THE MIST BARQUE.

Over the wave rim faint and far
(Spectral sail and ghostly spar)
Through the mist banks a vessel
glides
Riding the ridge of the tossing tides.

Is it Van der Decken again,
Scourge of the sea, with his evil men,
Come to wreak some murky spell
Out of the yawn of the gulfs of Hell?

Thus it seems that the craft might be,
With its shifting shroud of mystery,
Forth from the unknown weirdly cast,
Into the unknown fading fast.

Now no sign of it near or far,
Spectral sail or ghostly spar!
Yet shall I dream of it shudderingly,
Vanished eldritch ship of the sea.

Fearful lest some barque be borne
In wake of the wraith (ah, hearts that mourn)
Through the power of its fatal spell
Into the yawn of the gulfs of Hell.
—Clinton Scollard, in New York Sun.
