is one of the finest in the city.

THE ROYAL WAY.

In the bakery or in the cafe is one of perfect cleanliness. That is the real reason of the popularity of the Royal. Drop in at the lunch hour and find out how nice everything is, or drop in between meals and take a look at the cleanest kitchen in the west.
